HIGH COURT NOTICES.

ISSUED BY AUTHORITY OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT FORT WILLIAM IN BENGAL.

NOTIFICATION.

The 7th September 1888.

CRIMINAL.

THE following revised Rule cancelling Rule 12 at page 113 of the Criminal Rules and Orders, and amending a portion of Rule 13 at pages 113 and 114 ibid which has been framed by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, under 24 and 25 Victoria, Chapter 104, section 15, having been approved and sanctioned by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, is published for general information.

By order of the High Court,
C. M. W. BRETT,
Registrar.

PRESENT RULES.

12. [Chapter XXII, Code of Criminal Procedure. Record in Summary trials. C. O. No. 3 of 8th July 1876]—(a). A Magistrate trying an offence summarily, and passing a sentence from which an appeal lies, should not make the record required by section 264 of the Code of Criminal Procedure as an entry in the register prescribed by section 263, and then on the Appellate Court calling for the record of the trial, cut out and send up the portion of the register containing this entry. The practice of mutilating official registers is open to the gravest objection and is strictly prohibited; there is no warrant for it in the law.

(b). Section 263 of the Code of Criminal Procedure directs that a register shall be kept for a certain purpose, namely, for the purpose of entering such particulars as are specified in the section, in cases where no appeal lies. The provisions of this section do not apply to any other cases.

(c). The judgment required to be drawn up in appealable cases under section 264 is to contain the particulars mentioned in section 263 and something more, namely, the substance of the evidence on which the conviction was had. But it is not to be entered in the Register of non-appealable cases, and is evidently intended to be in a separate form, so that, when necessary, it may be submitted to the Court of Appeal.

13. [Chapter XXII, Code of Criminal Procedure. Inspection of Registers of Summary trials. C. O. No. 1 of 11th January 1888.]—District Magistrates should satisfy themselves from time to time that the law regarding summary trials is properly observed, and especially that Magistrates do not exceed their jurisdiction, a duty which may most conveniently be performed by an occasional and not infrequent examination of the registers of summary trials.

REVISED RULES.

Cancel Rule 12, Chapter VI (at page 113), Rules and Orders, Criminal. In Rule 13, Chapter VI (at page 114), Rules and Orders, Criminal, for Registers substitute Records.

RESOLUTION ON THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PRESIDENCY DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1887-88.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—MISCELLANEOUS.

Calcutta, the 6th September 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The General Administration Report of the Presidency Division for the year 1887-88.

This excellent report is submitted by Mr. Smith, who was in charge of the Division throughout the year.

2. All the District and Sub-divisional Officers appear to have made a good use of their time in camp: their tours were properly planned and carried out.

3. The rainfall generally was somewhat deficient, but it fell opportunely. In the 24-Pergunnahs there was a good average harvest. In the Nuddea district the aus rice, indigo, and jute were all good and above the average. The outturn of the cold-weather crops was somewhat inferior in quantity, but in quality the produce more than made up for the loss. In Jessore the outturn was little below and in Khulna above, the average. The cultivation of sugarcane in Jessore is increasing, as it is found to be a paying crop. In Moorshedabad the year was one of good harvest. The Commissioner reports that the mulberry crops of this district appeared good, and that, although the partial failure in cocoons must have affected the value of the crop, which occupies a

4. Taken as a whole, the year was healthier than its predecessors, and there is a remarkable decrease in the number of deaths from cholera in all the districts. There was also a conspicuous immunity from small-pox. In these respects the mortuary returns correspond with those in Calcutta itself, where there was less cholera than in any year on record, except 1880, and small-pox was almost entirely stamped out. There was, however, an increase in the mortality from fever in the 24-Pergunnahs and Moorshedabad districts.

5. In commenting on the material condition of the agricultural community, the Commissioner states that the upper class of tenants holding their lands directly from the zemindars are in easy and independent circumstances, and that the class of under-tenants, though paying comparatively high rates of rent, are still able, with ordinary care and thrift, to provide themselves with a sufficiency of food and other necessities. In regard to the labouring classes, it appears that the demand for agricultural labour is, on the whole, equal to and in some seasons more than equal to the local supply. Village artisans as a body are as well off as those who cultivate their own lands: but there are cases of poverty among them, as in the weaver class, seldom to be met with among cultivators. The only help for these people is in factories, either in place of, or supplementary to, their home manufactures. In Moorshedabad it is proposed to hold an exhibition in the coming cold weather with the object of stimulating and, if possible, reviving in some measure the old indigenous arts and manufactures, which it is said are losing all distinctive excellence.

6. Prices of food were lower than for some years past, and the surplus for sale was larger than usual. Generally speaking the year was one of prosperity to all classes.

7. An interesting section of the report is devoted to manufactures and trade. There are 45 mills, factories, and presses at work in the 24-Pergunnahs district, exclusive of a number of jute screws, soorkee and flour mills, and castor oil presses, of which no statistics are available. The quantity of jute worked up in the jute mills was 90,329 tons, and the estimated value of the outturn 17 crores of rupees, against 76,800 tons and 13 crores, respectively, in the year preceding. There are four cotton mills which appear to have worked up 7,685 tons of cotton. This shows a decrease of 645 tons on last year's work, but the value of the outturn is given as 56 lakhs of rupees—four lakhs more than that for last year. A feature in the season is the reported increase in the export of Calcutta mills yarn to China. Besides the large sugar mills at Cossipore, there are said to be 170 smaller factories in the district at which sugar is refined according to the native method, and where the outturn is estimated at only 10,800 maunds. In Jessore sugar is manufactured all over the district. There is one manufactory at Kotechandpore, where 14,833 maunds of refined sugar were produced. The manufacture of unrefined sugar or "dalua" is carried on at about 200 factories. It is observed, however, that the industry has declined since foreign sugar has been brought into the market. Besides sugar, a large quantity of goor or molasses is manufactured from date juice and a small quantity from sugarcane juice; the extension of sugarcane cultivation is to meet the increased demand for molasses and not for manufactured sugar. Indigo prospered during the year: the value of the outturn from the Nuddea district is estimated at Rs. 9,08,288, from Jessore at Rs. 5,60,545, and from Moorshedabad at Rs. 8,43,515. In regard to the Nuddea district the Commissioner writes:—

"It may be noted that Baboo Bipro Das Paul Chowdhry of Natudoho, by education an Engineer, a man of considerable means and intelligence, has opened a brass foundry at Mohesgunge, and it is said that the manufacture and trade in brass vessels are brisk."

The Lieutenant-Governor, who was already aware of this enterprise, trusts that it may meet with every success. The District of Nuddea is famous for its brass wares, which are largely exported to Calcutta and other places.

8. The excise revenue of the Division (which includes the Town of Calcutta) increased from Rs. 27,13,756 to Rs. 29,64,783. There was an increase in all the districts. The Stamp revenue increased from Rs. 57,80,348 to Rs. 38,25,837. It appears that the average rate of fine imposed per head in stamp cases was Rs. 9 against Rs. 12 of the previous year, and the Lieutenant-Governor concurs with the Commissioner's observation that sufficient attention income-tax collections amounted to Rs. 16,70,903. The land revenue collections show a decrease from Rs. 50,42,829 to Rs. 50,07,167. This is chiefly due to the payment of the demand of some estates by remittance transfer receipts, which could not be adjusted till after the close of the year.

9. The departments which, as a general rule, are under the control and administration of the Local Boards are the repairs of village roads, the repairs of unmetalled district roads, and the management of pounds. Regarding the work of the Local Self-Government Act in the 24-Pergunnahs district, the Commissioner observes "that the Local Boards at Baraset, Basirhat, and Diamond Harbour are presided over by non-official Chairmen, who seem to take proper interest in their work. The attendance at the District Board meetings was fair, and the members generally evinced an intelligent interest in the matters placed before them for consideration." Of Nuddea it is said—"On the whole, all the Local Boards in this district have worked well, and the members generally have taken a fair share of the work." The Magistrate of Jessore, Mr. Barrow, "does not think that the working of the Local Boards was carried on smoothly during the year, there having been constant friction with the officers of the various departments." In Khulna "the Local Boards showed great interest in the management of the matters placed under their control. The meetings were all very well attended, and the proceedings were conducted with intelligence and in a business-like manner." The Magistrate of Moorshedabad observes that "all the members of the Local Boards did not evince an equal interest in their work. Jungypore compares unfavourably with other sub-divisions. It failed to secure a quorum at four meetings." Summarising his remarks on this subject, Mr. Smith writes:—

"On the whole, it may be said that the system of Local Self-Government introduced a year-and-a-half ago has been working smoothly. Mr. Barrow, however, does not think that the scheme has as yet been a success. It seems to me, however, that this result in Jessore is to some extent due to want of adequate attention to requirements on the part of Mr. Barrow as Chairman of the District Board. The friction to which he refers could have been averted by the timely preparation of rules regulating the relations between the various officers and bodies. Mr. Barrow says, he himself in the light of the past now sees that he might have done more, and in that opinion I agree with him."

10. The following important remarks are recorded by Mr. Smith on the subject of municipalities:—

"The results of the late election, it may be noted, have been satisfactory in more ways than one. In the first place, there were unmistakable signs of a growing desire among the population to elect better representative men in the proper sense of the word than formerly. The late elections were more numerously attended, and more hotly contested in most Municipalities than on the first occasion, and it is therefore hoped that the members of the new Boards, having been chosen more on their own merits, will show a better disposition to work together for the public common good, and in a more temperate and conciliatory spirit than has hitherto in some instances been shown.

"In the second place, care was taken in the election of the Government nominees, with the result that not only are the Mahomedans better represented than formerly, and the important European manufacturing interests in several Municipalities in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, but a leaven of important, impartial, and influential Hindu members (men who stood aloof from the incidents of a contested election) has been secured to the different Boards.

"Notwithstanding occasional drawbacks, much good and useful work was done by the late Boards during the past year. There has been a general desire among the Commissioners to do their best, and a willingness evinced to accept cheerfully the advice of the supervising authorities in respect of their budget allotments and other matters, while at the same time attention has been paid to the direction contained in the report of the official auditor, and fair progress made in bringing the registers and accounts into proper order."

11. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to see the evidences which this report discloses of the mutual disposition on the part of the executive authorities and local bodies in this division to co-operate in the harmonious and beneficial working of Local Self-Government.

12. Considerable progress was made in the new Railway from Ballygunge to the Kidderpore Docks, and a survey has now been completed of a line to connect this with the Petroleum Depot at Budge-Budge. By these works a system of circular railways round Calcutta and the Suburbs will be completed. A short branch railway was also constructed from the eastern section of the Eastern Bengal State Railway to the Kakeenara mills.

Bengal Central Railway to Narail is in contemplation. Nothing has been done on the proposed railway line from Ranaghat to Bhugwangla. The remarks of the Commissioner on embankments and communications, and especially the observations on the dilapidated state of the Nalhati State Railway, will be transmitted to the Public Works Department for consideration.

13. The statistics of education show a small increase, the number of pupils rising from 194,449 to 198,400. The percentage of Mahomedan pupils in high English schools is 7·3, and in lower primary schools 34·8. Until the Mahomedan community take advantage to a larger extent of the facilities afforded for the higher English education, it is scarcely possible for Government to meet their demand for a considerably larger share in public appointments. The Commissioner observes in this report that the position in regard to the employment of Mahomedans remains practically unchanged, and that he has nothing to add to the remarks made in his previous reports. Mr. Smith will, however, see, from a Government Resolution on the subject which has been lately published, that this information is not considered sufficient, and that, in accordance with the standing orders of Government, details should be furnished year by year.

14. The Commissioner observes that the relations between landlords and tenants are generally satisfactory everywhere. The Collector of the 24-Pergunnahs makes favourable mention of Rani Rajkumari Dasi, Rajah Sir Surendro Mohun Tagore, the late Baboo Sagur Dutt and Rajah Peary Mohun Mookerjee. In the Nuddea district it is mentioned that Baboo Debendro Nath Tagore contributed Rs. 6,000 towards the construction of the school and dispensary buildings in Kooshtea town. The name of Baboo Ram Chunder Mookerjee, Zemindar and Government Pleader, is also specially mentioned as having distinguished himself throughout the year by a zealous discharge of his duties as a zemindar, as Chairman of the Krishnaghur Municipality, as Vice-Chairman of the District Board, and in numerous other public functions. In the matter of the fishery question, all zemindars are said to have behaved with consideration and forbearance, and it is stated that there have been no disturbances arising from fishing.

15. The Lieutenant-Governor has much pleasure in acknowledging the valuable services which have been rendered by Mr. Smith during the year in his able and successful administration of this important Division. His remarks on the conduct of subordinate officers will be communicated as usual to the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. S. COTTON,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

In the Rameswar circle, the officer in charge says:—

"The distress is greatest in zillah Rameswar, and two children died at Talpara, although relief had been given to them and more was promised."

"The suffering is greatest amongst the Savars and the weavers. Many of the people have been reduced so much in flesh that there is nothing but skin and bone left. One such woman died the day before yesterday (14th) in my presence, and near my bungalow, when coming to ask for relief. She came from zillah Khorda and was going to Chandpore to her father's house, the husband having failed to maintain her. She dropped on the way at night, and heavy showers of rain passed over her head, and in the morning, when she was discovered by me, life was all but extinct. No efforts could bring back life to her. There is no doubt that she died of the effects of cold and hunger. Her home was not in my circle. She was about 40 years old."

"Another such woman of Damonbhoi died in the woods while collecting tunga (dioscorea) roots before I came to Jankia."

5. On the subject of the collection of rents in Khoorda Mr. Taylor reports—

"63. About ⁸/₁₀ths of the rents for 1295 were collected before relief measures were undertaken. No pressure is now being put on ryots to pay up arrears due, and the collections are practically at a stand-still. The staff of process-serving peons, 40 men, permanent and temporary, are now being employed chiefly in connection with relief work."

In Angul a remission of rents for the year 1295, amounting to Rs. 4,917, has been sanctioned by Government.

6. Sir Stuart Bayley has instructed the Forest Department to co-operate with the district officials by a relaxation of the Forest Rules and the adoption of useful works within the forests in the Orissa Division, and orders have also been conveyed through the Public Works Department, to the Superintending Engineer of the Orissa Circle, for the commencement of thorough repairs to the Cuttack-Ganjam and the Cuttack-Pooree roads. His Honour has every expectation that the measures taken will be sufficient to meet the present crisis, and while he deeply regrets the occurrence of the few deaths from starvation reported by the Commissioner, he agrees with that officer in thinking that it is impossible to attach blame to any one for neglect of duty or for omission to take every precaution to prevent mortality. On the contrary, the Lieutenant-Governor is satisfied that everything within the power of the officials concerned has been done for the relief of distress.

No. 1687R, dated Cuttack, the 28th August 1888.

From—C. F. WORSLEY, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Orissa Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN accordance with paragraph 9 of the Bengal Famine Code, I have the Letter from Collector of Pooree,

No. X, dated 24th August 1888.

Letter from Subdivisional Officer of Khoorda to Collector of Pooree,
No. 481, dated 18th—23rd August 1888.

honour to submit copies of reports, noted in margin, from the Collector of Pooree and the Subdivisional Officer of Khoorda, giving necessary particulars regarding the Khoorda subdivision for the fortnight ending 15th August 1888. I also enclose a sketch map in duplicate.

2. The information supplied by the local officers is both full and instructive. The general results of relief operations up to 15th instant have been as follow:—

- (1) The total number of persons in need of assistance has been estimated after local enquiries at 50,288.
- (2) The works taken in hand for the employment of labourers have been—
 - (a) The Ganjam road, throughout its total length in the subdivision, under the Public Works Department.
 - (b) Eight roads, aggregating 75 miles in length, under the District Board.
 - (c) Sixty-seven works, such as tanks, small embankments, and roads, at the cost of the Estates' Improvement Fund. Under this class Rs. 5,066 had been expended up to 15th instant.
- (3) About Rs. 55,000 have been advanced to 17,521 persons under the Agricultural Loans Act.

44. Seventeen thousand two hundred and twenty-seven persons, or a

3. Up to the date of his letter (24th instant) the Collector estimates the total expenditure (exclusive of amounts expended by the Public Works Department and the District Board) at about Rs. 75,000, under the following heads:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Ten per cent. Fund works	9,052	7	5
Charitable relief (of which nearly one-fifth advanced for grain will be recovered)	7,000	0	0
Advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act	60,518	8	0

4. I regret to say that a few deaths from starvation have occurred, but these could scarcely have been prevented under the circumstances mentioned in paragraph 6 of the Subdivisional Officer's letter. Mr. Taylor writes:—"The whole of the distress could not be reached within the time, partly owing to the supineness of the people themselves, who do not think much of a few deaths from starvation amongst their poorer neighbours, and partly owing to the fact that the greatest distress is amongst the Savars, who live apart from the rest of the population, sometimes in dense jungle, and who are a very retiring and shy race, who will die quietly in their homes without making any sign."

5. The Collector, Mr. Allen, who has visited the worst parts of the subdivision, i.e., the north-eastern, north-western, and western circles, speaks very highly of the work done by the Subdivisional Officer and the Relief Inspectors, and reports that "not a single pice appears to have been wasted, and not a relief work has been opened unnecessarily or paid for at too high a rate." The correctness of this view is borne out by the fact that "whenever, owing to a good shower of rain, field work has been available, the labourers have deserted our works and resorted to their normal employments." I feel no doubt whatever that all officers, from the Collector downwards, have been animated by a loyal and zealous desire to do their duty and to avoid unnecessary expenditure.

6. Every endeavour will be made to restrict gratuitous relief operations as much as possible, now that employment in the fields is generally available and the most critical period has passed. I recommend, however, that the original estimate of Rs. 15,000 for gratuitous relief may be sanctioned, and that a further allotment of Rs. 25,000 (bringing up the total grant to Rs. 90,000—vide paragraph 65 of Mr. Taylor's letter) may be made for advances under the Agricultural Loans Act.

7. Though the prices of food-grains have not risen to what are called "famine prices," it appears that only small quantities of grain have been procurable at the prices quoted. Moreover, as Mr. Taylor remarks (paragraph 54), so long as the Savars, Bauris, and other penniless classes cannot get work or are unable to work, it matters not to them whether prices are high or low: without money it is just as impossible for them to buy food at the cheapest rates as it is to get food at famine rates.

8. So far as I can judge at present, the chief lesson to be learnt from the existing state of things is that, unless we adopt early and systematic measures for providing the aboriginal classes of Savars, Bauris, and others with lands, we may be liable during any rainy season to be called upon to relieve serious distress, if there be a long break in the rains and a stoppage of work in the fields. A similar difficulty has been experienced in the case of the Pans of Angul (who are just now hard pressed), and I have already, as Superintendent of the Tributary States, submitted a scheme for settling this caste in that district.

9. I cannot conclude this letter without expressing my grateful sense of the cordial support and encouragement which I and my subordinates have received from the Government since the first appearance of distress, and which has so largely contributed to the success of our operations.

No. X, dated Pooree, the 24th August 1888.

From—D. B. ALLEN, Esq., Deputy Collector of Pooree,
To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

In accordance with chapter 1, paragraph 9 of the Famine Code, I have the honour to submit the following report for the fortnight ending the 15th instant, together with a copy of

Mr. Taylor's No. 481 of the 18th idem, which was received by me yesterday afternoon on my return from a short tour over the western circle of the subdivision.

2. I must preface my report with the remark that, as the present distress was confined to the limits of the Khoorda estate, I did not think it necessary to follow exactly the rules laid down in the Famine Code for the guidance of District Officers; because I considered that I was acting rather as a benevolent landlord, who was assisting his poorer tenants to tide over a period of sharp (but, as I trust, temporary) distress, than as a Government official dealing with a distressed area of the ordinary description. Still the Famine Code was from the first accepted as a most useful guide for our actions, and the instructions issued by me to the Circle Inspectors, of which a copy was sent to you with my No. C of the 8th instant, were based mainly on the rules of that Code.

3. Famine Code, 9 (1).—The area affected, and the approximate estimate of the portion of the population affected, and also the number of relief circles and of officers in charge, are given in paragraphs 3 and 4 of Mr. Taylor's report. From this it will be seen that out of a population of over 350,000 persons, about 50,000 are in need of assistance. In my No. B of the 29th ultimo, I estimated the numbers that would require relief, provided good rain did not fall during the first half of this month, at 86,000; but as good rain did fall all over the subdivision during that period, the estimate has happily been reduced, and the heavy rain which has fallen during the last few days all over the subdivision will still further reduce the numbers given by the Subdivisional Officer.

4. Famine Code, 9 (2).—The general state of the affected tracts, crop prospects, and rain-fall, &c., are fully described in paragraphs 6, 14 to 19 and 56 of Mr. Taylor's report, and I concur generally in the views expressed by him. The public health is very fair. There are a few sporadic causes of cholera, and fever is about as prevalent as usual at this time of year, specially in the Banpur Circle.

5. Famine Code, 9 (3).—The number of public works open in or near the affected tracts may be divided into—

- (a) Under the District Board.
- (b) Under the Public Works Department.
- (c) Those paid for from the management grant or 10 per cent. fund.

There are no works under special Government relief, municipal or private relief, or tuccavi agencies. As regards (a), the roads from Khoorda towards Patnaika for eight miles—

	Miles.
Khoorda to Kalapather	18
Bagmari to Bolegurbh	16
Khoorda towards Pipili	7
Chandka to Sardeipur	14
Tikatal to Kaduaburuni	6
Bhaliabarihat to Bengitongi	3
Kuradhamal to Kaipadar	3
Total	57

are under repair or in course of construction. The District Board at their last meeting on the 4th instant authorized me to spend Rs. 3,000 at discretion on additional works in the most distressed tracts, and the whole amount has been allotted by me and work commenced under the supervision of the District Engineer, Mr. Beale, who, I may say here, has been indefatigable in assisting me to see that labour is employed where most urgently required. As regards (b), I applied through you from the commencement of the distress to the Superintending Engineer, and he has had work going all along the Ganjam road, which traverses the whole subdivision, which has been of the greatest assistance in affording relief. Besides the work done on the Ganjam road, metalling has been, and is being, collected in the estate for a great portion of the Jaganath road.

As regards (c), the list of works is given in paragraph 80 of Mr. Taylor's report.

6. Famine Code, 9 (4).—As regards gratuitous relief, all the information available has been given from paragraphs 17 to 51 of Mr. Taylor's report. Though instructions were issued to all Circle Inspectors to keep separate accounts of men, women and children, yet some relief had been given before these instructions were received by them, and the result is that I have not obtained quite accurate information under this head from each circle. However, the following figures of relief given up to the 15th will prove of interest:—

	Men.	Women.	Children.	Total.	Rs. A. P.
North-east and North-west Circles	3,064	2,718	5,174	10,956	at total cost of 1,542 7 3
Rameswar Circles	2,155	ditto 1570 1 3
West Circle	3,041	ditto 403 5 3
Banpur Circle	1,075	ditto 86 4 0
Total number relieved	17,227	ditto 2,202 15 9

As this relief has been distributed during 17 days, the daily average number which have been relieved amount to nearly two thousand at a thousand. It will be seen that most of the relief has been given in the north-east and north-west circles, and next to these is the west circle. It is here that most distress has been felt. All these three circles have been thoroughly inspected by Mr. Taylor and myself, and we are satisfied that the Circle Inspectors have only distributed relief where it was urgently required. Indeed, Mr. Taylor is of opinion that the Circle Inspectors have been almost too strict in affording relief, and he has now repeated my instructions that small sums are to be entrusted with sarbarakars and other respectable persons, so as to ensure that relief is given whenever an emergency arises. The small portion of the estate outside the subdivision, and the adjoining tracts south of the Ohilka, which are reported to be in distress, have been placed under the control of Baboo Benimadhub Mookerjia, Salt Inspector, and he has expended up to the 15th instant Rs. 8-4 in gratuitous relief, and Rs. 141 as payment for labour on two small works at Satpara and Nathapur. Salt storing and embankment work at Gorapur have also helped to provide employment in this area.

7. Famine Code, 9 (5).—The figures under this head cannot, as explained by the Sub-divisional Officer be given in this report, but an attempt will be made to furnish these particulars in subsequent reports.

8. Famine Code, 9 (6).—Practically nothing has been done under this head, beyond providing a few distressed weavers with thread for making into cloth.

9. Famine Code, 9 (7).—As pointed out in paragraphs 53-55 of Mr. Taylor's report, there is ample grain in the district, and prices cannot be considered as famine rates, but there has been a strong tendency on the part of grain merchants to close their granaries in the hope of a further rise in prices, and this has resulted in limiting the available stock of grain in Khoorda. We have attempted to induce the holders of grain to keep their shops open, and some of the petty dealers have continued to sell all along at the market rates, but the larger mahajans refused to sell until the latter end of last week, when the prospects of the coming harvest became fairly assured. The Tehsildar, Baboo Bhugbat Mahanti, Roy Bahadur, who distinguished himself in the famine of 1866, has done excellent work by inducing the grain dealers to keep selling paddy, when their natural instincts were to close their shops. In fact, both in this and in other respects there would assuredly have been a panic, and consequently a far heavier expenditure on relief, were it not for the extraordinary personal influence of this man and Mr. Taylor, which has been freely exercised with the happiest results.

10. Famine Code, 9 (8).—An account of the expenditure has been submitted in paragraph 65 of Mr. Taylor's report, but I give here the figures under the Famine Code headings A, B, and C.

A.—The original grant for the Pooree district was—

- (a) Rs. 10,000 for advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act.
- (b) „ 1,200 for Act under the Land Improvement Act.
- (c) „ 15,000 for works under the 10 per cent. fund.

Of (a) I originally allotted Rs. 5,000 in my No. 511 of 29th May, and then Rs. 4,000 in my No. 630 of 28th June. Then when money was urgently required I sanctioned Rs. 5,000, i.e., Rs. 4,000 in excess of the allotment for this district, in my No. 650 of 6th July 1888. I requested you to obtain sanction for this excess of Rs. 4,000, but by some mistake the Board has sanctioned this expenditure under the Land Improvement Act, and not under the Agriculturists' Loans Act. This mistake should now be rectified. Subsequently, I sanctioned Rs. 11,000 more in my No. C of 30th July 1888. This has been confirmed by the Board. Again, a further sum of Rs. 20,000 has been sanctioned by you and the Board, as stated in your telegram of the 3rd August 1888, and finally another sum of Rs. 20,000 was sanctioned by you in your No. 1615R of the 18th instant. Thus the total amount sanctioned up to date is Rs. 65,000 including the Rs. 4,000 which are to be transferred from the Land Improvements to the Agriculturists' Loans Act. I may say here that in previous years it has been the custom to make advances to Khoorda ryots without interest, but from the commencement I insisted on interest being charged at 6½ per cent. on every loan.

Under heading (b) nothing has been allotted to this subdivision, but about Rs. 675 has been expended this year on the Gorapur embankment, south of the Ohilka, which was begun last year.

Under (c) I allotted Rs. 13,372 in my telegram of 10th July 1888, and in my No. B of 29th July 1888 I estimated for a further grant of Rs. 15,000. This has been approved generally by Government in their No. 2570-95Fam. of 6th instant, but up to date I have only given bills to Mr. Taylor for Rs. 15,000 under this head. For gratuitous relief I estimated in my No. B of 29th July 1888 that the sum required would be Rs. 15,000, and I have given Mr. Taylor Rs. 10,000 in two bills of Rs. 5,000 each on the 4th and 20th instant. I have also advanced Rs. 400 to the Salt Inspector at Satpara, which is to be expended partly on works and partly on gratuitous relief in that portion of the estate. Government has (except generally) only sanctioned Rs. 500 for gratuitous relief, and I now request sanction for Rs. 15,000, i.e., for Rs. 10,000 already given to Mr. Taylor and Rs. 5,000 in case it should be required. I will utilize the Rs. 500 already sanctioned for relief administered through the Salt Inspector.

B.—As regards expenditure, Mr. Taylor's report does not show clearly how much has been actually spent up to the 15th instant, but from a statement prepared in his office I find that the expenditure up to date has been as follows:—

- (a) Charitable relief by Subdivisional Officer Rs. 7,000, including Rs. 1,580 advanced for paddy and rice, most of which will be recovered. Of the Rs. 400 made over to the Salt Inspector, he had expended up to the 15th instant Rs. 141-7-8 on works and Rs. 8-4 on gratuitous relief.

In the Rameswar circle, the officer in charge says :—

"The distress is greatest in zillah Rameswar, and two children died at Talpara, although relief had been given to them and more was promised."

"The suffering is greatest amongst the Savars and the weavers. Many of the people have been reduced so much in flesh that there is nothing but skin and bone left. One such woman died the day before yesterday (14th) in my presence, and near my bungalow, when coming to ask for relief. She came from zillah Khorda and was going to Chandpore to her father's house, the husband having failed to maintain her. She dropped on the way at night, and heavy showers of rain passed over her head, and in the morning, when she was discovered by me, life was all but extinct. No efforts could bring back life to her. There is no doubt that she died of the effects of cold and hunger. Her home was not in my circle. She was about 40 years old."

"Another such woman of Damonbhoi died in the woods while collecting tunga (dioscorea) roots before I came to Jankia."

5. On the subject of the collection of rents in Khoorda Mr. Taylor reports—

"63. About ⁸/₁₀ths of the rents for 1295 were collected before relief measures were undertaken. No pressure is now being put on ryots to pay up arrears due, and the collections are practically at a stand-still. The staff of process-serving peons, 40 men, permanent and temporary, are now being employed chiefly in connection with relief work."

In Angul a remission of rents for the year 1295, amounting to Rs. 4,917, has been sanctioned by Government.

6. Sir Steuart Bayley has instructed the Forest Department to co-operate with the district officials by a relaxation of the Forest Rules and the adoption of useful works within the forests in the Orissa Division, and orders have also been conveyed through the Public Works Department, to the Superintending Engineer of the Orissa Circle, for the commencement of thorough repairs to the Cuttack-Ganjam and the Cuttack-Pooree roads. His Honour has every expectation that the measures taken will be sufficient to meet the present crisis, and while he deeply regrets the occurrence of the few deaths from starvation reported by the Commissioner, he agrees with that officer in thinking that it is impossible to attach blame to any one for neglect of duty or for omission to take every precaution to prevent mortality. On the contrary, the Lieutenant-Governor is satisfied that everything within the power of the officials concerned has been done for the relief of distress.

honour to submit copies of reports, noted in margin, from the Collector of Pooree and the Subdivisional Officer of Khoorda, giving necessary particulars regarding the Khoorda subdivision for the fortnight ending 15th August 1888. I also enclose a sketch map in duplicate.

2. The information supplied by the local officers is both full and instructive. The general results of relief operations up to 15th instant have been as follow :—

- (1) The total number of persons in need of assistance has been estimated after local enquiries at 50,288.
- (2) The works taken in hand for the employment of labourers have been—
 - (a) The Ganjam road, throughout its total length in the subdivision, under the Public Works Department.
 - (b) Eight roads, aggregating 75 miles in length, under the District Board.
 - (c) Sixty-seven works, such as tanks, small embankments, and roads, at the cost of the Estates' Improvement Fund. Under this class Rs. 5,066 had been expended up to 15th instant.
- (3) About Rs. 55,000 have been advanced to 17,521 persons under the Agricultural Loans Act.

3. Up to the date of his letter (24th instant) the Collector estimates the total expenditure (exclusive of amounts expended by the Public Works Department and the District Board) at about Rs. 75,000, under the following heads:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Ten per cent. Fund works	9,052	7	5
Charitable relief (of which nearly one-fifth advanced for grain will be recovered)	7,000	0	0
Advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act	60,518	8	0

4. I regret to say that a few deaths from starvation have occurred, but these could scarcely have been prevented under the circumstances mentioned in paragraph 6 of the Subdivisional Officer's letter. Mr. Taylor writes:—"The whole of the distress could not be reached within the time, partly owing to the supineness of the people themselves, who do not think much of a few deaths from starvation amongst their poorer neighbours, and partly owing to the fact that the greatest distress is amongst the Savars, who live apart from the rest of the population, sometimes in dense jungle, and who are a very retiring and shy race, who will die quietly in their homes without making any sign."

5. The Collector, Mr. Allen, who has visited the worst parts of the subdivision, i.e., the north-eastern, north-western, and western circles, speaks very highly of the work done by the Subdivisional Officer and the Relief Inspectors, and reports that "not a single pice appears to have been wasted, and not a relief work has been opened unnecessarily or paid for at too high a rate." The correctness of this view is borne out by the fact that "whenever, owing to a good shower of rain, field work has been available, the labourers have deserted our works and resorted to their normal employments." I feel no doubt whatever that all officers, from the Collector downwards, have been animated by a loyal and zealous desire to do their duty and to avoid unnecessary expenditure.

6. Every endeavour will be made to restrict gratuitous relief operations as much as possible, now that employment in the fields is generally available and the most critical period has passed. I recommend, however, that the original estimate of Rs. 15,000 for gratuitous relief may be sanctioned, and that a further allotment of Rs. 25,000 (bringing up the total grant to Rs. 90,000—vide paragraph 65 of Mr. Taylor's letter) may be made for advances under the Agricultural Loans Act.

7. Though the prices of food-grains have not risen to what are called "famine prices," it appears that only small quantities of grain have been procurable at the prices quoted. Moreover, as Mr. Taylor remarks (paragraph 54), so long as the Savars, Bauris, and other penniless classes cannot get work or are unable to work, it matters not to them whether prices are high or low: without money it is just as impossible for them to buy food at the cheapest rates as it is to get food at famine rates.

8. So far as I can judge at present, the chief lesson to be learnt from the existing state of things is that, unless we adopt early and systematic measures for providing the aboriginal classes of Savars, Bauris, and others with lands, we may be liable during any rainy season to be called upon to relieve serious distress, if there be a long break in the rains and a stoppage of work in the fields. A similar difficulty has been experienced in the case of the Pans of Angul (who are just now hard pressed), and I have already, as Superintendent of the Tributary States, submitted a scheme for settling this caste in that district.

9. I cannot conclude this letter without expressing my grateful sense of the cordial support and encouragement which I and my subordinates have received from the Government since the first appearance of distress, and which has so largely contributed to the success of our operations.

No. X, dated Pooree, the 24th August 1888.

From—D. B. ALLEN, Esq., Deputy Collector of Pooree,
To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

In accordance with chapter I, paragraph 9 of the Famine Code, I have the honour to submit the following report for the fortnight ending the 15th instant, together with a copy of

Mr. Taylor's No. 481 of the 18th idem, which was received by me yesterday afternoon on my return from a short tour over the western circle of the subdivision.

2. I must preface my report with the remark that, as the present distress was confined to the limits of the Khoorda estate, I did not think it necessary to follow exactly the rules laid down in the Famine Code for the guidance of District Officers; because I considered that I was acting rather as a benevolent landlord, who was assisting his poorer tenants to tide over a period of sharp (but, as I trust, temporary) distress, than as a Government official dealing with a distressed area of the ordinary description. Still the Famine Code was from the first accepted as a most useful guide for our actions, and the instructions issued by me to the Circle Inspectors, of which a copy was sent to you with my No. C of the 8th instant, were based mainly on the rules of that Code.

3. Famine Code, 9 (1).—The area affected, and the approximate estimate of the portion of the population affected, and also the number of relief circles and of officers in charge, are given in paragraphs 3 and 4 of Mr. Taylor's report. From this it will be seen that out of a population of over 850,000 persons, about 50,000 are in need of assistance. In my No. B of the 29th ultimo, I estimated the numbers that would require relief, provided good rain did not fall during the first half of this month, at 86,000; but as good rain did fall all over the subdivision during that period, the estimate has happily been reduced, and the heavy rain which has fallen during the last few days all over the subdivision will still further reduce the numbers given by the Subdivisional Officer.

4. Famine Code, 9 (2).—The general state of the affected tracts, crop prospects, and rain-fall, &c., are fully described in paragraphs 6, 14 to 19 and 56 of Mr. Taylor's report, and I concur generally in the views expressed by him. The public health is very fair. There are a few sporadic causes of cholera, and fever is about as prevalent as usual at this time of year, specially in the Banpur Circle.

5. Famine Code, 9 (3).—The number of public works open in or near the affected tracts may be divided into—

- (a) Under the District Board.
- (b) Under the Public Works Department.
- (c) Those paid for from the management grant or 10 per cent. fund.

There are no works under special Government relief, municipal or private relief, or tuccavi agencies. As regards (a), the roads from Khoorda towards Patnaika for eight miles—

	Miles.
Khoorda to Kalapather	18
Bagmari to Bolegurrh	16

Chandka to Sardeipur	14

are under repair or in course of construction. The District Board at their last meeting on the 4th instant authorized me to spend Rs. 3,000 at discretion on additional works in the most distressed tracts, and the whole amount has been allotted by me and work commenced under the supervision of the District Engineer, Mr. Beale, who, I may say here, has been indefatigable in assisting me to see that labour is employed where most urgently required. As regards (b), I applied through you from the commencement of the distress to the Superintending Engineer, and he has had work going all along the Ganjam road, which traverses the whole subdivision, which has been of the greatest assistance in affording relief. Besides the work done on the Ganjam road, metalling has been, and is being, collected in the estate for a great portion of the Jaganath road.

As regards (c), the list of works is given in paragraph 80 of Mr. Taylor's report.

6. Famine Code, 9 (4).—As regards gratuitous relief, all the information available has been given from paragraphs 17 to 51 of Mr. Taylor's report. Though instructions were issued to all Circle Inspectors to keep separate accounts of men, women and children, yet some relief had been given before these instructions were received by them, and the result is that I have not obtained quite accurate information under this head from each circle. However, the following figures of relief given up to the 15th will prove of interest :—

	Men. Women. Children. Total.				Rs. A. P.
North-east and North-west Circles	...	2,064	2,718	5,174	10,956	at total cost of	1,542 7 3
Bameswar Circles	2,165	ditto		1570 1 3
West Circle	3,041	ditto		403 5 3
Banpur Circle	1,075	ditto		86 4 0
Total number relieved	17,227	ditto		2,202 15 9

As this relief has been distributed during 17 days, the daily average number which have

has been given in the north-east and north-west circles, and next to these is the west circle. It is here that most distress has been felt. All these three circles have been thoroughly inspected by Mr. Taylor and myself, and we are satisfied that the Circle Inspectors have only distributed relief where it was urgently required. Indeed, Mr. Taylor is of opinion that the Circle Inspectors have been almost too strict in affording relief, and he has now repeated my instructions that small sums are to be entrusted with sarbarakars and other respectable persons, so as to ensure that relief is given whenever an emergency arises. The small portion of the estate outside the subdivision, and the adjoining tracts south of the Ohilka, which are reported to be in distress, have been placed under the control of Baboo Benimadhub Mookerjia, Salt Inspector, and he has expended up to the 15th instant Rs. 8-4 in gratuitous relief, and Rs. 141 as payment for labour on two small works at Satpara and Nathapur. Salt storing and embankment work at Gorapur have also helped to provide employment in this area.

7. Famine Code, 9 (5).—The figures under this head cannot, as explained by the Sub-divisional Officer be given in this report, but an attempt will be made to furnish these particulars in subsequent reports.

8. Famine Code, 9 (6).—Practically nothing has been done under this head, beyond providing a few distressed weavers with thread for making into cloth.

9. Famine Code, 9 (7).—As pointed out in paragraphs 53-55 of Mr. Taylor's report, there is ample grain in the district, and prices cannot be considered as famine rates, but there has been a strong tendency on the part of grain merchants to close their granaries in the hope of a further rise in prices, and this has resulted in limiting the available stock of grain in Khoorda. We have attempted to induce the holders of grain to keep their shops open, and some of the petty dealers have continued to sell all along at the market rates, but the larger mahajans refused to sell until the latter end of last week, when the prospects of the coming harvest became fairly assured. The Tehsildar, Baboo Bhagbat Mahanti, Roy Bahadur, who distinguished himself in the famine of 1866, has done excellent work by inducing the grain dealers to keep selling paddy, when their natural instincts were to close their shops. In fact, both in this and in other respects there would assuredly have been a panic, and consequently a far heavier expenditure on relief, were it not for the extraordinary personal influence of this man and Mr. Taylor, which has been freely exercised with the happiest results.

10. Famine Code, 9 (8).—An account of the expenditure has been submitted in paragraph 65 of Mr. Taylor's report, but I give here the figures under the Famine Code headings A, B, and C.

A.—The original grant for the Pooree district was—

- (a) Rs. 10,000 for advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act.
- (b) „ 1,200 for Act under the Land Improvement Act.
- (c) „ 15,000 for works under the 10 per cent. fund.

Of (a) I originally allotted Rs. 5,000 in my No. 511 of 29th May, and then Rs. 4,000 in my No. 630 of 28th June. Then when money was urgently required I sanctioned Rs. 5,000, i.e., Rs. 4,000 in excess of the allotment for this district, in my No. 650 of 6th July 1888. I requested you to obtain sanction for this excess of Rs. 4,000, but by some mistake the Board has sanctioned this expenditure under the Land Improvement Act, and not under the Agriculturists' Loans Act. This mistake should now be rectified. Subsequently, I sanctioned Rs. 11,000 more in my No. C of 30th July 1888. This has been confirmed by the Board. Again, a further sum of Rs. 20,000 has been sanctioned by you and the Board, as stated in your telegram of the 3rd August 1888, and finally another sum of Rs. 20,000 was sanctioned by you in your No. 1615R of the 18th instant. Thus the total amount sanctioned up to date is Rs. 65,000 including the Rs. 4,000 which are to be transferred from the Land Improvements to the Agriculturists' Loans Act. I may say here that in previous years it has been the custom to make advances to Khoorda ryots without interest, but from the commencement I insisted on interest being charged at $6\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on every loan.

Under heading (b) nothing has been allotted to this subdivision, but about Rs. 675 has been expended this year on the Gorapur embankment, south of the Ohilka, which was begun last year.

Under (c) I allotted Rs. 13,372 in my telegram of 10th July 1888, and in my No. B of 29th July 1888 I estimated for a further grant of Rs. 15,000. This has been approved generally by Government in their No. 2570-95Fam. of 6th instant, but up to date I have only given bills to Mr. Taylor for Rs. 15,000 under this head. For gratuitous relief I estimated in my No. B of 29th July 1888 that the sum required would be Rs. 15,000, and I have given Mr. Taylor Rs. 10,000 in two bills of Rs. 5,000 each on the 4th and 20th instant. I have also advanced Rs. 400 to the Salt Inspector at Satpara, which is to be expended partly on works and partly on gratuitous relief in that portion of the estate. Government has (except generally) only sanctioned Rs. 500 for gratuitous relief, and I now request sanction for Rs. 15,000, i.e., for Rs. 10,000 already given to Mr. Taylor and Rs. 5,000 in case it should be required. I will utilize the Rs. 500 already sanctioned for relief administered through the Salt Inspector.

B.—As regards expenditure, Mr. Taylor's report does not show clearly how much has been actually spent up to the 15th instant, but from a statement prepared in his office I find that the expenditure up to date has been as follows:—

- (a) Charitable relief by Subdivisional Officer Rs. 7,000, including Rs. 1,580 advanced for paddy and rice, most of which will be recovered. Of the Rs. 400 made over to the Salt Inspector, he had expended up to the 15th instant

(b) Ten per cent. Fund expenditure and advanced by Subdivisional Officer
Rs. 9,052-7-5.

(d) (2) Tuccavi :—

			Rs.	A.	P.
Paid on bills	54,689	0	0
Orders passed	5,830	8	0
Total			60,518	8	0

Thus the total expenditure up to date may be taken at about Rs. 75,000, exclusive of the amounts expended by the Department of Public Works and the Board.

C.—Balances of funds under each head :—

(a) Rupees 3,250-11-8, plus what will be recovered from Rs. 1,580 advanced for grain.

(b) „ 13,372, assuming that Rs. 15,000 will be sanctioned.

(d) „ 4,481-8.

11. I cannot close this report without drawing your attention to the really admirable work done by the Subdivisional Officer, the Tehsildar, and by all officers employed on relief. They have one and all worked not only zealously and indefatigably, but also judiciously and, in spite of considerable hardships and discomforts, uncomplainingly. Though Mr. Taylor and I have inspected a great deal of the work done by the Circle Inspectors of the west, north-west, and north-east circles, and have been kept informed by diaries and accounts of the work done in Rameswar and Banpur, we have not had occasion to find fault with the action of any one of them. Not a single pice appears to have been wasted, and not a relief work has been opened unnecessarily, or paid for at too high a rate. This is clear from the fact that whenever, owing to a good shower of rain, field-work has been available, the labourers have deserted our works and resorted to their normal employments. In Satpara, the Salt Inspector cordially assented to devote the spare time of himself and his subordinates to administering relief operations when required south of the Chilka, and when I applied to Mr. Merriman, the Deputy Commissioner, for sanction to this proposal, he telegraphed his consent. Besides the regular famine staff, the Deputy Inspector and Sub-Inspector of Schools have given us useful information from time to time of cases of distress. The District Superintendent of Police has gone at my request to inspect the thanas and outposts east of the Chilka, though the camping there, owing to recent floods, must be extremely uncomfortable, in order to see whether any relief measures will be required in that part of this district. At head-quarters Babu Rajgopal Roy has cheerfully undertaken the extra work thrust upon him. At one time, owing to the illness of Baboo Manmohan Chakraverty, and the enforced absence of the Civil Surgeon on duty, he was for a few days in charge of the jail, treasury, and district office in addition to his ordinary duties. In order to relieve the salaried staff as much as possible, I have transferred a great deal of extra judicial and other work to the Bench of Honorary Magistrates, and they and the Vice-Chairman of the District Board have accepted the additional work put upon their shoulders without the faintest protest or complaint. Kumar Girindra Narayan Deb, who joined his appointment as Joint-Magistrate on the 8th instant, has been prevented by illness from doing a stroke of work up to date.

12. There is one more point that I hope I may refer to without being misunderstood or considered impertinent, and that is the assistance we have all received from your action throughout this crisis. When work failed and the granaries were closed, and we had to act promptly in order to save life, we were not embarrassed by calls for further information and detailed reports. All along you have been good enough not only to write, but to telegraph, your approval of our action, and your sanction of the extra expenditure that I thought right to incur. Instead of our action being paralyzed, as it might have been, by any less cordial and prompt recognition of the fact that we were doing our best to grapple with the difficulties of the situation that had been forced upon us, we were encouraged to proceed boldly and promptly along the course, which events have proved to have been the proper one to take.

13. As for myself, I have from the beginning recognized that in Mr. Taylor I had what the Lieutenant-Governor calls “an officer whose experience of the subdivision and knowledge of the people was altogether exceptional and unique.” I have relied throughout on this fact. I have not myself distributed a single pice in gratuitous relief. I have not sanctioned the opening of a single work without previously consulting Mr. Taylor, and my tours of inspection have been made in directions suggested by him. I have contented myself with supporting his action, and I am perfectly satisfied with the result.

14. I enclose sketch maps and a rough map showing the areas and some of the villages visited by myself.

No. 481, dated Khoorda, the 18th August 1888.

From—W. C. TAYLOR, Esq., Subdivisional Officer, Khoorda,
To—The Collector of Pooree.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following fortnightly report on the distress amongst Chapter II, section 10, Famine Code.

2. As you are aware, the estate has been divided into five circles for relief purposes, viz.—

First—North-Eastern Circle, Second—North-Western Circle, in charge, respectively, of Baboo Nadia Chand Dutta and Munshi Dadar Baksh, Sub-Deputy Collectors, assisted by the canoongoes of Dandimal and Khoorda, Janardan Das and Netranand Patnaik.

Third—Western Circle, in charge of Baboo Bhagbat Nund, Temporary Sub-Deputy Collector, assisted by the canoongoe of Kuspalla and Punchgurrh, Chintamani Patnaik.

Fourth—Rameswar Circle, in charge of Baboo Gagan Chunder Dass, Deputy Magistrate, assisted by the canoongo of Rameswar, Banamber Das.

Fifth—Banpore Circle, in charge of Baboo Darpanaryan Das, Income Tax Assessor and Excise Inspector, assisted by the canoongo of Banpur, Ras Behari Patnaik.

The Inspector of Police, Baboo Heralal Mookerjee, is also visiting villages and giving relief in the western circle.

The circles have been made to coincide with the chaklas of the five canoongoes of Khoorda, who have been placed in direct communication with the inspecting officers, to whom their local knowledge and influence have been of the greatest assistance.

Chapter I, sections II and III of the Famine Code.

The following statement showing for each circle an estimate in detail of the numbers of the different classes of the people in Khoorda who are in great distress, will prove useful, in order to enable the Government to judge of the extent of relief at present necessary and as showing where relief is most required.

The above figures are from the settlement records, which give the total population of the estate as 343,834; but the population is no doubt now in excess of 350,000 persons.

5. Three copies of sketch map, prepared in this office from the recent cadastral surveys of the estate, are submitted herewith, as required in section III of the Code.

6. In your No. B of the 29th July to the Commissioner, paragraph 15, you pointed out that about one-fourth of the population (86,000) required help—

First in gratuitous relief. | Second in tuccavi.
Third in works.

The estimate, though of course a rough one, was not excessive.

You estimated that if rain did not fall within the first half of August, about 21,500 persons would probably require gratuitous relief at about 12 annas each, equal to Rs. 16,125, and Rs. 15,000 was asked for under this head.

Happily good rain has fallen in the south, the centre, and the north over the greater part of the estate, commencing on the 4th August in Banpur and on the 5th at Khoorda and Chandka.

This rain has been followed by two other good falls, and many almost daily smaller showers, and has taken off a great deal of the pressure, by giving much work in the fields to those who can work, by giving heart to the cultivators, and to some extent by unlocking the stores of grain which exist in all parts of Khoorda. We have therefore been able to do with much less for gratuitous relief than was estimated, and only Rs. 2,600 was spent under this head up to the 15th, about 16,546 persons having been temporarily relieved. But the whole of the distress could not be reached within the time, partly owing to the sappiness of the people themselves, who do not think much of a few deaths from starvation amongst their poorer neighbours, and partly owing to the fact that the greatest distress is amongst the Savars, who live apart from the rest of the population, sometimes in dense jungle, and who are a very retiring and shy race, who will die quietly in their homes without making any sign.

7. The provisions of chapter I, section 4, have been so far as possible attended to, and nominal rolls for each village have been prepared of the persons who have received or are receiving gratuitous relief.

8. The cry for work was also of course greatly reduced by the good rain, which enabled the cultivators to go on with pnddling, weeding, and transplanting of the rice crop, with jungle clearances for Tails cultivation, repairs of bunds and ridges, and other agricultural operations, but still there was a considerable number who could not find work in the fields, partly due to the fact that owing to their weakly and reduced physique cultivators would not employ them. For all these we have found employment in the numerous small works of estate improvement, which the funds in hand have enabled us to start.

9. So far it has not been found necessary to spend any relief money on such works, which are being carried on entirely from the funds allotted by the Board of Revenue from the

The Famine Code, chapter III, is not therefore, applicable in respect of the petty estate improvement works at present in progress, but returns have been called for, and in some cases have been obtained, of the number of persons employed on the several khas mehal works of improvement. The Public Works Department and District Board and Forest Department should be asked for figures for the works going on in their departments. It will not be possible, however, to get correct figures, as the persons employed vary to some extent from day to day, and a good deal of the work is paid for on measurements.

We have endeavoured to open these works in all neighbourhoods where there was much distress: they are all works of bonâ fide improvement, such as roads, bundhs, and tanks for irrigation of rice lands, and the like.

10. The grant of Rs. 45,000 tuccavi has all been taken up at $6\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. interest by the cultivating classes with the greatest eagerness on allotments made by me of generally less than half of what was applied for.

I have since applied for Rs. 20,000 more, and have with your approval, and in anticipation of sanction, already advanced Rs. 9,772 on applications for Rs. 22,780.

11. This tuccavi has proved a great boon, and cultivators are everywhere busy, where possible, in puddling, weeding or transplanting paddy, cultivating mandia, and preparing to sow til (rasi) and other staples.

12. I shall probably require about Rs. 25,000 more than has yet been applied for, for advances under the Agriculturists Loans Act, and I take this opportunity of asking for sanction to the disbursement of Rs. 25,000 over and above the Rs. 65,000 already sanctioned or applied for.

13. The number of cultivators helped in the way of tuccavi advances under the Agriculturists Loans Act is about 17,521, besides many thousands who have been benefited by the actual recipients of advances employing them as labourers.

14. Owing to the very dry season the crop of wild swan grass (Panicum Freementacum) has been an extraordinarily heavy one, and thousands of the poorer people have for the past month been subsisting almost entirely on swan rice (which has a high food value), and on wild roots of the several species of discorea (yams) found in our jungles, leaves of the young cassia tora plants used as a pot herb, and wild berries and fruit gathered in the forests.

15. The distress and actual want of sufficient food has so far been confined chiefly to the Savars, Bouris and other landless classes, who subsist entirely on wages of labour and on what they can gather in the jungles.

16. Owing to the want of rains in all June and the greater part of July, work in the fields was at a standstill, prices of food-grains rose owing to panic, and holders having locked up their stores the landless classes, always in more or less distress during the stook seasons, began to starve to death, and hundreds would undoubtedly have died had we not started relief operations at once. As it is, I regret to say that some few cases of death from starvation have been reported and found to have actually occurred, whilst thousands of men, women and children have been reduced to mere skeletons. I fear that many deaths due more or less to starvation may have occurred, and which have not been brought to our notice. A few deaths have also occurred after food was provided, the sufferers being too far injured by previous starvation to admit of their recovery.

17. For the North-East Circle.—Bahoo Nadia Chand Dutt reports as follows:—

He has visited 82 villages, relieved 771 adult males, 395 females and 636 children, or 1,802 persons, to whom he gave Rs. 306-2-6 in gratuitous relief. Detailed diaries and lists of persons relieved have been submitted.

18. Baboo Nadia Chand Dutt found that the distress was chiefly amongst the Savars and Bouris with a few of other classes.

That the greatest distress was in mouzabs Ghatikea, Burmunda and Nayapali in the centre of zillah Daudimul and close to Khandgiri.

He found that two deaths occurred in Ghatikea from starvation. I also visited the village and made enquiries, and found that three deaths had occurred, but that they were not entirely due to want of food, though no doubt want of proper nourishment accelerated all these deaths which were of very old persons, two of whom were otherwise ill.

19. Thirty-one works of improvement for supplying work to those who required it were opened up to the 15th in the north-east circle, and a sum of Rs. 2,135 advanced from the Improvement Fund, in most cases by myself. Work is going on at all these 31 places, of which three are roads, aggregating about 10 miles in length.

20. I have not yet received figures to show the actual number who have found work at the different places, but as all the works are within easy reach of distressed villages and well attended, the number must be very considerable, probably not less than 5,000 different persons—all, however, males, as no women in Khoorda, excepting the Matias will do earthwork, although all the poor class women will work in the field or husk rice, sell firewood, fish, rice and mushroom, &c.

21. The trunk road to Ganjam, for about 35 miles, also borders the north-east circle and separates it from the south-west circle, and some metalling and repairs have been in progress for the whole length under the Public Works Department during the 15 days under report. Many persons have therefore Section 9, clauses 3 and 5, chapter I, Famine Code.

Section 9, clause 3 (b), Famine Code.

22. The rainfall commencing on the 5th, and continued since then to date, has also afforded an enormous amount of work in the fields to men, women and children.
Section 9, clause 2, Famine Code.

23. I made a tour of 12 days from the 3rd to 14th August in the Dandimal, parts of north-east and north-west circles, and my head-quarters are in the circles. I have myself seen seven or eight thousands of the most distressed persons—men, women and children—of the north-east and north-west circles, and I found that they were mostly Savars, Souri, Khandayets and Bauris, with a sprinkling of other castes, nearly all labourers or persons of other classes, who have been reduced to extreme poverty from causes other than want of work.

24. I have myself distributed temporary relief to 1,929 men, 1,893 women and 3,731 children, all in a more or less starving condition. Many would actually have died shortly if they had not been relieved. Rupees 918-13-6 was expended by me in these two circles on gratuitous relief.

25. Baboo Nadia Chand Dutt has also got judicial and other subdivisional work to do.

26. Munshi Dadar Baksh, who has also sub-treasury, judicial, and much other work to do, reports for the North-West Circle, which comprises the parts of zillahs Dandimal and Khordah, north-west of the Ganjam Trunk Road, and the small Khandaeti mehal, zillah Haldia—

(1) That he has visited 69 villages.

(2) Has given Rs. 317-7-3 as gratuitous relief to 364 males, 430 females, and 807 children—total 1,601 persons, in these villages. Work has been started or continued in twenty places on roads and bandhs for irrigation, for which Rs. 1,091 has been advanced during the fortnight. Some of the works in the North-East Circle are available also for persons from the North-West Circle.

Some of the relief given by me was also to persons belonging to this circle.

The Collector, Mr. Allen, and I also visited several villages in this circle, and inspected the crops, state of the people, and some of the works in progress.

Rameswar Circle.

27. Baboo Gagan Chundra Das, in charge of the Rameswar Circle, reports—

(1) That he has relieved about 2,155 persons, little and big, and expended Rs. 170-15-3 on gratuitous relief, only giving small amounts to each recipient with the intention of repeating his doles. "That the distress in zillah Rameswar is on the increase, in spite of the rainfall; for although there is more field work now, yet those who have suffered from starvation meet with no favour from the employers and are not employed, and they grow worse and worse: I wish to open relief works for them.

"The relief work should continue in these parts till the paddy crop of the current season is gathered.

"As a lot of mandia has been grown in many parts of Rameswar, it may be possible to close operations before the paddy is gathered, if the mandia crop is abundant.

"There was rainfall near Jankia on the 1st and 2nd August, and very heavy rain on 4th and 5th almost all over the zillah Rameswar, and on 7th and 8th over zillah Kuhun, at Siko on 15th, and also every day there was more or less rain. Everywhere there is now (16th) plenty of water in the fields. The distress is greatest in zillah Rameswar, and two children died at Talpara, although relief had been given to them and more was promised.

"I find a general practice amongst the suffering people to keep an adult member strong by giving him sufficient food that he may be able to earn something, and they starve others, particularly the children.

"The suffering is greatest amongst the Savars and the weavers. Many of the people have been reduced so much in flesh that there is nothing but skin and bone left. One such woman died the day before yesterday (14th) in my presence, and near my bungalow, when coming to ask for relief. She came from zillah Khordah and was going to Chandpore to her father's house, the husband having failed to maintain her. She dropped on the way at night, and heavy showers of rain passed over her head, and in the morning, when she was discovered by me, life was all but extinct. No efforts could bring back life to her. There is no doubt that she died of the effects of cold and hunger. Her home was not in my circle. She was about 40 years old.

"Another such woman of Damonbhoi died in the woods while collecting tunga (dioscorea) roots before I came to Jankia.

Zillah Kuhuri is, I think, safe. They had rainfall early in July from Barpokhuria (52nd mile) in Rameswar to Sonakhola (62nd mile of Ganjam road) in zillah Banpore; so I have heard, and I think it is true, as puddling and even weeding have been done in the fields.

"They had plenty of labour on the Madras Trunk Road."

28. I have extracted largely from Baboo Gagan Chundra Das' report, as I have not been able personally to visit his circle as yet. It is clear that great distress still prevails in the large and populous zillah of Rameswar, and the Baboo has been enjoined to be more liberal with his gratuitous relief, and to entrust small sums to respectable and trustworthy surbarakars, for immediate and urgent relief in their villages, and at the same time to start works of improvements, to give work where not easily available at present.

29. I have had three rather large works in progress for some time in this zillah, and they have afforded work to a large number of persons.

One is a road from Jankia to Chhangiri, about three miles.

The second a road from Barpokhuria to Bhusandpore about three miles in progress:

which is a large dam with channels for irrigation in the Bansjori on the boundary of

I do not myself think that the distress in zillah Bameswar is at present on the increase, but Baboo Gagan Chundra Das was, when he first arrived, inclined to doubt the existence of any very severe distress.

He is now thoroughly convinced, and the more he sees of it, the more the distress appears to him to be.

I hope in a day or two to visit his circle myself.

30. Baboo Bhagbat Nand, Inspector for the Western Circle, reports, dated the 17th instant, that he has visited 93 villages and has found that the rice crops in two-thirds of the villages have been greatly damaged by mooli or root disease. That even if copious rains fall till harvest time, not more than $\frac{1}{8}$ ths of an average crop can be expected.

31. That planting out afresh must be largely resorted to, but that unfortunately the ryots of Panchgarh and Manikagarah have not put down sufficient dhan in seed beds, for the large areas to be planted out.

32. That in most of the remaining villages of his circle, the rice crops have been or are about to be puddled from the late rain, or from water obtained from bandhs and tanks constructed or repaired by Government or the ryots themselves.

33. That if rainfall is favourable hereafter up to the end of October, 12 to 16 annas out-turn of the paddy crop may be expected in one-third of the villages of his circle.

34. Regarding the condition of the people, the Baboo finds that $\frac{12}{16}$ ths are more or less in want of food, half of them or $\frac{6}{16}$ ths have some property. Of the remaining $\frac{6}{16}$ ths, one-fourth or $\frac{15}{16}$ ths of the whole population will require gratuitous relief and $\frac{45}{16}$ tas work, until the early Laghu rice is harvested.

35. The Baboo had distributed Rs. 255-7-6 in gratuitous relief from the 3rd to 15th August to 1,919 men, women, and children.

36. The canoongoe Chintamony Patnaik had separately visited 22 villages, and relieved 468 persons at a cost of Rs. 105.

Western Circle.

37. Baboo Hira Lall Mukhorjee, Inspector of Police, also visited 23 villages and relieved 654 persons.

38. Detailed accounts and lists have been submitted.

39. In nine places works are now in progress from the Improvement Fund, four of the works being roads, one of which is six miles in length.

40. The District Board also have some work in hand on the road from Baghmari to Kalapathur, nine miles, Baghmari to Belgarh, 16 miles, and are about to spend Rs. 3,000 on roads in the Western Circle.

41. Details of the men, women, and children employed in five of the smaller works were obtained, and show that 2,193 men, 10 women, 244 boys, and 6 girls, in all 2,452 persons, obtained work.

On the larger roads, for which no details have come in, the numbers employed are greater.

42. I am more anxious about the Western Circle than any other part of Khordah, as the state of the crops over a considerable portion of the circle is very bad, and the circle adjoins killah Khandara, where there has been loss of crops this year, and for the last two or three years. Killah Nayagarh, where there will also, I believe, be distress, adjoins Panobgarh, and a portion of Banki in Cuttack, where the crops suffered somewhat last season, and have again suffered for want of rain this year, runs with part of Manikagarah and Kuspallah.

43. You have now gone out in person to see parts of the Western Circle and will be able to judge for yourself.

44. As reported on the 17th instant by Baboo Darpanarayan Das for the Banpore Circle, it appears that, owing to failure of early rains, there was somewhat of a scare, and the mahajans withheld their usual advances of a scare, and the mahajans withheld their usual advances of grain to the poorer ryots who, owing to bad crops in parts of the zillahs last year, had not been able to repay the previous advances received by them. He says: "A great many had, therefore, to subsist on suan and chakunda sag, &c.,

"There has now been sufficient rain here, and the apprehension of scarcity of food-grains has disappeared. The ryots are now getting paddy from their mahajans. It is the landless ryots only that have not been able to procure paddy, but most of them have now got labour in the field, excepting those who are physically unfit. These men will require looking after until they are fit for work; but amongst them there are very few persons who appear to be permanently invalided on account of age and sickness and (these) require gratuitous relief."

45. These remarks are made by the Inspector with reference to the sub-divisions of Banpore called Simas Sonakhola, Nimuna, Panchpalli and Chhatragur, where for several years running there has been a loss of crops from drought.

46. In the Champajhar, Champaur, Bhatpara, Kanthimal, and Naini Simas of Banpore, where last year crops were good, no relief is necessary at present.

47. Speaking of the condition of the distressed people of Banpore, the Inspector says: "No one appears to have been reduced to a skeleton; but scarcity of food has been felt by them more or less", and he proposes to carry on a few petty works which, with the work under the Public Works Department on the Trunk Road, will provide sufficient employment for those in need of it.

48. Rice now sells in the Banpore Circle at 13 and dhan at 34, moong at 17, kalai at 14, Khanda, and Santias, but they do not appear to have been so much affected as the Savars and Bawries further north.

50. The villages of Simas Sonakhola, Nimuna, and Panchpali must, however, be carefully looked after, for after heavy losses of crops for three years running any stoppage of rain or damage to the crops on the ground would at once cause a panic, and throw the poorer ryots of these parts into serious difficulty.

51. The Inspector of Banpore had only been a week in the circle, and may yet come on more serious distress.

He had visited only 30 villages, and had given only Rs. 864-4 to 1,075 persons.

52. I hope to visit Banpore myself after the close of this month.

53. The following is a list of prices at present obtaining separately for each circle of food-grains in seers of 80 tolas per rupee.

The prices as shown above are not what are called famine prices, but food-grains are still to a great extent withheld from the market, and only small quantities are really procurable at the prices quoted.

54. With reference to the Savars, Bawries, and other penniless classes, I beg to point out that so long as they cannot get work, or are unable to work, it matters not to them, whether prices are high or low: without money it is just as impossible for them to buy food at cheapest rate as it is to get food at famine rates. Taking this view of the state of things, the prices of food-grains cannot show the amount of distress prevailing amongst the poor.

55. There is no doubt at present there are ample stocks of dhan and other food-grains in Khordah, and if the season continues favourable, and the prospects of crops improve, this grain will be freely sold for cash or given out in loans to such of the people as have land, crop, or other security to offer. But if the crop on the ground should fail, and as soon as it shows signs of serious failure, all this grain will be locked up, and the poorer members of the cultivating community and others, and the Savars, Bawries, and other landless and penniless classes, will at once begin to starve, and extensive measures for famine relief must be taken.

56. The following is a statement of the rainfall at Banpore in the south, at the headquarters Khordah, and at Chandka in the north of the estate:—

57. The sarbarakars of villages have been utilized to prepare lists of the distressed inhabitants of their villages, and in many cases have been supplied with small sums of money for emergent relief until the circle officers can visit their villages. Sarbarakars have also in many cases been placed in charge of the small works of improvement started in their istagras, and are held responsible for daily reporting all cases of severe distress and deaths from starvation. These sarbarakars are ex-officio patwaries or village accountants, and as Government servants, are bound to assist in all measures of relief, &c.

Chapter II, section 21.
Chapter IX, section 131.

Chapter V, Famine Code.

58. Small sums have in some cases being given as gratuitous relief under sections 82, 85, 86, and 89, Chapter V of the Code.

Chapter IV.

59. No poor houses or children's kitchens have as yet been opened, and I trust that they will not be required.

Chapter VI

60. No special measures have as yet been found necessary for the protection of cattle.

Chapter VII.

61. The police of thannahs and outposts have reported distress and cases of deaths from starvation occurring in their jurisdictions.

Chapter XI.

62. Accounts are being kept of all payments made on account of gratuitous relief works, purchase of dhans, tools, &c., &c.

63. About $\frac{3}{16}$ ths of the rents for 1295 were collected before relief measures were undertaken. No pressure is now being put on ryots to pay up arrears due, and the collections are practically at a standstill. The staff of process-serving peons, 40 men, permanent and temporary, are now being employed chiefly in connection with relief work, and I trust that for the present I may be allowed so to utilize them when necessary, and that a strict account may not be required of the number of processes served, miles travelled, &c.

64. The Sub-Deputy Collectors are employed as circle officers; and as they have constantly to travel from village to village at their own expense and often by palki, the regular travelling allowance of four annas for every mile travelled over 15 miles is quite insufficient. Until further orders, and from the 20th July last, the usual travelling allowance for second class officers, 4 annas a mile when more than 20 miles is travelled, or Rs. 3 a day, should be granted to them; otherwise the pay of these officers, Rs. 100 a month, will hardly cover the costs they are put to for travelling.

65. Referring to paragraph 4 of the Government letter No. 257—95 Famine of the 6th instant, I give the following memorandum of expenditure sanctioned and proposed.

The Collector, in his No. B of the 29th ultimo, applied as follows:—

	Rs.
(1) For gratuitous relief	15,000(a)
(2) For work of improvement from the management grant ...	15,000(b)
Previously allotted from the management fund ...	13,872(c)
Total ...	43,872
(3) For tuccavi advances	22,000(d)
Ditto previously sanctioned by the Board of Revenue ...	14,000(e)
	36,000
The Commissioner has since sanctioned for tuccavi ...	9,000(f)
And the Collector has since sanctioned also for tuccavi ...	20,000(g)
Required in this letter	25,000(h)

Total rupees ninety thousand required for advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, bearing interest at 6½ per cent., or about one-fourth of the mufussil jama of the estate.

Items (a), (b), (c) appear to be sanctioned under the Government letter above referred to, but the Board's allotment of Rs. 15,000 (b) has not yet been received. (a) Rs. 15,000 for work and (b) + (c) Rs. 28,872 for petty works will, I think, suffice for our requirements, unless the state of crops should take a more seriously unfavourable turn.

(d) + (e) Rs. 36,000 have been allotted by the Board and approved in Mr. Cotton's letter, but I have as yet received no sanction of the Board for (f) and (g) authorized by the Commissioner and Collector and already nearly expended...

(I.) Formal sanction is therefore required for (f) and (g) Rs. 29,000 and for Rs. 25,000 now asked for—total Rs. 54,000 for advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act at 6½ per cent. interest in addition to the Rs. 36,000 already sanctioned by the Board of Revenue.

(II.) The favourable consideration and orders of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor are also solicited on the subject of the increased travelling allowance for circle officers recommended by me in paragraph 64 of this report.

66. One reason why the Savars and Bauries have been so much reduced is that under the rules passed by Government on the 24th March 1886, they have been to some extent precluded from taking and selling minor forest produce, such as firewood, brambles, leaves, creepers, wild yams, fruits, and vegetables from the forests.

67. From the reserves which are very extensive in zillah Dandimal, but less so in zillah Khorda, the poorer classes have been almost entirely excluded, and in the protected areas which comprise every inch of jungle or waste land on the estate, they have been a good deal hindered in taking what they required by the forest guards, paiks, and watchmen who doubtless have harassed the poorer classes a great deal.

68. For the last year Savar and Bauri women have been almost entirely prevented under the rules from carrying about bundles of firewood, &c., for sale in the villages on the estate.

As this was almost their only work during the slack season, and as work in the fields during June and July was stopped for want of rain, the poorer classes were reduced suddenly to a state of actual starvation.

69. The protected forests were, however, thrown entirely open by Mr. Richardson under the Commissioner's orders to the Savars, Bauries, and other poor in the middle of July, and they have also been allowed to take dry wood, creepers for building, yams, berries and vegetables from some of the reserves, and this has assisted them to a considerable extent.

70. For the future, the Forest Rules must be made easier for the poorer classes of Khorda, and this can, I think, be done without any material loss of forest revenue.

71. Had there been a Sub-Assistant or Assistant Conservator in charge of the Khorda forests for the last year, I do not think that such serious distress amongst the Savars and Bauries would have occurred.

72. As it is, since Mr. Wylly and Mr. Quinnell have been transferred, there has been no one on the spot to look after forest matters in Khorda, and the Deputy Conservator can only afford to pay the estate occasional and limited visits, and has certainly no time to look into details to watch the effect of the rules on the people, or to see that they are carried out in a reasonable manner.

73. A Forest officer on the spot could do a great deal towards making matters easier for the poorer classes, and at the same time he would be able to improve the forests and increase the forest revenue.

74. The Taila rules have never been enforced very strictly, and since the chances of distress came to my notice, every restriction has been removed and taila allowed freely on all waste lands not covered with good jungle. A very large area has in consequence been sown or planted with mandia (Eleusine corocana and Eleusine stricta), and cotton clearings have also been made and waste lands ploughed for til (Sesamum), urrar, kulti, and other products. Baiguns also have been largely planted out, and are now coming into the market; cucumbers and gourds of sorts have also been extensively cultivated, and the mandia crop will soon be ripe.

75. Another reason why the Savars have suffered more severely than any other class is that, like nearly all wild races, the men are idle, and do not like really hard work of any sort. They depend to a great extent on their women to support them and their children by working in the fields, picking and selling firewood, and the like.

76. The men of the Savar tribe will cut jungle, dig up yams, and collect honey, but they object to digging up the roots of jungle as work too hard for them. They object to earthwork for the same reason, whilst the women, following the example of all other women in Khorda, will not do earthwork. The men have the greatest objection to go out in rainy weather.

The Savar men and women will do such light work as weeding, herding cattle, and collecting berries from the forest.

77. The Bauries are a much more industrious race, and both sexes will work hard—the men at quarrying stone, carrying palkies, and bhangiee; and field work of all sorts; the women at field work, husking rice, collecting and selling firewood, and other products of the forest.

The Bauries have therefore suffered much less severely than the Savars, though they too are generally without any good lands of their own.

78. The weavers have been, as elsewhere in India, reduced to poverty by Manchester piece-goods, and are in times of scarcity some of the first to suffer.

79. The chasas, or cultivators of Khorda, are generally industrious, and have, on the whole, come pretty well out of this trouble so far. A few families only comparatively have suffered severely; as have a few families of the superior castes—Brahmans, Mahanties, Kambhars, Telies, and others, including Mahomedans and Native Christians.

80. The following is a list of improvement works started since the 20th July in order to give employment to the distressed classes:—

With next fortnightly report the amounts estimated for the works on the list will be given, and a statement of other works proposed to be carried out or started in order to supply work when and where required.

82. Since writing the above, I am happy to say that there has been heavy and continuous rain commencing at Khorda on the 20th, and amounting up to noon of this date (23rd) to 6.20 inches, the rainfall at Banpur for the 19th, 20th, and 21st being 4.25 inches. This rain, as you inform me, has extended over the whole of the Western Circle, and I hear that the whole of the Pooree district has, within the last four days, received a copious fall of rain.

83. There is now plenty of water all over the Khorda estate, and the prospects of the rice crops have been materially improved.

RESOLUTION ON THE LAND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LOWER PROVINCES FOR 1887-88.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Calcutta, the 8th September 1888.

RESOLUTION.

Letter No. 762A, dated the 31st July 1888, from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, submitting their report on the Land Revenue Administration of the Lower Provinces for the official year 1887-88.

Letter No. 836A, dated 1st September 1888, from the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, submitting with their remarks the Annual Report of the Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture for the official year 1887-88.

In accordance with the orders of the Government of India, No. 111A—6-2, dated 13th February 1888, the Annual Report of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture will be reviewed in this Resolution together with the Board's Land Revenue Administration Report. The Board's Land Revenue Report was punctually submitted, but the Director's Report was received from the Board of Revenue on the 4th September. As the reports are reviewed together, it is important that they should be received simultaneously and separate orders will be issued by Government on this subject.

Preliminary.

2. It is explained by the Board that the portions of the Director's Report which are concerned with Land Revenue Administration have already been laid before the Board with their own report, and that a further notice of them, so far as they relate to Wards' estates, will be offered in the Board's Report on the management of estates under the Court of Wards. The Director's report is prepared by Mr. Collin, who took charge of the Department after the close of the year, and merits the commendation of Government for its lucid and concise treatment. Mr. Finucane was Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture throughout the year.

3. The Board's report is submitted by Mr. Reynolds, who was in charge of the Land Revenue Department during the last half of the year. From the 1st April to the 30th September Mr. Halliday was acting in his place. The Land Acquisition and Partition Departments were under the successive charge of Mr. Halliday, Mr. Beames, and Mr. Peacock, except for a few days, when Mr. Reynolds was in charge. The report is succinct but sufficient, and, in accordance with the recent orders of Government, the repetition of all unnecessary matters has been avoided.

4. The report is illustrated for the first time by a series of maps, the object of which is to elucidate the figures and information furnished. The first of these is a map of the province in which the districts are coloured by various shades of red to indicate the percentage of land revenue collections in each. From this it is seen that Manbhoon and Darjeeling are the only districts in which the collections amounted to 100 per cent. In the Rajshahye Division all the districts, except Bogra and Julpigoree, exceed 97 per cent. This satisfactory rate of collections was also attained in Balasore and Cuttack, in Bankora and Beerbhoon, in Jessore, in Sarun and Durbhunga, in Purneah and in Hazaribagh and Singbhoon. A glance at the map shows that collections were indifferent in Eastern and Central Bengal. The six districts, however, in which the collections were worst of all, viz. Midnapore, Patna, Khulna, Chittagong, Lohardugga and Pooree, are scattered over all parts of the province.

5. The districts of Midnapore, Chittagong, Pooree, Lohardugga, and Patna have appeared also in previous years in the list of those which showed bad collections. The reasons in the first three cases are obvious. In Chittagong the minute character of the estates and holdings, which pay revenue direct to Government, has always necessitated a considerable balance. In Midnapore the indifferent collections are occasioned by the direct management of the large estates of Government estate of Khoordah. During the past year there was a failure of the rice crop in Khoordah. In Lohardugga collections are affected by direct management in the Government estate of Palamow. In Patna the short collections are attributed to the difficulty in realizing rents in two Government estates, Pundaruck and Jagira Dumra, and to the poor outturn of the rice crop in the Behar subdivision. In Khoolna the unfavourable result is attributable to balances due from an estate sold for arrears of revenue which could not be recovered pending the disposal of an appeal against the sale.

6. In general it cannot fail to attract notice that the districts in which temporarily settled estates, Government estates, and ryotwari tracts are largest are also those in which the collections appear most unsatisfactory. The percentage of total collections on the total demand in all temporarily settled estates in Bengal is 87.08, in Government estates it is 76.46, in ryotwari tracts it is 91.49, and in permanently settled estates it is 97.15. If the permanently-settled estates only are considered, there is not a single district in which the collections fell below 90 per cent. on the gross demand, and there are only six districts in which the collections fell below 95 per cent. So large a proportion of the land revenue in Bengal is collected from permanently settled estates that the percentage of collections from all estates taken together is found to be not less than 94.75.

7. It must be remembered, however, that in all cases of direct management, that is to say, in cases in which the Government collects direct from the ryots, and in a less degree in all cases in which temporarily settled estates and Government estates are let in farm, the basis of collections is very different from what it is in regard to permanently settled estates. In the latter case it is revenue which is collected, revenue which throughout the province as a whole bears an estimated proportion of between a third and a quarter of the amount of rental paid to the zemindars; in the former cases, where there are no intervening zemindars, the rent of the ryots becomes the revenue; it is not a proportion only, but the whole of the rent which is due to Government; and it is not to be expected that the percentage of collections should be as favourable as it is in the case of revenue properly so called.

8. The general map of the province is succeeded by a series of district maps designed to illustrate the locality of all Government estates, and in irrigation districts the area to which canal water was supplied. The maps of all districts are not given, but only such as comprise estates, the importance of which merits recognition. These maps are interesting and fully repay the trouble which must have been bestowed on their preparation. But they are of unequal merit, and in some cases present imperfections due no doubt to the haste with which they were prepared. The Board propose in subsequent years to illustrate other subjects in the district maps, and this intention should be carried out. But the Lieutenant-Governor would suggest that next year the maps should be prepared with the same object that they have been this, in order that the deficiencies which are apparent this year may be corrected. The colouring should be uniform throughout. Some districts are very wanting in this respect. In Shahabad it is not apparent that the Government estates have been indicated at all, and no attempt is made to colour the area of land under irrigation. The map of Cuttack does not show Angool, and in Julpigoree, Ambaree Failacotta is omitted. In Lohardugga, the Palamow estate is properly marked; but although a reference is made in the margin to the position of the Burkagurh, Puttea, and Silam estates, it is not possible to trace their site in the map. The 24th Pergunnahs map is too indistinct to be useful. The map of Gya would have been a good one if the names of the village groups had been shown on the map itself, and not in the margin—a practice which should be avoided whenever it is possible to show the names in the map. The maps of Midnapore, Pooree, Balasore, Patua, and Chittagong are favourable illustrations of what is required.

9. Another respect in which there is a change in this report, and at the same time an improvement over its predecessors, is its division into four main parts—(1) collection of the land revenue, (2) administration of the land

COLLECTION OF THE LAND REVENUE.

10. The current demand on account of the four classes in which estates are divided is shown below :—

Demand.

CLASS OF ESTATES.	Current demand.
	1885-86. Rs.	1886-87. Rs.	1887-88. Rs.
I—Permanently settled estates ...	3,22,09,680	3,22,97,484	3,22,91,720
II—Temporarily settled do. ...	27,11,912	27,26,301	26,49,656
III—Government estates ...	21,97,139	22,36,201	22,32,370
IV—Ryotwari tracts ...	8,21,318	8,35,309	8,43,757
Total ...	3,80,33,379	3,80,95,294	3,80,16,403

There is a decrease in the year under review of Rs 78,895, attributable to reductions allowed in Midnapore on account of the Majmamoota and Jellamoota estates, and partly to items hitherto accounted for as remissions being now shown as reductions of demand.

11. The following statement shows the demand, collections, remissions, and balances during the year 1887-88 as compared with the two preceding years :—

YEAR.	DEMAND.			COLLECTIONS.			Remissions.	BALANCES.			Percentage of total collections to total demand.	Percentage of total collections to current demand.

1887-88 ...	3,80,16,403	19,17,014	3,99,33,417	3,62,38,301	15,81,740	3,78,20,041	23,820	17,56,538	5,12,018	22,68,556	94.75	99.33

12. The total collections are less than those of 1886-87 by Rs. 5,67,732, and of 1885-86 by Rs. 4,51,383. The collections are smaller in consequence of the steady tendency to reduce arrear balances. In the balances which are most difficult to realize there has been a steady reduction year by years, and to this extent the result is satisfactory. But although the percentage of collections on gross demand shows, in consequence, a small improvement, it is observed that the percentage on current demand shows a falling off, and this year amounts to only 99.53. It is explained that a sum of Rs. 41,980 in Chitragong, though included in the demand for the year, was not recoverable by legal process until after the close of the year. The Board propose to show such demands in future in the first quarter of the next year. This proposal is in accordance with existing orders, and has the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor. Arrears due by wards' estates permanently settled amounted to Rs. 1,75,690, against Rs. 1,12,803 in 1886-87 and Rs. 1,52,659 in 1885-86. Of this amount, however, the large sum of Rs. 75,000 due from the Burdwan estate was a nominal balance only: the amount was paid in at Cuttack from the receipts of the Kujung property, but was not credited at Burdwan until after the close of the year. The fact that the last two days of the year, the 30th and 31st of March, were close holidays prevented the realisation of revenue remitted from one district to another: in such cases it was often impossible to adjust the accounts until after the year had closed. It must be noted also that this case affected the collections in all districts: the latest date of payment for the spring instalment is the 28th March, and considerable payments are usually made on the days which immediately succeed this date. Had it not been for this cause, the collections would have been more favourable than they are shown to be in the year's accounts.

The remissions, which are of grace only, are Rs. 23,820, against Rs 83,390 in 1886-87 and Rs. 56,458 in 1885-86. Remissions of right and nominal remissions have been rightly excluded.

The balances are heaviest in Government estates, being 22.87 per cent. of the gross demand. In permanently settled estates, the percentage on gross demand rose from 2.37 to 2.84, while in temporarily settled estates it fell from 12.56 to 12.46 per cent.

13. The total number of Government estates in the Lower Provinces during the year was 3,058, with a rental of Rs. 22,32,270.

Government estates.

These figures exclude some large Government estates under direct management, which are classed as ryotwari tracts, such as the Western Doars in Julpigoree and the Damin-i-Koh in the Sonthal Pergunnahs. There were 28 ryotwari tracts with a current revenue of Rs. 8,43,757, and the collections, amounting to Rs. 8,53,737, may be considered to be very satisfactory. The total number of Government estates in 1886-87 was 3,053, and the rental Rs. 22,36,201. There was a much larger amount of arrears in that year, which accounts for the collections amounting to Rs. 24,49,005, against Rs. 22,21,366 for the year under review. The percentage of collections to gross demand was nearly the same in both years.

14. Of the total number of Government estates (excluding ryotwari tracts), 1,395, with a rental of Rs. 15,46,655, were under direct management, and the remaining 1,663, with a rental of Rs. 6,85,715 only, under farming leases. Including private estates, there were 1,685 estates under direct management with a rental of Rs. 27,96,411, and a gross demand of Rs. 35,18,919. The collections amounted to Rs. 27,61,380, or 98.7 per cent. of the current demand, against 102.6 per cent. in the year 1886-87. The collections were best in the Rajshahye Division, except in Pubna, and worst in Orissa. The failure of crops in Khoordah in the Pooree district was so considerable that the Subdivisional Officer submitted a list of 17 areas where he thought relief works would be necessary. Matters fortunately proved less serious than had been anticipated, but the ryots were unable to pay their rents in full, and it is stated that Rs. 32,000 will be reported for remission. In the present year the crops have again failed in a portion of this estate, and it is probable that further remissions will have to be made. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction the steady, if slow, improvement in the Chittagong district. The percentage of cost of management on revenue was the same as in 1886-87, or 7.3. The allowance made to surbarakars, who are to all intents and purposes middlemen, for the collection of revenue, is not included in the above percentage. There are special facilities in the Presidency and Chota Nagpore Divisions, which tend to reduce the total percentage of cost of management.

Miscellaneous revenue.

15. There was an increase in the following branches of Miscellaneous Revenue only:—

		1886-87.	1887-88.
		Rs.	Rs.
Fees under Act VIII of 1865	...	1,776	2,596
" " " XI of 1859	...	16,990	18,666
Fines under " AX of 1848	...	137	1,151

But there was a decrease under all other heads, especially in regard to the sale of Government lands, under which there were large receipts in 1886-87 on account of the sale of the Lottery Committee's lands in Calcutta. The total receipts from all sources fell from Rs. 3,40,478 in 1886-87 to Rs. 1,72,982.

Road and public works cess.

16. The following statement shows the demand, collections, and balances of road and public works cess during the past three years:—

	DEMAND.			Collections.	Remission.	Balances.	Percentage of balance of gross demand.
	Current.	Arrear.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1884-85	74,84,880	15,63,317	90,00,147	75,58,278	38,037	14,28,681	15.6
1885-86	74,97,648	14,05,317	89,62,965	75,48,825	39,331	13,88,089	15.4
1887-88	76,11,708	16,24,865	92,36,573	75,55,113	16,601	27,00,599	15.4

The large increase in the demand is due to re-valuations. The collections are unsatisfactory. Due weight is, however, allowed to the Board's explanation that the statutory allowance of 15 days of grace for cess payments will that in the past year the last two days of March were close holidays. This is the first year in which the cess year has corresponded with the financial year, and the figures given are therefore not strictly comparable with those of previous years.

17. The subject of redemption of land revenue calls for no remark, unless it be to note that since the close of the year it has been ordered that for the term of one year petty estates in the Chittagong district, permanently settled and paying less than one rupee per annum as Government revenue, may be redeemed at ten times their annual jumma. If, as is expected, this boon is largely availed of by the Chittagong landholders, it will afford relief not only to them, but also to the revenue administration of the district, which at the time of payment of small demands in June is almost paralysed by the thousands of persons who come to pay their infinitesimal quota of revenue.

18. The privilege of remitting land revenue by postal money-orders was extended to all districts from the 1st April 1887. The total amount of revenue so remitted during the year was Rs. 2,07,156 by 47,248 orders. Transactions were largest in the following districts:—

	Rs.	Number of orders.
Chittagong	21,368	9,393
Mozufferpore	17,911	2,460
Dacca	16,630	3,226
Furreedpore	15,192	2,690

On this subject the Board observe—

“The system has worked very well, and is very popular. The total number of orders refused was 2,066. It is expected that a smaller proportion will be refused in future years, and in order to ensure this result the Board have issued a general rule that doubtful points are to be determined in favour of acceptance rather than of refusals of these special money-orders.

“From the 1st April 1888 the rules have been revised so as to make the revenue money-order system applicable to all estates, irrespective of the amount of their land revenue, and to include remittances of zemindari dāk cess, as well as land revenue and road and public works cess. It has also been ruled that other public demands may be paid at the option of the payer by ordinary postal orders, provided that the particulars given are sufficient for the department concerned.”

The success of the system, which the Lieutenant-Governor observes with much satisfaction, is largely due to the personal trouble which has been taken by Mr. Kisch, the Postmaster-General, and his subordinates to organise details and ensure that there should be no breakdown at times of pressure. The convenience to the public afforded by the new arrangements is no doubt very considerable.

The proposal to extend the system of money-orders to payment of rent under the Tenancy Act is still under the consideration of Government. The system has recently been sanctioned as an experimental measure in one village in the Howrah district, where the relations between the tenants and their landlord appeared to be greatly strained.

19. The administration of the sale law was generally satisfactory. The number of defaults increased, but the number of sales as will be seen from the subjoined statement, varies little year by year:—

	Defaults.	Sales.
	Rs.	Rs.
1884-85	10,575	1,830
1885-86	12,445	1,770
1886-87	14,456	1,859
1887-88	14,745	1,863

The slight increase in the number of sales observable during the past year is due to an injudiciously worded circular issued by the Collector of Burdwan, which was understood to give the day of sale as the date up to which payments by defaulters would be received. But as a rule the sale law has been administered with great consideration, and the leniency shown—in the opinion of many officers an excessive leniency—is evinced by the number of defaults. The proportion of sales is now only 12 per cent. on the number of defaults, whereas four years ago it was 17 per cent. The care and discrimination now exercised by Collectors in the case of sales for petty arrears and the greater indulgence shown to defaulters is due to the policy initiated by Mr. Reynolds at the Board, and it meets with the Lieutenant-Governor's entire approval. It is a wise and considerate policy, from which the landholders have gained and the Government has not suffered. That the greater moderation now displayed has not in any way affected the revenue is shown by the following statement of the percentage of collections, year by year, during the past four years upon the gross demand:—1884-85, 92·41; 1885-86, 93·53; 1886-87, 94·58; 1887-88, 94·75.

20. The total number of certificates filed during the year was 176,608, against 177,618 in the previous year. Of these, Certificates. 80,205 were for road cess, 30,422 for water-rates, 12,418 for wards' estates, 24,218 for rent due to Government, and the rest for other demands. A large number of certificates is annually filed for the realization of petty demands, principally of road cess and water-rates. Out of the total number of certificates, in 57,194 cases payment was made on mere issue of notice, and in 63,392 cases payment was made on attachment of property. The number of cases in which it was necessary to have actual recourse to sale was reduced from 9,112 in the previous year to 4,797.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND REVENUE.

21. There has been no change in the agency or mode of management in regard to these estates. The total expenditure from all sources incurred on works of improvement was Rs. 95,603, or only .3·4 per cent. on Rs. 27,61,380, which is the total collection of the year from these estates. The greatest portion of the expenditure incurred was in drainage and irrigation works in the Majnamoota and Jellamoota estates. The cultivation of new staples has not been neglected by the Director of the Agricultural Department. Buxar wheat was not found very successful in other districts. Sugarcane and paddy were cultivated on improved methods in the Serampore estates. Different kinds of manure, including bone-meal, were tried with satisfactory results. Potatoes were cultivated in Patna and Bogra with a good outturn. Various new ploughs have been introduced into Government estates for experimental cultivation by the ryots, but in all cases have been rejected as being too heavy for country bullocks. The Beheea sugar mill is said to be generally in use, and is much appreciated by the ryots. Mr. Finucane visited Rhotas last cold weather with a view of establishing fuel and fodder reserves on the Rhotas and Rehul plateaus on the Kymore Hills, and submitted proposals to protect the forests in these plateaus, and to reserve a forest tract at the foot of the hills, which are still under the consideration of the Forest Department. Primary schools are maintained on Government estates in most districts, and the usual one and a half per cent. assignment was made over to the District Road Cess Committees for the improvement of communications. The inspection of tehsil accounts by Collectors and others appears to have been generally made. In Boarra serious irregularities in the Jaipore Manager's office were detected; in Chittagong various malpractices were discovered, which eventually resulted in the removal of a khas tehsildar from his appointment; in Lohardugga, Chittagong, and Noakholly embezzlements were brought to light, which have been followed by the criminal prosecution and conviction of the offenders. The material condition of the Government ryots was not marked by exceptional features.

22. The question of survey and settlements will be again referred to in dealing with the proceedings under the Tenancy Act. The following observations refer to action taken under the provisions of other Acts. The survey of ghatwali lands in Bankoora was completed at a total cost of Rs. 63,380. The Government

879 square miles, a large portion of which is jungle. The whole tract is now under cadastral survey and settlement under the immediate supervision of the Director of Land Records. The cadastral survey is being carried out by the Professional Department through the indigenous agency of surbarakars or village headmen, and it is reported that 187 square miles had been completed by the close of the year. In regard to the settlement now being taken in hand, it has been decided to make no alteration in existing rates, but to rely upon the increase in the area of holdings, and the extension of cultivation for an increase of revenue. The estate of Banki in the same district, comprising an area of 120 square miles, is also under survey and settlement by the same means and agency. Of this estate, the survey of only six square miles had been completed by the close of the year. The outer boundary and traverse surveys of both of these estates having been completed, it is expected that the whole of the cadastral survey will be concluded during the coming cold season. The rents of the Majnamoota and Jellamoota estates have now been finally adjusted, and negotiations have been set on foot for restoring the management of the Jellamoota estate to its proprietors. The Chota Nagpore settlements have been completed, and the Board accord well-deserved praise to Mr. Slack for his efficient service as Settlement Officer in this division.

The old Settlement Manual has been revised by the Board in communication with the Director of Land Records, and new rules, which have been rendered necessary by the difference of procedure enjoined under the Tenancy Act, have been submitted to Government, and will shortly be promulgated for general guidance.

23. The first registration under Act VII of 1876 is complete in 37 districts; the balance of work remaining to be done is inconsiderable. Revision and re-writing of the registers are complete only in 22 districts. Registration of mutations under section 42 of the Act is still very incompletely effected. The improvement is almost imperceptible. The percentage on the total number of interests registered was 3.5 in 1885-86, 3.7 in 1886-87, and 3.8 in 1887-88. In every year the registrations are more satisfactory in the Rajshahye and Dacca Divisions than elsewhere. But in the Presidency Division the percentage is only 1.6 in Jessore, 2.4 in Calcutta, and 2.7 in the 24-Pergunnahs. In many other parts of Bengal the results are quite as bad as this, while in neighbouring districts like Khulna it is found that the percentage is 12.6 and in Burdwan 11.1. In Rajshahye, Pubna, Dacca and Patna the mutation exceeds 7 per cent. No explanation of these divergencies can be furnished. Revised rules prepared by the Board with a view to the improvement of registration without having recourse to further legislation for the purpose have been sanctioned by Government, but it is doubtful, as the Board observe, whether these rules will prove very efficacious.

24. The number of partitions instituted during the past four years in the three heaviest divisions—Patna, Bhagulpore, and Dacca—is shown in the following statement:—

	PATNA.		BHAGULPORE.		Dacca.
	Institutions.	Disposals.	Institutions.	Disposals.	Institutions.	Disposals.
1884-85	425	338	67	69	77	12
1885-86	440	375	79	55	69	88
1886-87	433	393	61	86	48	68
1887-88	436	380	38	99	92	67

There are no great fluctuations year by year, but it will be observed that the disposals in the Patna Division by no means keep pace with the number of institutions, and the number of cases pending at the close of 1884-85 was 1,396, while it has increased to 1,557 at the close of the past year. The increase is distributed among every one of the seven districts in the division. The amount of work done last year in Mozufferpore was creditable, but less so in other districts. In the Bhagulpore Division the pending files have been satis-

25. The proceedings in the Land Acquisition Department involved a considerable increase of outlay during the last year, as follows :—

	Area of land acquired.			Cost of acquisition.			Average per acre.
	A.	R.	P.	Rs.	A.	P.	Rs.
1884-85 ...	2,946	3	15	3,12,072	4	7	106.
1885-86 ...	3,262	3	30	11,42,697	8	11	350
1886-87 ...	7,363	3	30	4,99,887	12	6	67
1887-88 ...	2,824	1	36	14,50,313	7	3	513

From the nature of the case these figures afford very little standard of comparison with one another. During the first of these years no important cases were confirmed by the Board. In 1885-86 land was taken up in Calcutta for town improvements, and there was a heavy expenditure on railway lands. In 1886-87 a very large area was acquired for irrigation purposes in Orissa, but the expense was small. During the past year there has been a heavy outlay in almost all departments. The principal project in which the proceedings were confirmed was the land on the Howrah foreshore for the Port Commissioners: 13 acres at a cost of Rs. 5,25,000. A total cost of more than 4½ lakhs was incurred for railway lands, and more than two lakhs of rupees were paid for land taken up by municipalities, chiefly Calcutta. The high cost per acre is due to the character of the land acquired. The proceedings in the case of several important railway projects are still pending, and cannot be confirmed until the proceedings before the Civil Court have been disposed of. The revised rules prepared by the Board for the guidance of officers in the acquisition of land for public purposes are still under the consideration of Government in the Public Works Department.

26. Important special reports from the Board of Revenue have recently been received regarding the maintenance of patwari registers, and the value of the existing patwari agency as a means of maintaining the maps and records in a tract of country of which a survey and record of rights has been made. In their present report the Board write :—" It appears to be premature to discuss the question of the form of the registers until it has been finally decided whether any recourse is to be had to legislation. If it is determined to leave the law as it stands, it does not appear that anything would be lost by cancelling the putwari rules and abolishing the registers." The whole question is still under the Lieutenant-Governor's consideration.

.RENT.

27. The Board observe that "the Bengal Tenancy Act has been for too short a time in force to have produced its full effect. There is still a feeling of hesitation on the part of landlords and tenants to have recourse to its provisions. What influence it will eventually have on the condition of the landholding classes it is still too early to say. It is certain, however, that it has not yet provoked any agrarian demonstrations or increased litigation." Upon the whole, the relations between landlord and tenant are said to have been satisfactory, although here and there manifestations of ill-feeling are brought to notice. In the Burdwan district it is reported that an increment of rent assessed thirty years ago was waived by the landlord during some bad seasons, and is now a source of dispute, because the prescribed form of rent receipt requires it to be permanently shown or permanently abandoned. Similarly, there is disturbance in the south of the Midnapore district, where the landlord's claim has always been a fluctuating one on account of floods. In the same way the difficulties which are felt by the Court of Wards in dealing with pergunnah Sujamoota in the Burdwan Raj Estate are principally due to the amalgamation of illegal cesses with the demand many years ago, and the consequent uncertainty in the demand of rent from the ryots. In this case the disputes will no doubt be settled by the survey and record of rights which will be effected next cold weather. In the Rungpore and Mymensing

28. The use of the form of rent receipt and of annual accounts prescribed under the Tenancy Act appears to have become general. In consequence of a misunderstanding which prevailed as to the meaning of the words "particulars of holding" which appear in the form of receipt, it was decided by Government that the words which do not in any way affect the meaning or substance of the receipt should be omitted from the form.

29. There has been a marked increase in the number of notices of transfer of tenures from 67,565 to 89,564. The statistics given by the Board are interesting: the 24-Per-gunnahs again heads the list with 19,128 notices, most of which relate to holdings in the Punchannogram estate. In Hooghly the number was 9,055, Chittagong 8,427, Midnapore 7,868, Dacca 6,887, and Backergunge 5,590, while the number in Moorshedabad was only 366, Rungpore 185, Dinagore 126, Chumparun 135, and Boerbhoom 117. The explanation of this contrast is that in the latter districts the number of permanent holdings is comparatively small. The Board bring to notice that the feeling of reluctance on the part of landlords to accept the fees for transfer continues to prevail, and again suggest that as the Bill for the registration of permanent tenures has been allowed to drop, there is no sufficient ground for retaining in the Tenancy Act the sections 12 to 15 which were intended by the framers of that Act to supplement the provisions of a law which it was understood would be introduced in the Bengal Council for the registration of tenures. The Lieutenant-Governor has no doubt that the operation of these sections has created a great increase of work in Collectors' offices, and that, from the official point of view, no advantage is obtained from them. The facts also would seem to show that they are not appreciated by the zemindars, who, as a rule, refuse to be bound by them. It remains to ascertain the feeling of tenure-holders on the subject, and this, as the Board observe, ought not to be difficult to ascertain in districts where permanent under-tenures are common. The Lieutenant-Governor requests, therefore, that the Board will now take steps to obtain the opinion of Revenue Officers and of the landholding classes generally, both landlords and tenants, whether the sections should be retained in the law or not, and to submit a report on the subject.

Notice of transfer and landlords' fees.

30. There were altogether 66 applications for survey and settlement of lands under Chapter X of the Tenancy Act. Of these 40 were in respect of the settlement of Government or temporarily-settled estates under direct management, 6 related to Wards' estates, and 20 to private zemindaries. These proceedings are for the most part conducted under the direct supervision of the Director of Land Records. The survey and settlement of Beel Bullee in the 24-Pergunnahs was concluded during the year. The rents, when they have reached their maximum, will have increased from Rs. 4,061 to Rs. 27,059. This large increase is mainly due to the reclamation of land for cultivation effected by the drainage work of the Public Works Department at a cost of Rs. 94,443. The settlement operations in Chur Nalchira in Noakhally were commenced in December 1886, and brought to a conclusion in February 1888, the result being an increase of rent from Rs. 23,000 to Rs. 29,000, or 26 per cent. In the remaining Government cases survey only had been undertaken, and settlement had not commenced until after the close of the year. In the two first cases of settlement, which have been concluded under the Tenancy Act, the results are financially satisfactory, and the work seems to have been efficiently done.

The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that the Board of Revenue, the Director of Land Records and other Revenue authorities will keep as careful a watch and control over the surveys and records of rights which are being made under Chapter X of the Act in regard to private zemindaries as they are bound to do in the case of Government estates. At least one case of the settlement of a private estate has already come to His Honour's notice, in which, owing to want of supervision and attention, a much larger expenditure has apparently been incurred than the circumstances would justify. Delay, too, often involves unnecessary expense, and it is feared that in the operations undertaken in some private estates delay has occurred which might have been avoided. It is known that was pointed out by the Lieutenant-Governor in the Resolution on last year's report that it was only after those concerned had observed the effects of such operations that any general recourse could be expected to the means afforded by the new law for securing a settlement of all agrarian disputes. But if it is found that the work is not efficiently supervised, and if it is not well and economically managed, and if the strictest care is not taken to prevent abuse, it is certain that the provisions of this chapter of the Act will become a burden instead of a boon to those interested in the land, and the benevolent intentions of the legislature to facilitate by this means the adjustment of disputes between landlords and tenants will be frustrated.

MISCELLANEOUS.

31. The Board report that the prescribed half-yearly inspections were ^{Inspections by Collectors of their own offices.} generally made by the Collectors themselves. In some districts, owing to pressure of work, the duty of inspection was delegated to Deputy Collectors or Assistants. In two or three districts only no inspection was made. The reason of this is generally attributed to the transfer of officers at the time when the inspection would otherwise have been made. The Lieutenant-Governor attaches much importance to this duty, and does not find that the excuses which have in some cases been made for its non-performance are satisfactory. He expects that all Collectors will comply with the rule, and must hold the Board and Commissioners responsible for seeing that the inspection is made regularly half-yearly, and that it is always made by the Collector himself and not by a subordinate. There is no reason why it should be put off to the end of the half-year: it is this postponement which generally leads to no inspection being made at all.

32. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to see that the subject of training of ^{Training of young civilians in survey and settlement work.} young civilians in survey and settlement work has received due attention. It is true that the practical difficulties in the way of imparting a competent knowledge of survey work to a young civilian are very great. But an attempt is being made to overcome them by associating these officers more closely with surveys and settlements than was done in former years. During the next cold-weather, survey operations will be carried out on a somewhat extensive scale, and it is likely that for several years to come important surveys will be in progress in several districts. Opportunities, therefore, are likely to offer themselves more frequently in future, and the Director of Land Records, as well as Commissioners of Divisions, should avail themselves of them wherever possible for deputing young civilians temporarily with a survey party in order to learn their work.

33. The Lieutenant-Governor cordially acknowledges the valuable services rendered during the year by Messrs. Reynolds and Halliday as Members of the Board. A series of very useful Manuals for the guidance of officers on revenue matters, based on rulings and orders of the Board of Revenue, has been accurately and carefully compiled by Mr. Buckland, Officiating Secretary to the Board. Mr. Finucane, the Director of Land Records, again distinguished himself by the energy with which he devoted himself to his multifarious duties. The names of the revenue officers, who are considered by the Board to be deserving of special commendation for their work, will be communicated to the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. S. COTTON,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SANITARY COMMISSIONER FOR BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1887.

RESOLUTION.

SANITATION.

Calcutta, the 10th September 1888.

READ—

The Report of the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal for the year 1887, including the Report on Vaccination in Bengal for the year 1887-88, dated 18th June 1888.

The Report for the previous year and the Resolution recorded upon it.

The remarks in last year's resolution on the length of the Sanitary Commissioner's report have been attended to by Dr. Lidderdale, who has succeeded in reducing his report from 163 to 65 pages without at the same time omitting anything of importance. The section relating to personal proceedings might be still further shortened.

2. Registration of Births.—Births were registered in 100 towns, against 45 towns in 1886. It is no doubt due to the number of towns in which registration was enforced for the first time that the recorded birth-rate fell from 21.04 per 1,000 to 19.35. The recorded birth-rate varied from 50.21 per mille in Jamal-pore to .66 per mille in Jehanabad. It is obvious that in many places sufficient attention has not been paid to the work of registration of vital statistics by the Municipal Commissioners who are at present responsible for it. The matter will be referred to the Municipal Department for such action as may be found necessary.

3. Registration of Deaths.—The death-rate per mille for 1887 is 23.46 against 21.99 in 1886, and a mean ratio for the previous five years of 20.96. These figures indicate some improvement in the registration of vital statistics which is most marked in a more accurate record of the death-rate among children of less than five years of age. The number of deaths among children under one year has increased to 145.40 per mille from a quinquennial mean of 111.81. There is reason to think, however, that the apparent improvement in registration is not altogether real. Dr. Lidderdale points out that the death-rate is calculated on the population as recorded in the census of 1881, and that, allowing for the probable increase in population since then, the corrected death-rate for 1887 would be about 21.41 per thousand. The rates recorded vary from 35.31 per 1,000 in Monghyr to 12.53 per 1,000 in Mozufferpore. The former figure is probably very nearly correct, and it is most important to note that the apparently high comparative death-rate in Monghyr is not due to its being an unhealthy district, but mainly to the admirable way in which Colonel Ramsay enforces report by the village chowkidars of the district. At present the position of any district on the list is very largely determined by the interest taken in registration by the Magistrate and District Superintendent of Police, and the Lieutenant-Governor is compelled to observe that in too many cases the results shewn are deplorably inaccurate, and the figures supplied absolutely worthless, for purpose of comparison or as a basis for sanitary action. The attention of Commissioners of Divisions, and of the Inspector-General of Police, will be emphatically called to the matter, the importance of which is manifestly often overlooked. District and Sub-divisional Officers and District Superintendents of Police must be got to realize that the collection of correct vital statistics is an important part of their duty. They should be urged to take a personal interest in the work, and to test the figures supplied to them by their own knowledge of the sanitary conditions of various parts of their districts, by facts which may come to their knowledge regarding the prevalence of epidemics of cholera or malarious fever or other diseases, and by local enquiry during their tours. By these means they can effectually check, if not put a complete stop to, the tendency to leave deaths unreported on the one hand, or the possible risk of inaccuracy in the reports on the other.

4. The following table shows the death-rate from various causes during the quinquennial period 1882-86, 1886 and 1887 :—

	RATIO OF DEATHS PER 1,000 OF POPULATION.
	In 1887.			In 1886.			In 1882-86.
	Urban.	Rural.	Province.	Urban.	Rural.	Province.	Urban.	Rural.	Province.

Fevers ...	10.45	16.68	16.44	12.29	16.11	15.97	13.85	14.37	14.84

Total ...	24.12	23.44	23.46	27.29	21.79	21.99	28.98	20.65	20.96

The most striking feature in this table is the close approximation between urban and rural mortality as compared with previous years. Dr. Lidderdale makes no remarks on the subject in discussing these figures, though it would appear to require explanation, as, while the recorded death-rate rose in rural circles, it actually fell in urban circles considerably below the quinquennial mean. From another part of his report it would appear that he attributes the decline to the fact that the charge of registration has been made over to municipal bodies (paragraph 57). This subject had been already noticed in a previous paragraph, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that measures may be taken to remove a decided blot in Municipal Administration. The only other noteworthy feature is the considerable mortality from cholera.

5. Cholera—The recorded deaths from cholera rose to 172,578, against 118,368 in 1886, and a quinquennial mean of 139,869 for 1882-86. The number of villages attacked was 23,894, against 21,567 in 1886. The severity of this disease varied greatly in different parts of the province. In Bengal Proper the mortality fell to 1.70 per mille against 2.17 in 1886. The Suburbs of Calcutta, favourable climatic conditions notwithstanding, maintained its pre-eminence with a death-rate of 8.31, against a mean rate of 8.58 for the previous five years. The bad sanitary condition of Raneegunge, due, according to the Sanitary Commissioner, to neglect of duty by the Municipal Commissioners, afforded a breeding ground for cholera. It should, however, be mentioned that, as appears from the General Administration Report of the Burdwan Division, the Municipal Commissioners of Ranigunge were most energetic in remedial measures after the disease had made its appearance. It appeared there in the cooly depôts, and was transmitted thence through Northern Bengal causing much loss of life. In Serampore there was an outbreak, ascribed to the use of bad water. In Midnapore cholera was imported by the pilgrims returning from Pooree. In Behar the number of deaths was 84,530, against 25,709 in 1886, and a quinquennial mean of 41,415, giving death-rates of 3.65, 1.11 and 1.79 per mille respectively. The districts most affected were Gya, Chumparun and Shahabad, with death-rates of 8.05, 7.50 and 7.15 per mille. Peculiar atmospheric conditions were associated with the appearance of this epidemic, "such as absence of the usual west winds, replaced by damp winds from the east, and a heavy downpour of rain in the end of May." In Gya town, where the death-rate was 8.78, sanitary improvement is greatly needed. In Shahabad the Civil Surgeon enquired as to the cause of the outbreak, and says "for all there is the same tale to relate—foul wells, foul tanks, human and animal ordure everywhere, damp houses, damp surroundings, and neglect of the first principles of sanitation." In Sarun the death-rate was 3.46, the largest on record for that district. It was most virulent there in Sewan in the municipality and rural circle. The former had a death-rate of 5.63. Chumparun was visited by the Sanitary Commissioner in August, who submitted a special report. He found here the usual insanitary conditions, and also noted that the epidemic "was preceded by two years of unusual rainfall, was associated with a very plentiful fruit crop, and with early rainfall and an absence of west winds." In Orissa the death-rate was 4.87 against a quinquennial mean of 4.18. The Puri district had a death-rate of 9.75—the highest in the Act along the main line of road, and to allot to the Sanitary Committee of the Local Board funds for conservancy at principal halting-places." Dr. Lidderdale recommends similar measures along the Grand Trunk Road. A copy of his remarks will be forwarded to the Municipal Department. In Chota Nagpore the death-rate was 2·45 per 1,000 against 30 per 1,000 in 1886 and a quinquennial mean for 1882-86 of 67. It was worst in places near the Gya and Shahabad districts.

6. Small-pox.—The number of deaths is the smallest on record, only 05 per mille, and testifies to the good results of systematic vaccination. 47 per cent. of the mortality is due to the Patna Division, where vaccination has only been extended to three districts. In the Orissa Division vaccination is said to be backward and inoculators active, and the result is that 32 per cent. of the deaths are reported from that division. Dr. Lidderdale states that many of the deaths put down to small-pox are really due to measles or fever attended by anomalous eruptions. While the death-rate for rural circles is 05 per mille, urban circles show a mortality of 13, and the very unsatisfactory explanation given by the Sanitary Commissioner is neglect of vaccination and inefficient administration of the Compulsory Vaccination Act.

7. Fever.—The statistics of fever mortality give a death-rate of 16·44, the highest yet recorded. The increase, however, appears to be due to improved registration, for the general view of Magistrates and Civil Surgeons is that the year was not an unhealthy one. There is a marked decline in the fatality in towns remarked on in paragraph 4. The Sanitary Commissioner remarks that of the eight districts heading the list, he believes all, except Monghyr, to be among the most feverish in the province, and he considers that this proves that in some parts of the country registration of deaths is beginning to show some relation to actual facts. The Rajshahye Division shows the very large death-rate of 27·16 per 1,000 from fever, but the rise of 6·11 over the average for the five years 1882-86 appears to be entirely due to better registration. In the Presidency Division the death-rate from fever in Nuddea has fallen from 29·22 per mille in 1884 and 26·85 in 1885 to 21·99 in 1887. It appears, however, very doubtful whether this is due to anything but defective registration last year. In Tipperah fever was so severe that five hospital assistants were sent to treat cases. The returns, which must be altogether untrustworthy, only show a death-rate of 12·63. In Shahabad there was a decided change for the better, the death-rate having fallen from 29·20 in 1886 to 20·62. The Civil Surgeon is of opinion that the canal irrigation there has intensified pre-existing influences, tending to produce disease.

8. Mortality from other Causes.—The mortality from bowel-complaints, injury and other causes during the year amounted to 56,893, 26,630, and 204,813 against 55,693, 29,081, and 190,818 respectively in 1886. The record of deaths from other causes is not reliable, and depends very much on the practice of the reporting and registering officers. The ratio for the whole province is only 3·09 per mille; but in Banpur rural circle in Pooree district it rose to 30·54 per mille, and the ratio of the Pooree district is 14·72, followed by Backergunge with a ratio of 7·83.

9. Vaccination Operations.—The following table shows the number of primary vaccinations performed in 1887-88 :—

				Total number of operations in 1887-88.
CIRCLES.
Calcutta	9,809
Metropolitan Circles	391,912
Suburbs of Calcutta, including Central
Depôt and Cooly Depôts	8,762
Total of Metropolitan Circles	400,675
Darjeeling	Circle	274,876
Ranchi	"	144,782
• Sonthal Pergunnahs	"	108,940
Eastern Bengal	"	540,487
Orissa	"	84,995
Behar	"	70,344
Total of all Circles				1,624,888

It is very unsatisfactory that while the total number of operations has increased by 108,378 as compared with the previous year, the number of operations in municipal and other areas, not included in the departmental circle, has decreased by 9,140. Dr. Lidderdale's remarks regarding the very useful depôt for bovine lymph in the Suburbs of Calcutta, and the desirability of establishing similar institutions on a smaller scale in large municipalities, such as Patna, Dacca, &c., will be sent to the Municipal Department. It is satisfactory to find that on the whole steady progress is being made, though there is still much opposition in many districts. From Moorshedabad and Beerbhoom it is reported that the long sustained opposition of the Ferazis is being steadily overcome.

10. In the Sonthal Pergunnahs circle the services of the Government vaccinators were dispensed with, and the licensed system was introduced throughout the circle. The number of licensed vaccinators employed throughout the province was increased by 130. The Compulsory Vaccination Act (Act V (B.C.) of 1880) was extended to 40 towns during the year. In a good many places more use might be made of the Act. Thus in Patna the backward state of vaccination is said to be due to the apathy and indifference of the Municipality, as well as to the incompetence of the subordinate vaccination staff. In Motihari again no one was prosecuted up to the close of the year, and only 240 persons were vaccinated out of a population of 10,307. Dr. Lidderdale reports, however, that on the whole progress was made, and that Municipal Commissioners are said to have begun a more active administration of the law—a statement which it is difficult to reconcile with the falling off in the number of operations noted in the previous paragraph. The attention of the Municipal Department will be directed to this part of the report. The decrease in the death-rate of vaccinated areas from .13 in 1882-83 to .04 in 1877-88 contrasts very favourably with that in other areas, where it has varied between .55 in 1884-85 and .16 in 1886-87 and 1887-88.

11. Expenditure on sanitation.—There has been a satisfactory increase in sanitary expenditure, excluding roads, of Rs. 1,04,994, but there are still many towns in which the expenditure under this head is very inadequate, while there were 25 towns in which nothing was spent on original sanitary works. The most unsatisfactory feature of the expenditure is the very small sum allotted to the disposal of the dead, as in some places burial-grounds for Mahomedans are an urgent sanitary want.

12. Sanitary works.—The Bhagulpore water-works progressed satisfactorily. Nothing has been done for the water-supply of the towns on the right bank of the Hooghly from Serampore to Howrah, notwithstanding the conditions on which Howrah was relieved of its police charges. In Hooghly Mr. Toynbee's efforts to get the owners of tanks to come forward and make them over to the District Board for the purpose of being repaired and maintained as a source of drinking water-supply met with no success. In Burdwan Rs. 5,800 were advanced under the Land Improvements Loans Act to some landholders and tenants for cleaning and deepening old and silted up tanks and for excavating new ones. In Dinagepore a large scheme of town drainage was in progress at the expense of the Maharajah of Dinagepore. In Moorshedabad Rs. 1,645 were spent on the Baluchur drainage scheme. In Midnapore Rs. 29,692 were expended on the Surpai drainage works and upwards of Rs. 10,000 on protective embankments. In Howrah the Commissioners spent Rs. 30,000 on a small tramway for the removal of night-soil beyond municipal limits.

13. Extension of sanitary laws.—The Municipal Act III (B.C.) of 1884 was introduced into three towns. The Compulsory Vaccination Act (Act V (B.C.) of 1880) was introduced into 40 municipalities. Act IV (B.C.) of 1865, forbidding inoculation, was extended to 7 thanas in Backergunge and 6 thanas in Gya district. It is now in force throughout Lower Bengal, excepting Chittagong, the greater part of Orissa, and four-and-a-half districts of Behar.

The Local Self Government Act III (B.C.) of 1885 was introduced into 60 districts and is now in force in all but 7 districts.

see that reforms suggested are carried out. When a Sanitary Board has been constituted as directed in the Government of India's Resolution of the 28th July, it will be its first duty to draw up a practicable scheme providing an agency to carry out the reforms on which it may decide. Sir Steuart Bayley has had under consideration various proposals regarding rules to be passed for village sanitation, but he proposes to defer passing orders till he can have the advantage of the suggestions of the Board. The Municipal Department will be asked to consider, in addition to the matters to which their attention has been specially called, the remarks made by the Sanitary Commissioner upon various points noted in the Report connected with sanitation of areas under the Administration of Municipal, District, or Local Boards, and the means of getting better work done under this head by Municipal Boards.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. WARE EDGAR,

Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, DURING THE MONTH OF AUGUST 1888.

THE normal meteorological conditions in Bengal during August resemble those of July to a very great extent, and the south-west monsoon winds continue to blow over the province with almost undiminished force during the greater part of the month, though towards the end of it, or commencement of September, wind velocities begin to fall off. The normal rainfall in August is distinctly, though slightly, smaller than in July, and this would tend to show that the monsoon current even in August commences to weaken. The greater part of the rainfall in Bengal in August is undoubtedly brought up by the Bay of Bengal current, but a considerable part of the rainfall at the western stations of the province is also due to the Bombay branch of the current, which, interacting in these districts with the Bengal branch, causes ascensional air motion, and consequently increased precipitation of rain. The Bay of Bengal branch alone gives the heaviest rainfall to the southern, eastern, and northern districts, but the interaction just mentioned increases the rainfall in the western districts, and thus supplements the action of the Bengal current, and tends to produce greater uniformity of rainfall over the whole province.

The actual amount of rainfall in August will therefore no doubt depend mainly on the strength and volume of the Bay of Bengal monsoon current, the heaviest rainfalls usually occurring in the eastern and northern districts, and the amount slowly diminishing towards the western districts; but the actual distribution will be affected by the causes which have been discussed in the previous monthly summaries. One of the causes which will produce marked variations from the normal distribution of rainfall will be the formation and passage of areas of barometric depression or small cyclonic storms, which bring large amounts of rain to the districts through which they pass. The formation of such storms is a prominent characteristic of many rainy seasons, though they are to a certain extent absent in others; and as the line of country through which they pass varies very considerably, they are prominent causes in modifying the distribution of rain in particular years. A second cause which modifies the normal distribution of the rainfall is the varying strengths of the two currents, and the amount and position of their interaction, and it will be seen that, if from any cause a larger amount of interaction than usual takes place over the western districts of the province, the rainfall will be increased by a corresponding amount.

The normal distribution of rainfall during the month is comparatively simple. The two localities in which rainfall is heaviest, and where the amount exceeds 20 inches, include, first the Chittagong, Noakhally, and Backergunge districts; and second, the Julpigorie, Cooch Behar, and Darjeeling districts. The area which receives a rainfall of between 20 and 15 inches starts from Saugor Island and runs nearly parallel to the sea coast, then turns to the north, runs parallel to the Tipperah and Sylhet hills, and through the centre of the Kungpore district to Kissengunge in the Purneah district. The greater part of Chutia Nagpur, and of South-West, Central, East and North Bengal receives a rainfall of from 12 to 15 inches, while the greater part of Behar receives only from 10 to 12 inches. The central districts of Behar receive the smallest amounts of rain, the average being generally rather less than 10 inches.

Meteorology of the month—At the close of July a feeble low pressure area of only slight importance was lying over West Bengal, the centre of the depression and of the accompanying cyclonic circulation of winds being near Bankura. On August 1st, this small depression had advanced into Behar, and the centre of the wind circulation and of the barometric depression was near Gya, and on the morning of the 2nd the small depression had passed out of the province, and conditions became normal, except that the monsoon current in the Bay was rather more westerly than usual. During the advance of the small depression through the western districts of the province as usual rather heavy rainfall was received, but with its comparative cessation at this time the first important barometric depression of the month was formed at the head of the Bay.

Barometric depression of August 4th to 10th.—On the 4th August a general and rather rapid fall of pressure took place, the fall being largest at Saugor Island, where it amounted to 0.075 inch. These changes accompanied the formation of a slight but distinct barometric depression over the Sunderbuns, the centre of which was to the south-east of Saugor Island, and which was accompanied by a distinct, though feeble, cyclonic circulation of winds. The formation and continued existence of this depression formed the only feature of importance in the meteorology of the first ten days of the month. It continued to be an extremely feeble but remarkably persistent storm, and remained almost unchanged in position and intensity in the north-west angle of the Bay for four days, the centre drifting gradually to the south and south-west of Saugor Island up till the 8th, when the centre was close to the coast, and on the morning of the 9th the centre had advanced inland and was to the south-west of Calcutta. During this day the feeble storm continued to move in a westerly direction, and on the morning of the 10th the centre was in the Singbhoon district of Chutia Nagpur, the centre being near Chyehassa; while generally over the remainder of the province conditions had become of ordinary monsoon character. During the whole of its existence the depression was accompanied by a feeble cyclonic circulation of winds only, which, however, affected the wind directions over a considerable area of the province.

During the existence of this storm at the head of the Bay the indraught towards it and the general cyclonic circulation set up prevented the ordinary monsoon winds from flowing over Bengal, and for the greater part of this period rainfall was rather light and local in the majority of districts. In the case of Orissa, however, and the south-western districts of South-West Bengal, as these districts were under the immediate influence of the depression, rainfall continued general during its formation, and as the depression passed inland, it brought up heavy rainfall to Orissa and parts of South-West Bengal, and particularly to the Balasore district. With the further inland advance of the depression rather heavy rain fell in Chutia Nagpur, and the monsoon current then commenced to spread over Bengal, making conditions again favourable for general rainfall over the whole province.

On the 11th a very rapid fall of pressure took place in South-West Bengal, and another small depression was formed, the centre of which was between Saugor Island and Calcutta, the small storm being accompanied by a very distinct cyclonic circulation of winds. On the 12th the small storm had disappeared, though there was on this day a tendency to the formation of a low-pressure area, accompanied by slight circulation of winds, over the eastern part of South Behar. This very feeble depression gave heavy rain over South-West Bengal. Conditions remained practically unaltered on the 13th, but on the 14th a rapid increase took place in the strength of the westerly component in the wind directions, and the easterly and south-easterly winds which were previously blowing were replaced by westerly and south-westerly winds in all districts, except the extreme east and north of the province. A very rapid increase of pressure also took place in the western and south-western districts, and the area of minimum pressure was transferred to the southern districts of North Bengal, where also there existed a marked tendency to the setting up of a cyclonic circulation of winds. At this period the second barometric depression of the month was formed, which was decidedly important, even though it was formed over the land area and not over the sea as is usually the case.

Barometric depression of August 15th to the 23rd.—This depression was formed over the north of the province by the interaction of two opposing wind systems which was followed by a particularly heavy rain over the north and centre of the province. Pressure also rose rapidly in all except the northern districts, and by the morning of the 15th a distinct barometric depression had formed, accompanied by a fairly complete cyclonic circulation of winds, the centre of the depression being to the south-east of Bhagulpore. On the 16th the depression had moved slowly in a westerly direction, and the centre was to the south or south-south-west of Bhagulpore, and on the 17th it had again moved in a westerly direction, and was lying over the western part of Behar and part of Chutia Nagpur, the centre being not very far from Gya and Hazaribagh, and slightly to the north or north-north-east of the latter station. On the 18th the depression was in Bundelkund, and the centre between Sutna and Nowgong; on the 19th it was in Central India, and the centre was some distance to the south-west of Jhansi; on the 20th it was in Western Rajputana, and the centre was approaching Mount Abu; on the 21st it was approaching the Ruin of Cutch, and on the 22nd the depression filled up rapidly, and by the morning of the 23rd it had completely disappeared. This storm had therefore a life-history of eight days from the 15th to the 23rd, though after the 18th it practically ceased to affect the meteorology of Bengal. The small storm also travelled over a path of 1,200 to 1,300 miles in its westerly advance, and almost throughout its existence it gave rise to heavy rain.

During the existence of the previous small storm in Central and Western India certain changes were taking place at the head of the Bay, which resulted in the formation of by far the most important storm of the month, and which also gave rise in its rear of one of the strongest south-westerly gales that have been felt at the Sandheads and at Saugor Island for many years past. The history of this storm, as given in the weekly reports which have been previously issued, is mainly as follows:—

Cyclonic storm of August 9th to the 29th.—Even on the 17th August there were slight indications of the possible formation of a barometric depression in the north-west angle of the Bay, but these indications had not developed at all on the 18th, and conditions were still of ordinary south-west monsoon character. On the 19th, though pressure was rising over the whole of South-West Bengal, the wind directions showed that there was a small cyclonic circulation of winds or whirl setting up over the Sunderbans, the centre of the circulation being about east or east-south-east of Saugor Island. On the 20th pressure had fallen at the head of the Bay, and the wind circulation became rather more complete, but on this day the centre of the whirl was to the south of Saugor Island. On the 21st the centre of the cyclonic circulation had again shifted back to the east or south-east of Saugor Island, while the depression had increased very slightly in intensity, and on the 22nd the centre of the small storm passed inland and was to the north-east of Saugor Island, and with the advance of the storm centre over the land pressure fell rather rapidly over South-West Bengal. The wind velocities at all stations in the neighbourhood of the depression on this day were very small—thus at Saugor Island a velocity of 19 miles was registered, at Calcutta 9 miles, at Burrisal 5 miles, and at False Point 12 miles. On the 23rd, at 8 A.M., and again in the report for 10 A.M., the centre of the small storm was shown to be close to Calcutta, apparently within a few miles of it, and a little to the south-east, and the barometer had again fallen, making the barometric depression at the centre of the storm considerable. Notwithstanding the considerable depression, the wind velocities at the stations affected by the storm were very small, and thus at Saugor Island there was a wind velocity of only 13 miles, at Calcutta 9 miles, and at Jessore 12 miles, though to the east, west and south of the storm, winds were decidedly strengthening, and moderately strong winds were blowing. In the 24 hours from the 22nd to 8 A.M. of the 23rd, the small storm had apparently moved about 30 or 35 miles in a north-westerly direction, and the storm centre was certainly about 60 or 65 miles inland. Over the whole of South-West Bengal on this day winds were only light to moderate in force, and it appeared as if throughout its existence the storm would only give feeble winds, though the rainfall accompanying it was heavy, and falls of six and seven inches had been reported in Orissa on the morning of the 23rd. At the head of the Bay, it was believed that squally weather only prevailed in connection with the storm, for the storm centre was actually a considerable distance inland, and for certainly a diameter of 120 miles in the centre of the storm only light to moderate winds were blowing. Conditions, however, began to change on the afternoon of the 23rd, and the storm centre commenced to advance more rapidly than hitherto, and by 6 P.M. it was almost to the east of Calcutta, and by 8 P.M. it was slightly to the east-north-east of that station. With the advance of the storm, winds also commenced to increase in force at Saugor Island, though up to about 3 P.M. moderate westerly winds only were blowing. After this time a strong south-westerly gale sprang up, and for some hours it continually increased in strength. As pointed out above, when this south-westerly and south-south-westerly gale sprang up at Saugor Island, the storm centre was at least 60 to 70 miles inland, being near Calcutta, and therefore to the north-north-east of Saugor Island. In other words, it would appear that this south-westerly gale formed no part of the true cyclonic circulation of winds accompanying the storm, but was merely an after-effect produced mainly by the strong indraught towards the storm in its advance over the land, and which south-westerly winds helped to feed the cyclonic circulation, which also at this time increased rapidly in force. That such is the case is clear, for with the centre of the storm to the east of Calcutta a cyclonic circulation of winds could only have given a north-westerly gale at Saugor Island, whereas when the wind direction was west at Saugor Island, the velocity was still light. At what time this south-westerly gale sprang up at sea in connection with the storm it is difficult to say, for the land observations gave no indication of its existence until the storm actually commenced to blow at Saugor Island.

Notwithstanding that the actual storm area was well inland, as the strong south-westerly gale continued to blow at Saugor Island during the evening of the 23rd with unabated force, it was thought desirable to warn the shipping in the port of Calcutta and the river Hooghly of the existence of the stormy weather, and at 1-20 A.M. on the 24th orders were issued to the signal stations in the river and port to hoist No. 10 night warning signal to be followed at daylight by No. 9 danger signal, and these signals were kept hoisted until orders were given at 8 A.M. on the 25th to have them lowered. The southerly gale of wind at Saugor Island continued to increase in force until 5 A.M. of the 24th, when the extremely high wind velocity of 72 miles an hour was recorded, and throughout the 24th, until about 7 A.M. of the 25th, a gale of wind continued to blow, but at that time the weather commenced decidedly to moderate. At Calcutta winds continued light up till about 3 o'clock on the 24th, at which hour the velocity was only 10 miles an hour, from 3 to 4 o'clock it had increased to 20 miles, and from that time it gradually but steadily increased up till 8 o'clock, when it was blowing at 34 miles an hour, but after this time it gradually decreased again.

At 8 A.M. on the morning of the 24th, the centre of the storm was to the north of Calcutta, and at 10 A.M. the centre was nearly over Krishnaghur. The storm had intensified very rapidly during the 24 hours from the 23rd to the 24th, and on the latter day it was a very influential storm with the remarkable difference that, while on the 23rd at all stations within 60 or 70 miles of the centre of the storm, the winds were particularly light, and at some stations it was even calm, on the morning of the 24th there was a very vigorous cyclonic circulation round the centre. The lowest pressures recorded in connection with the storm do not appear to have been coincident with the passage of the centre of the wind circulation, and at Calcutta pressure continued to fall for some time after the wind had gone round to the south-west, the lowest pressure recorded being 29.313 inches at 6 A.M. of the 24th, while at 10 A.M. of the 24th a pressure of 29.354 inches was recorded at Krishnaghur.

The storm continued its slow north-westerly advance, and on the morning of the 25th it was in the Sonthal Pergunnahs district, the centre being to the west of Nya Doomba. On the 26th it advanced into the middle of Behar, and its centre was to the east of Gya and to the south-west of Bhagnulpore, but the storm centre was at a considerable distance from any meteorological observatory; on the 27th the storm was close to Patna, the centre being to the east or north-east of that station, and on the 28th the storm had passed from Bengal into the North-West Provinces, and the centre was to the south of Gorakhpur. Up to the 27th the intensity of the storm had continued to be very considerable, and on this day with its approach towards Patna pressure fell by more than a fifth of an inch, and a pressure of 29.49 inches was reported, but with the advance of the storm into the North-West Provinces the storm rapidly decreased in intensity, and commenced to fill up, and on the morning of the 28th it was a comparatively feeble storm. During the 28th and up to the morning of the 29th, the decrease in intensity continued, and on the latter day the only indication of its existence was a feeble residual cyclonic circulation of winds in Oudh and Rohilkund, while on the 30th it had entirely disappeared. As the storm had formed at the head of the Bay on the morning of the 19th, it had therefore a life-history of eleven days, while the course it travelled over was barely six hundred miles. From the period the 23rd to the 27th, it was a decidedly influential storm accompanied by very strong winds and in its progress it brought up extremely heavy rain, but previous to and after the date mentioned the storm was of little importance. The meteorological conditions of Bengal then continued of fairly normal character up to the last day of the month, but on the 31st again a feeble barometric depression commenced to form in the north of the Bay, accompanied by a distinct cyclonic circulation of winds, though in all cases the wind velocities were light.

In addition to the very stormy weather brought about by the cyclonic storm just described, the rainfall accompanying it was of excessive heaviness, and in the line near the centre of its track a few stations received falls in excess of ten inches within 24 hours, while several received amounts larger than six and seven inches, and falls in excess of four and five inches were very numerous. The following instances will show some of the heaviest falls within 24 hours at stations near the track of the storm:—Mohesreka (Ooolooberia) 15.42 inches, Dum-Dum 12.26 inches, Howrah 11.66 inches, Saugor Island 11.14 inches, Alipore 10.19 inches, Jehanabad 9.05 inches, Gya 7.59 inches, and Rajmehal 7.32 inches. In fact, the heaviness of the falls accompanying the storm was so great that the districts through which it passed generally show a rainfall about ten inches in excess of the normal amounts for the month.

It will thus be seen that the province was subject to the action of one decidedly severe cyclonic storm and of two rather influential barometric depressions, together with two smaller and rather feeble depressions during the month, most of which, however, affected the western districts most severely. Thus the rainfall of all the districts in the province except North Bengal has been in excess of the normal for the month, while in Orissa, South-West Bengal and South Behar, the excess has been particularly large, amounting to between seven and ten inches.

Pressure.—The variations of pressure during the month have been very considerable, and very large changes took place during the passage of the cyclonic storm as previously described. At the beginning of the month there was a slight but distinct excess pressure over the greater part of the province, but the excess was very equally distributed. The effect of the first of the barometric depressions then began to show itself, and pressure became rather largely below the normal in the south-western districts, while at the stations in the north of the province pressure was almost normal. The defective pressure still continued up to about the middle of the month, but with the development of the second depression in the centre of the province, pressure became more largely in defect over this area. For the remainder of the month the pressure distribution was governed by the formation and advance of the cyclonic storm, and at this period in the south-western districts a general defect, extending over some days, of more than a tenth of an inch was reported, but with the inland advance of the storm the defect was transferred to Behar, while finally at the close of the month pressure had become more normal. For the whole month practically it will be seen pressure was below the normal. The general defect over the whole of the province was equal to 0.043 inch, while at Burdwan the defect was 0.068 inch, and at Berhampore 0.062 inch, and, on the other hand, the smallest defects were 0.026 inch at Cuttack and 0.017 inch at Durbhunga. The largest defects are therefore to a great extent in the line taken during the advance of the cyclonic storm. In Assam a general average defect of 0.030 inch was registered.

Temperature.—Has generally continued fairly low throughout the month, and there have been no variations during that period which call for any particular comment. For the whole month the general mean temperature of the province was 0.4° in defect of the normal. All districts show temperature in small defect, except North Behar, where a slight excess of 0.2° was registered. In Assam the mean temperature has been 0.4° in excess of the normal for the month.

Rainfall.—As has previously been explained, conditions have been eminently favourable for rainfall throughout the month, and in all districts, except North Bengal, falls in considerable excess of the normal have been received. In Orissa, South-West Bengal, East Bengal and South Behar, the stations have averaged a rainfall of about 20 inches; in Chutia Nagpur a fall of seventeen and a half inches has been received, while North Behar and North Bengal have received about thirteen and twelve inches respectively. In Orissa the rainfall has been nearly ten inches in excess of the normal fall, and in South-West Bengal and South Behar between seven and eight inches in excess. In East Bengal and Chutia Nagpur the falls have exceeded the normal by about five inches, and in North Behar the excess has been about two inches. Finally, the only district where the falls have been in defect of the normal has been North Bengal, where the defect amounts to nearly two inches.

So heavy has the rainfall in August been that the effect of the serious retardation of the monsoon in June has been more than neutralized, and the monsoon rainfall since the 15th May is now considerably above the normal in all districts, except North Bengal. Compared with the normal value, the rainfall for the present monsoon season has been seven inches in excess in South Behar, seven inches in excess in South-West Bengal, five inches in excess in Chutia Nagpur, two inches in excess in Orissa and East Bengal, and about half an inch in excess in North Behar. As previously stated, North Bengal has been in very considerable defect, the deficiency amounting to about seven inches.

The comparison of the actual rainfall of the various great divisions of the province during August with the normal is most accurately and conveniently shown in the form of a percentage. The figures representing the rainfall for the month calculated in this way are included in the table below under the heading of August. This table really gives a condensed summary of the rainfall statistics of the present year up to date for each meteorological division, the first eight columns giving the actual average rainfalls in each division in each month expressed as a percentage of the normal, while the ninth column gives the actual rainfall for the first eight months of the year expressed as a percentage of the rainfall of the period. The figures 100 in this table will therefore represent a normal fall, above 100 an excess fall, and so on—

Taking up the rainfall data a little more in detail, it will be found that it has varied from 45·8 inches at Cox's Bazar, 30·6 inches at Buxa in the hills in North Bengal, and 28·6 inches at Gya, to about six and five inches at some of the stations in North Behar, the smallest falls generally being received in the last named district and over a considerable area of North Bengal, comprising parts of the Rungpur, Bogra, and Rajshahye districts, and in parts of the Jessore district in South Bengal also.

Compared with the normal fall, parts of the Julpigoree district show falls more than ten inches in defect, and over considerable parts of the Darjeeling, Julpigoree, Kuch Behar, Rungpur and Chumparun districts defects of five inches and upwards are registered. Defects up to five inches are registered over a considerable part of the area represented by the following districts:—Mozufferpore, Durbhungah, Bhagulpur, Purneah, Dinagepur, Bogra, Pubna, Mymensingh and Jessore, while to the west and south of these all districts are in excess. The most marked area of excess is in the track followed by the cyclonic storm, and over a large part of this area excess falls of from 10 to 15 inches and in some cases above 15 inches are recorded, an excess of 18 inches being recorded at Gya, one of 17·3 inches at Oolooberiah, 15·5 inches at Howrah, and 15·2 inches at Kishnaghur.

The actually largest excess falls when compared with the normal are recorded in such districts as Howrah and in Gya, which have received more than double the usual amount, and in Patna and 24-Pergunnah, which have received nearly double the usual amount, while, on the other hand, Chumparun shows a defect of about a third of the normal, and at Julpigoree and Purneah falls of about three-fourths of the normal only have been received.

The following table gives full data for the comparison of the actual and the normal rainfall of the month of August in all districts of the province. The figures are derived from the average and actual rainfall of the rain-recording stations in each district, due allowance or weight being made for the area which each station represents. This gives a more accurate average than the arithmetical means given in the weekly and monthly meteorological tables. The first column gives the normal or average district rainfall as determined from the rainfall observations of the past 15 years. The second column gives the actual district rainfall as determined from the weighted actual rainfalls of the month at the reporting stations in each district. The third column expresses the ratio of the actual district rainfall of the past month to the normal rainfall as a percentage. The fourth column gives the same information as the third column in a slightly different form. It states as a percentage how much the district rainfall of the month varied in excess or defect from the normal rainfall, and is hence the difference between the numbers in the third column and 100:—

CALCUTTA, the 11th September 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-
TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 7TH SEPTEMBER 1888.

At the close of the previous week, a small barometric depression, accompanied by a feeble cyclonic circulation of winds, had formed in the northern part of the Bay. The depression remained, without having changed its position or altered in intensity to any great extent, up till September 3rd, or the third day of the present week, when apparently it slowly filled up and disappeared without passing inland. On the 1st the centre of the feeble whirl was to the east or north-east of False Point, on the following day it was near the coast line between False Point and Balasore, and on the 3rd again it was east of False Point, while on the 4th it had entirely disappeared. Throughout its existence it communicated a distinct cyclonic character to the direction of the winds in the southern districts of the province without affecting their intensity. At the commencement of the week the general pressure distribution differed little from the normal, for the depression in the north-west of the Bay was very feeble. For the first two or three days of the week a gradual rise of pressure continued over the whole Bay, but the rise was least at the east coast stations and the barometer remained relatively low on the Arakan and Burmah coast. Heavy rain then occurred at Chittagong, where 4·74 inches was reported on the 3rd, and the barometer commenced to fall rather rapidly at the eastern stations. On the morning of the 4th conditions had decidedly changed, the centre of lowest pressure being transferred to the north-east of the Bay and to the Orissa coast, while again a distinct wind circulation was set up at the stations in South Bengal and in Orissa, and it is probable on this day that a distinct depression commenced to form in the north of the Bay. On the morning of the 5th conditions had again changed still further, a rapid fall of pressure was reported from south-east Bengal, and distinctly low pressures were reported from the east of the Bay. A rapid change had also taken place in the wind systems in Bengal, and generally a northerly and north-westerly current was reported over the whole province. This appeared to show that the small depression in the Bay was intensifying considerably, though still winds to the south of it were light in force. On the morning of the 6th again the depression showed signs of having developed distinctly, and that it was drifting towards the Orissa Coast; for while a rapid rise of pressure, in some cases amounting to a tenth of an inch, had taken place at the eastern stations, on the Orissa coast pressure commenced to fall. Winds over the whole of Bengal on this day also formed part of a perfectly developed cyclonic circulation, the centre of which was off the Orissa coast. At the same time also winds in the rear of the depression strengthened, and at Diamond Island fairly strong winds were reported. These conditions appeared to show that the depression in the Bay had decidedly developed, and it was thought advisable to hoist the appropriate signal denoting the advance of a small cyclonic storm to the Orissa coast, and at 9-30 A.M. on the 6th, No. 5 signal was ordered to be hoisted in the river approaches to Calcutta and in the port, while also the ports on the Orissa coast were warned. Subsequently it was reported from Balasore that a small cyclonic storm passed over that station. Considering, however, the very distinct indications previously given of this storm, its intensity when it reached the land was decidedly small. As the small storm had passed inland on Thursday, the 6th, the bad weather signals were lowered on Friday morning at 5 A.M., and at 10 A.M. on the 7th the centre of the small storm was in the south-west of Chutia Nagpur. The weather that followed over Bengal was of the ordinary monsoon character; small changes of pressures occurred irregularly along the Orissa coast, and moderate differences of pressure were again reported over the Bay, indicating the continued flow of the south-west monsoon over the province.

Pressure.—Has been uniformly high over the whole province throughout the week, the only place having a mean pressure below the normal being Chittagong. At the beginning of the week the pressure was nearly normal over the Bay, but on the following four days there was a steady increase over the province and Bay, which was partly compensated for during the last three days by small and irregular falls. In the middle of the week the barometer fell very rapidly on the Chittagong coast, and rose there again rapidly on the 6th and 7th. At the following stations the mean pressure was more than a twentieth of an inch above the normal:—Balasore, Midnapore, Furreedpore, Durbhunga, and most of the stations in Behar. For the whole province of Bengal, the mean pressure of the week has been 0·035 inch in excess of the normal, while in Assam pressure has been 0·024 inch in excess.

Temperature.—As the rainfall during the week has been rather lighter than usual, temperature has in some districts been slightly above the normal, though in others it has been below it, and for the whole province the mean temperature has been almost absolutely normal. The largest excess pressures have been from one to one-and-a-half degrees in East and North Bengal, while, on the other hand, North Behar shows a defect of a degree. In Assam the very considerable excess temperature of 1° is reported.

Rainfall.—Fairly general rain was reported over the whole province on the first day of the week, but during the existence of the feeble storm in the north of the Bay there was a partial break, and from the 2nd to the 5th inclusive, rainfall was decidedly lighter than it had been, and it was also very local, some districts receiving practically no rain. When over Orissa, general and rather heavy rain again set in over the province, and on the last two days of the week almost every station in the province reported rainfall. For the whole week the rainfall in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur has been decidedly above the normal, but elsewhere it has been below it. South Behar has received a general fall of a little more than three inches, or nearly an inch in excess of the usual amount. Chutia Nagpur has also received a fall of three inches, or about half an inch in excess. In South-west Bengal, East Bengal, and North Behar the falls have averaged between two and three inches, the falls in the three districts being a little more than half an inch in defect, and North Bengal and Orissa have received the smallest falls of about one-and-a-half and two inches. The fall in Orissa is about half an inch smaller than usual, while in North Bengal the fall is no less than about two-and-a-half inches in defect, the actual only equalling 40 per cent. of the usual fall.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 7th of September 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h, and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

THE mortuary returns of the districts in Bengal (excluding Manika and Hossinabad thanas in Lohardugga, from which no return has yet been received) for the month of May 1888 furnish the following results :—

1. That 116,548 persons died among a population of 66,014,376, representing a casualty rate of 21·12 per 1,000 per annum against 23·88 per 1,000 in the preceding month, and 25·44 per 1,000 during the corresponding month of the past year, indicating, as compared with both the periods (especially with the latter), a large decrease in mortality.

2. That the undermentioned districts returned the highest proportions of deaths :—

Districts.	Ratio per mille.	Districts.	Ratio per mille.
Darjiling	66·76	Monghyr	27·36
Julpaiguri	33·36	Rajshahye	27·00

Manbhium	29·16	Durbhanga	26·16
Hazaribagh	28·20	Maldah	25·08
Backerganj	27·36	Rungpore	25·20

3. That the following diseases proved fatal at the rates noted below :—

	Ratio per mille during—
	May 1888.	May 1887.
Cholera	2·52	6·88
Small-pox	·12	·12
Fever	14·16	15·36
Bowel-complaints	·72	·84
Injury	·36	·36
Other causes	3·00	2·64

indicating chiefly, in comparison with the results of the corresponding month of the preceding year, a considerable decrease of mortality from cholera and fever, particularly from the former.

4. That cholera and fever exhibited greatest activity in the following districts :—

General remarks on the fluctuation of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during month ended 28th July 1888.

INCREASES.

Iron.—This increase is due chiefly to despatches of first-class iron and machinery to the Cawnpore Mills from Howrah.

Oil.—As reported in previous months, the increase under this head was chiefly in kerosine oil from Howrah.

Stones.—Due to despatches of stone fencing posts from Mirzapore, Pahara, and Chunar for the Assam-Bihar State Railway.

Bones.—This is due to the same reason as stated in my remarks for June last, viz. demands at the crushing mills near Calcutta.

DECREASES.

Coal and coke.—There has been a decrease in the upward and an increase in the downward coal and coke traffic; the former was due to smaller demands from the ice factory and other mills at Allahabad and Cawnpore, and the latter to heavy despatches from Sitarampore, Burrakur, and Giridih to the Eastern Bengal State Railway and to Howrah.

Cotton.—This is attributable to failure of crops as stated in previous months.

Wheat.—Due to low prices ruling at the home markets during the period under review.

Piece-goods, European.—This decrease may be ascribed to the up-country markets being over stocked.

Gunny.—This decrease naturally follows the decrease in wheat and seeds.

Gram and pulses.—The falling off in these staples was principally at Cawnpore and stations nearer to Cawnpore, and also at Monghyr, Kajra, and Barhee, and may be attributed to absence of demand.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—This decrease was at almost all the stations on the loop line, and was due to limited demand from Patna and stations above.

Other grain and spring crops.—The falling off under this head was chiefly at stations on the Dinapore and Allahabad districts, and was due to scanty crop.

Government Stores.—Due to heavy despatches last year from Howrah to Ferozapore and Rawalpiindi.

Skins.—This falling off is ascribed to the dull state of the market.

Brass and copper.—Despatches are still restricted owing to high prices being maintained.

Railway material, Foreign.—Due to smaller despatches from Howrah owing to the completion of foreign railways.

Salt.—This may be attributed to large stocks being held at the large salt centres up-country.

Seeds.—Due to an unsatisfactory demand for shipment during the month.

For dutiable goods they shall be in triplicate, printed in black, blue and red, with the word DUTIABLE printed across in large type in red ink.

8. Free cargo may be shipped at any time, day or night, except on Sundays or holidays, without special permission or supervision: Provided that no goods shall be shipped at night without supervision, except such as have been water-borne for shipment during ordinary working hours.

9. Dutiable goods shall not be shipped except under customs supervision. The original shipping bill shall be filed at the Custom House, and the duplicate shall accompany the goods on board. The triplicate shall be retained by the officer supervising the shipment either at the wharf or on board, who after endorsing upon it the particulars of the goods actually received on board, shall return it to the Custom House for use in checking the vessel's export general manifest, as provided below, rule 13.

10. The agents shall cause similar endorsements to be made upon the duplicate shipping bills both for free and for dutiable goods. Those for dutiable goods shall accompany the vessel; those for free goods shall be retained by the agents for presentation with the export manifest.

11. Port clearance must be applied for during office hours unless otherwise directed by the chief customs officer, and at least four hours before the departure of the vessel, and must be sent on board before she actually leaves the port.

12. The export manifest shall be in the same form as is prescribed for the cargo book by rule 4. It must be put in by the agents within five clear working days from the date of port clearance, and must be accompanied by a duplicate prepared in separate parts—one for each port for which goods have been shipped, and by the duplicate shipping bills for free goods endorsed with particulars of actual shipments as required by rule 10.

13. After the original and duplicate have been compared and checked with the triplicate shipping bills for dutiable goods, and the duplicate shipping bills for free goods, one copy of the different parts of the manifest shall be sent by post, together with the corresponding duplicate or triplicate shipping bills, as the case may be, to the customs collector at the ports to which they respectively relate, and the original export manifests shall be retained for use in conjunction with the original shipping bills in recording exports statistics.

ENTRY AND DISCHARGE.

14. Within 24 hours after arrival in any customs port, terminal or intermediate, a duly authenticated extract from the cargo book kept on board as required by rule 4, showing all cargo, free or dutiable, to be discharged, whether for landing or transshipment at that port, shall be presented at the Custom House, together with the duplicate shipping bills referred to in rule 9 for all dutiable cargo comprised in the extract which may have been shipped at customs ports.

NOTE.—The form of the extract may be modified by the substitution of columns for record of presentation of bill of entry and final clearance of dutiable goods, for column 7 and onward in the form of cargo book.

15. At ports where the cargo is to be discharged direct on to a wharf, a duplicate of the extract from the cargo book shall be furnished for use in checking the cargo as it is landed. When the cargo has to be discharged into boats, the duplicate copy may be dispensed with, but a boat-note showing clearly all particulars necessary to the identification of the packages, and signed by a responsible officer of the ship, shall accompany each boat-load ashore:

Provided that at ports of call where the extract from the cargo book to be put in under rule 14, or a list of the cargo is handed to the customs officer on board, or accompanies the goods ashore, no boat-notes or duplicate extract from the cargo book need be insisted upon.

16. Discharge may be commenced as soon as the vessel drops anchor; when free cargo may be landed at any time, day or night, without special per-any customs port which was transhipped from a foreign port, shall be discharged except under the written authority of the proper officer of customs.

17. These bills of entry shall be in the usual form for goods imported by foreign-going vessels, and shall be granted upon the extract from the cargo book filed at the Custom House as required by rule 14, after check, if the goods are said to have come from a customs port, with the shipping bills filed with the extract.

NOTE.—See note to rule 14.

18. The agents of the vessel shall be bound to account, on being called upon to do so, for all discrepancies both as to free and as to dutiable cargo, and to make all amendments necessary to secure the correctness of the documents put in by them.

19. The agents shall further be bound to undertake that, when the vessel touches at any foreign port in the course of any coasting voyage, a certificate under the signature of the chief officer of customs at such port, shall be despatched within 48 hours of her departure to the customs collector of every customs port for which she has taken in cargo at such foreign port, giving number and description of packages, numbers and marks they bear, and a general description of their contents.

They shall also be bound to furnish to the chief customs officer of any customs port from which any goods may have been shipped under bond for customs or excise duty, or under claim for drawback, for any foreign port, a certificate from the chief customs officer of the said foreign port showing particulars of discharge of such goods.

TRANSHIPMENT.

20. Goods for transhipment shall be dealt with as provided in the rules laid down by notification of the Government of Bengal, dated the 26th November 1883, and the notice of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, dated the 27th June 1882.

STORES.

21. No stores shall be landed, transhipped, unladen, shipped, or waterborne for shipment without the written authority of the proper officer of customs.

PASSENGERS' BAGGAGE.

22. Passengers' baggage may be shipped and discharged at any time without supervision or restriction except as regards baggage shipped at foreign ports. It will be the duty of the master to enter all such baggage in his cargo book and extracts therefrom to be presented under rule 14, and to see that no such baggage is landed out of hours at any customs port unless it has been passed by a customs officer on board.

Rule 2.—Meetings shall be either ordinary or special.

Rule 3.—An ordinary meeting of the Local Board shall be held on the last Saturday of every month provided that, if the last Saturday of any month falls on a gazetted holiday, or if for any other reason it is deemed inconvenient, the Chairman may fix another day for the ordinary meeting of the Board.

Rule 4.—A special meeting of the Local Board may be called at any time by the Chairman. The Chairman shall be bound to call a special meeting on a requisition signed by one-third of the total number of members.

Rule 5.—The subjects referred to in rule 65 of Part IV of the General Rules, and in section 29 of the Act shall be dealt with at special meetings only.

Rule 6.—All other subjects which come within the province of the Local Board may be dealt with at either ordinary or special meetings.

Rule 7.—Meetings shall be held at the office of the Local Board, or at such a place as the Chairman may from time to time determine on sufficient grounds to be recorded by him.

But when allotments for original works and repairs are made, in addition to the notices to the members notices should be posted in the office of the Local Board, and also in the public offices in the sub-division, for the information of the public, so that they may send applications in time for the consideration of the Local Board.

Rule 29.—The mover of a motion or amendment shall in all cases have a right of reply; but otherwise no member shall speak more than once on the same motion or amendment, unless in explanation of some part of his original speech.

Miscellaneous.

Rule 30.—Unless not less than two-thirds of the members of the Board consent by signing a requisition, no subject once finally disposed of by the Board can be reconsidered within six months.

Rule 32.—For the purpose of taking into consideration business involving many details, the meeting may resolve itself into a Committee of the whole body. When this has been determined on, the rule prohibiting any person from speaking more than once on the same question shall be deemed suspended until the meeting resumes.

Rule 33.—When a motion or amendment is put to the vote, the President or Secretary shall record against it, first, the names of members voting for it, and then the names of those voting against it.

IRRIGATION OPERATIONS IN BENGAL FOR RABI, 1887-88.

Dated Calcutta, the 18th September 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Statements I, II, III.

Observations.—The area irrigated during the rabi season of 1887-88 was 61,658 acres against 49,381 acres in 1886-87, showing an increase of 24·8 per cent.

2. In Midnapore no canal irrigation of rabi takes place owing to the insufficiency of the water supply during the rabi season. In this district, as in Hooghly, Cuttack, and Balasore, the area under rabi cultivation is insignificant.

3. The increase noted in paragraph 1 occurs almost entirely in the districts irrigated by the Sone canals, the return from Gya alone showing a trifling decrease. The Sarun canals also show an improvement. These better results were due to the short rainfall in the four Behar districts where irrigation takes place.

1922 SUPPLEMENT TO THE CALCUTTA GAZETTE, SEPTEMBER-19, 1888.

4. In the table below a comparison by canals is made of the rabi areas irrigated during the seasons of 1886-87 and 1887-88:—

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution with copy of statements Nos. I, II, and III be forwarded to the Government of India, in the Public Works Department, for information. Also that copies be forwarded to the Commissioners of the Orissa, Burdwan, and Patna Divisions; the Collectors of Cuttack, Midnapore, Patna, Shahabad, Gya, and Sarun; the Superintending Engineers of the Orissa, South-Western, and Sone Circles; and the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Bengal, for information.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.
The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

CALCUTTA, the 18th September 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-
TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 14TH OF SEPTEMBER 1888.

TOWARDS the close of the preceding week the meteorological conditions of the Bay and the province became of ordinary light south-west monsoon character, the centre of lowest pressure being rapidly transferred from Orissa to the west of Chutia Nagpur. With the beginning of the present week the barometric pressure began to fall slightly at the western stations, but much more rapidly in East and North Bengal, and along the east coast of the Bay, more especially at the southern stations of Burmah, a fall of nearly a tenth of an inch being reported from Tavoy. With those changes pressure became very uniform over the Bay, and to a great extent over Bengal also. The winds continued light and generally southerly. The reports received on Monday showed that the fall of pressure on the Burmah coast had continued, but not with such rapidity as on the previous day, while there was an increase of pressure in the north of the Bay, causing pressure to become still more uniform.

The wind directions assumed a suspicious appearance which, with the continued fall of pressure on the Burmah coast, pointed to the possible commencement of a depression off the South Burmah coast, though it was not sufficiently intense to give other indications.

During Monday changes of the same nature continued, pressure diminishing on the east and increasing on the west coast, and on the Tuesday morning pressure was distinctly low over the south of Burmah. The winds retained their ordinary monsoon directions, except on the Burmah coast, where the slight indraught to a centre near Tavoy still continued. During Tuesday the relative circumstances were still of the nature of the preceding days, the reports on Wednesday morning showing only that a slight fall had taken place over the whole of the Bay, and Chittagong became the region of highest pressure. The weather was then fine over South Bengal and the Bay. The reports received on Thursday morning, the 13th, showed that rapid changes had begun. The fall of the barometer on the Burmah coast, which had been continuous, but usually slow, from the previous Saturday, became much more rapid, a fall of nearly three-twentieths of an inch being reported from Tavoy, Moulmein, and Rangoon. The set of the winds to a centre between the Andamans and the main land, or perhaps to the east of Tavoy or in the Gulf of Siam, continued, though the intensity remained slight, as it had been throughout the previous four days. The development of the storm, which had been going on steadily from Saturday, the first day of the present week, now became much more rapid, and during the twenty-four hours between 8 A.M. on Thursday and 8 A.M. on Friday very rapid changes appeared.

The storm centre, which apparently had been stationary or moving slowly, then started into rapid motion, but the north-westerly direction it was moving in carried it over the Bassein hills, where its motion was for a time retarded and its further development was partly prevented. Its intensity was, however, sufficient to enable it to surmount the hills, and shortly after 8 A.M. on Friday the centre left the land and began crossing the Bay in a west-north-westerly direction. The barometer fell with extreme rapidity at Diamond Island when the storm centre was passing near that station, a fall of a quarter of an inch being reported. At 8 A.M. on Friday falls were also reported from all stations except those on the South Burmah coast, where pressure was rising rapidly. The storm centre thus appears to have passed to the west of Rangoon or near Bassein on the early morning of the 14th instant. During the progress of the storm the ports in Burmah were warned of the advance and probable path of the storm. Heavy rain fell in connection with the storm, Diamond Island receiving nearly four inches from the 13th to the 14th. Moulmein also reported a gale of wind, and at Rangoon the wind velocity was 34 miles an hour at 8 A.M. on the 14th. Indraught towards the storm area was going on all round the Bay, the general wind direction being north-westerly. On leaving the coast the storm again began to move with great rapidity, probably crossing half way to the Orissa coast during the following 24 hours.

Pressure—At the commencement of the week was at all stations considerably above the normal, at only a few the variation being less than a tenth of an inch. During Saturday, at nearly all stations, small falls took place; but during Sunday and Monday the barometer again rose, so that the pressures reported on Monday, the 11th, showed a variation from the mean greater than it was at the beginning of the week. The reduced pressures, however, showed great uniformity. A fall set in on Tuesday and continued on Wednesday, though the pressure remained above the normal. The rapid fall which took place during Thursday brought the pressure recorded on Friday morning below the normal, the fall at most stations being for the three days about three-twentieths of an inch. The Behar stations only still reported pressure slightly in excess. As previously described, throughout the week the barometer was falling on the south coast of Burmah, slowly in the early part of the week, rapidly afterwards in consequence of the formation of the cyclonic storm, and at the end of the week the existence of the storm governed the pressure distribution of the whole of Bengal and of the Bay. For the whole of Bengal the mean pressure for the week has been 0.063 inch in excess of the normal, while in Assam the excess has been 0.068 inch.

Temperature—During the week has varied very slightly from the normal. In the early part, small changes were reported, and a slight defect at most of the stations. In Orissa, there was an excess of about 2°, and in Behar and North Bengal a defect of about 2°. In South-West Bengal this excess continued almost to the end of the week, but from Tuesday, the 11th, temperature rose, and became slightly in excess of the normal at the other stations till Thursday, when again a small defect was reported. Towards the end of the week, the temperature kept varying by very small amounts above and below the normal, at the majority of stations. For the whole week the mean temperature of the province has been only a tenth of a degree below the normal, while in Assam the defect has been equal to half a degree.

Winds—At the head of the Bay were decidedly strong during the first three days of the week, but at most of the other stations they were light and variable, though with a south or south-easterly tendency. On the 10th, the strong winds at the head of the Bay decidedly fell off. Irregular winds set in on the 11th, with a northerly tendency, over the east and south of the province. Afterwards, though the winds remained light, the direction became more generally northerly till the close of the week.

Rainfall.—With the partial cessation of the monsoon current blowing over the province, there has been a slight, but distinct, break of the rains in certain districts, and thus rainfall has been in defect in all districts except in North Behar. In Orissa and Chutia Nagpur the defect from the normal has been between one-and-a-half and two inches. Orissa has indeed only received a few local showers about the middle of the week. The rainfall over the province has also been very irregular; very heavy falls of over five inches were reported on Sunday from Mymensingh and Dhubri, but the amounts and the number of showers fell off very rapidly, more particularly in the western districts, and rain became almost completely absent from Orissa and South-West Bengal from the middle to the end of the week. In the middle of the week, local showers were falling in most districts, but latterly a decided break of rains set in, and the last two or three days were practically rainless. Falls of about two to two-and-a-half inches during the week have been reported in East and North Bengal and Behar, and falls of from one to two inches only in Orissa, South-West Bengal and Chutia Nagpur. The only district where the fall has been nearly normal is Behar, considerable defects being reported in South-West, East and North Bengal, and very large defects in Orissa and Chutia Nagpur.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 14th of September 1888 :—

MEMORANDUM.

THE leading facts in connection with the mortuary statistics of the districts in Bengal for the month of June 1888 are the following :—

1. That the deaths of 105,463 persons were registered out of a population of 66,163,884 in these districts, or at the rate of 19·08 per 1,000 per annum, against 21·12 per 1,000 in the preceding month, and 20·40 per 1,000 in the corresponding month of 1887, indicating, as compared with both the periods, a falling off in the number of deaths registered.

2. That the highest death-rates were reported to have occurred in the following districts :—

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—BENGAL.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION—No. 331.

The 25th September 1888.

THE subjoined annual accounts and report of the Road Cess Committee of the district of the Southal Pergunnahs for the year 1887-88, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Bhagulpore Division, are published for general information.

W. CONNAN,

Offg. Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. Dept.

No. 59P.W., dated Dumka, the 11th July 1888.

From—R. CARSTAIRS, Esq., Deputy Commissioner, Southal Pergunnahs,

To—The Commissioner of the Bhagulpore Division and Southal Pergunnahs.

I HAVE the honour to submit my annual report on the working of road works in Southalia for the year ending 31st March last.

2. Southal Pergunnahs is a non-cess district. The Local Self-Government Act has not been brought in force here, and this accounts for there being no District Board. Its power, however, in respect to district works is exercised by myself.

3. Original works done during the year are as follow:—

- (a) Construction of a bund across the Ranibahal stream, 86th mile, road No. 1, Bhagulpore and Suri road, and provision of escape bridges and channels at both ends.
- (b) Construction of a stone causeway about 150 feet long across the Bilkee stream, 89th mile, Bhagulpore and Suri road.
- (c) Bunding up Masoujore stream, 83rd mile, Bhagulpore and Suri Road, and providing escape bridges and channels at both ends.
- (d) Construction of a bund across the Huripur nala, 28th mile, road No. 2, Dumka and Rampur Hât road, comparatively a more considerable stream, with escape bridges and channels at both ends.
- (e) Dismantling a timber bridge over the Jumunjore stream, 1st mile, Deoghur to Saruth road, superstructure thereof being replaced by four rubble arches of 15 feet span, and doing masonry parapets and other requisites.

4. We have been able hitherto to do a few original works every year, but with yearly increase to length of our roads, this is no longer possible. We want a series of masonry bridges. We want many new roads. A decent maintenance of our roads, nearly 700 miles, takes up almost all our limited money, and we are at a loss what to do in respect of many urgent works of construction and improvement. Economy we have effected to its utmost stretch, and no more is possible. We could do more with an income of Rs. 50,000. It is to be borne in mind that Southalia is one of the largest districts in Bengal, and our income of Rs. 34,000 a year is not enough, especially as increasing of maintenance traffic adds to the cost.

5. Repair Works.—We have been able to keep somehow in fairly good repairs almost all the roads borne in the district list. But the work is rough and necessarily unequal, depending on the soil. In the alluvial land to the east, it is bad. During the year the roads from Dumka to Pakour, Dumka to Jamtara via Kundahit, and Dumka to Madhupur via Saruth, have been partially improved. These, however, want much more done to them before they are passable all the year round. The three village roads in the district have been kept in fairly good condition. The zemindar of Belpatta, as before, kept the road to Kumirabad in order.

6. Staging and inspection bungalows underwent partial repairs, which was all we could afford. They require many improvements, but funds always fail.

7. Arboriculture has been as before carefully attended to. Our road-side plants which we began regularly planting in some eight years ago, now amount to about 28,000, mostly mango. May of them flowered during the year, and some bore fruits. We shall not, I fear, be able to extend further our plantations on account of shortness of funds.

8. The work of the staff has been fair, except that of the Sub-Overseer of Borio, which was not good. The District Engineer, Baboo A. K. Mitra, has, as before, been energetic and capable. I think, however, he has been tempted to stretch economy too far and to undertake more than he could perform.

No. 88P.W., dated Bhagulpore, the 3rd August 1888.

From—J. BEAMES, Esq., Commissioner of the Bhagulpore Division and Sonthal Pergunnahs,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the annual accounts and report on the road works of the Sonthal Pergunnahs for the year ending 31st March 1888.

2. The Sonthal Pergunnah is a non-cess district, and the Local Self-Government Act is not in force there.

3. The original works executed during the year are enumerated in paragraph 3 of the Deputy Commissioner's report. They consist chiefly of projects for improving the means of crossing small streams. In three cases this has been effected by throwing a bund across the stream, and this, besides providing a road, also retains a useful supply of water for irrigation or other purposes. The expenditure on original works was Rs. 4,491, or 10 per cent. of the total expenditure of the year.

4. The repairs executed are reported to have kept the roads in fairly good order, and the roads which I personally inspected on my tour were very good indeed. The aggregate length of roads in the district is about 700 miles, and of these 565 miles were under repair. The expenditure was Rs. 23,500, or 52·6 per cent. of the total expenditure of the year. The average cost per mile of road repaired was Rs. 41·6. This is exclusive of repairs executed from the Government Estates Improvement Fund.

5. The expenditure on Public Works, exclusive of establishment, was Rs. 30,644, and the cost of establishment was Rs. 6,515, or 21·2 per cent of the outlay on works.

6. The amounts outstanding in the suspense account are in some cases exceptionally high, and steps are being taken to get them reduced if possible.

7. The estimates for the following works will be submitted to Government as soon as received:—

- (a) For constructing a bund across the Maasajore stream.
- (b) For constructing a bund across the Ranibahal stream.
- (c) For constructing a bund across the Huripur-nala.

8. The Deputy Commissioner complains of the inefficiency of the funds at his disposal to meet the wants of the district, and it may be observed that if the outlay on original works be any guide as to the improvement of the district, very little progress in this direction was possible during the year. At the same time so much of the district consists of uplands with a surface of rock or gravel, that communication is often comparatively easy where no regular roads have been made. The district is therefore for practical purposes better off than it appears on paper.

For the purposes of this section, a livery stable-keeper shall be deemed to be the owner or to be in charge of every animal in his stables.

79. 81. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with livery stable-keepers and other persons keeping carriages for hire, or animals for sale or hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages or animals so kept by such persons in lieu of the taxes prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

82. The provisions of section eighty shall apply to any person who, having compounded for the payment of a certain sum under the last preceding section, refuses or neglects to pay such sum; the amount due for a license being taken as the amount thus compounded for.

86. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, cause to be prepared and entered in distinct columns in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners and to be open to the inspection of any person who shall apply for leave to inspect the same, a list of the persons to whom during the then current period of six months a license has been granted under section seventy-nine and of the carriages and animals in respect of which the same has been granted.

87. Every person who shall exercise in Calcutta any of the professions, trades or callings prescribed in the Second Schedule, shall annually take out a license, and shall pay for the same such sum as is in the Second Schedule mentioned.

87. Every person who shall exercise in Calcutta any of the professions, trades or callings prescribed in the Second Schedule, shall annually take out a license, and shall pay for the same such sum as is in the Second Schedule mentioned.

The Commissioners may in their discretion remit, or refund, any portion of the sum so payable if they are satisfied that any such person has exercised any such profession, trade, or calling for a portion of the year only.

They may also reduce any person from a higher to a lower class, or exempt any person altogether on the ground of his inability to take out such license.

88. The license mentioned in the last preceding section shall be granted by the Commissioners, and shall specify—

And such fine shall, when levied, be taken in full satisfaction of the demand on account of such license.

91. The Commissioners may, by a notice in writing, require the occupier of any house to forward to them within seven days a list, signed by him, of the names of all male persons residing or carrying on any trade, profession, on calling, in such house, and of their respective professions, trades, and occupations.

92. Whoever, being the occupier of any house, fails to forward such list when required to do so under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

The Lighting Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the lighting-rate, with the receipts, if any, arising out of the sale of gas or electricity, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the lighting of the town.

It shall be debited with—

(a).—The annual interest on all sums which may hereafter be borrowed for the construction of gas-works or for supplying electricity for the lighting of Calcutta.

(b).—The annual contributions to the Reserve Fund for the future repayment of such sums.

(c).—All expenditure necessary for the efficient lighting of the town by gas, oil, electricity, or any other means.

(d).—The establishments and miscellaneous expenditure necessary for the purposes specified in clause (c).

(e).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, direct.

104. The sewage rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the Sewage Fund.

The Sewage Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the sewage rate, with the proceeds, if any, arising from the sale of night-soil, the receipts from licenses under section three hundred and eleven, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the working of the Night-soil Removal Department.

It shall be debited with—

(a).—The cost of the establishments maintained under section three hundred and thirteen.

(b).—The cost of maintenance of all public latrines and urinals and of the establishments for their cleansing.

(c).—Such proportionate share of the cost of inspecting, maintaining, and cleansing the public sewers as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.

(d).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.

105. The general rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the General Fund.

The General Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the general rate, with all moneys paid to the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than those moneys received by the Commissioners as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time direct to be credited to the General Fund.

It shall be debited with all expenditure incurred in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than that debitable to the Water-supply Fund, Lighting Fund or Sewage Fund, and with all other expenditure that may be lawfully incurred by the Commissioners which the Commissioners in meeting shall direct to be debited to the General Fund:

Provided that, when any of the other rates are levied at a maximum, but not otherwise, grants may be made by the Commissioners in meeting in aid of any fund dependent on such rate if the receipts of the Fund fall short of the requisite disbursements.

106. These four rates, after having been fixed under section seventy-one of this Act, shall be levied as one consolidated rate, and the collections made on account of this rate shall be divided between the General Fund, the Water-supply Fund, the Lighting Fund and the Sewage Fund in the proportions at which the rates are being levied for the time being without reference to the year on account of which each payment is made.

Such deduction shall, however, be made from the proportion to be credited to the Water-supply Fund as may seem to the Commissioners in meeting to be approximately equivalent to the diminished productiveness of that rate, owing to the partial exemption of certain premises under clause (b) of section one hundred and one.

107. The consolidated rate shall be payable half by the owners of the houses and lands, and half by the occupiers thereof.

It shall be payable on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of October and first day of January for the quarters, respectively, commencing on those dates.

PART II.—Of the Owner's share of the Consolidated Rate.

108. If the annual value of any house or land as determined under Chapter V shall in any case exceed the amount of rent payable to the owner, the owner may in such case recover from the person who pays him rent the difference between the sum assessed upon him as the owner's share of the consolidated rate and the sum at which he would have been assessed had the house been valued only at the amount of rent actually payable to him, and such difference shall be added to the rent and shall be recovered by the owner from the person liable for the payment thereof.

109. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V has been vacant for sixty consecutive days during any year, the person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate shall, if notice in writing be given to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant, be liable to pay only one-fourth of the consolivacancy—the period of vacancy being calculated from the date on which the notice is delivered; if more than one-fourth of the consolidated rate has been paid in advance, the surplus shall, on demand, be refunded.

110. No refund shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same shall be applied for within six months from the date of vacancy of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

PART III.—Of the Occupier's share of the Consolidated Rate.

111. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V is vacant, the person liable to pay the occupier's share of the rate up to the period of such vacancy shall, if he has paid for the whole quarter, be entitled to a refund of all the rate paid by him for the period during which the house is vacant, or for the period during which it may have been occupied by a new occupier, if notice shall have been given in writing to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant; and the date of vacancy shall be calculated from the date of delivery of such notice at the office of the Commissioners.

112. No refund of rates shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same is applied for within six months from the date of cessation of occupation of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

113. Whenever any house or land which shall have been unoccupied shall be occupied during any quarter, there shall be forthwith payable in respect of such house or land the full occupier's share of the consolidated rate for the period between the date of occupation and the last day of the quarter.

114. Whenever any person holding any house or land at a rent from the person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate in respect of such house or land has or may sub-let the same to different persons holding in severalty, the person so holding shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the occupier of such house or land.

115. If any house is occupied by more than one person holding in severalty, or is valued at less than Rs. 200, the Commissioners may impose the entire consolidated rate upon the owner of such house.

116. If the entire rate is paid by the owner of any house under the last preceding section, such owner may, if there be but one occupier of the house, recover from such occupier half of the rate so paid by such owner; and if there be more than one occupier, he may recover from each occupier half of such sum as shall bear to the entire amount of rate so paid by him the same proportion as the value of the portion of the house in the occupation of such person bears to the entire value of such

117. The entire consolidated rate imposed upon bustee land and the huts built thereon shall, after deducting therefrom a sum equal to one-eighth of such rates, be paid by the owner of such land. The sum deducted shall be retained by the owner of the land as a set off against the expenses which may be incurred in collecting the portion of the rate recoverable from the occupiers of the land or the owner or occupiers of huts built thereon, under the provisions of the next succeeding section, and as a commutation of all refunds in respect of huts which are vacant or which may be removed or destroyed during the continuance of the period for which the rate is imposed :

Provided that no additional rates shall be imposed on account of any new huts built or of any huts enlarged during the year for which the valuation remains in force, under the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-four.

118. Whenever a rate is imposed on bustee lands, the Commissioners shall cause the land and the huts standing on it to be separately valued, and the owner of the land may recover from the owner of each hut half the consolidated rate paid by him for the land on which the hut stands, and the entire consolidated rate payable on account of the hut.

119. Every owner who, under the provisions of sections one hundred and sixteen and the last preceding section, may be entitled to recover any sum from the occupier of any house or of any portion thereof, or from the owner of any hut, shall have for the recovery of such sum all such and the same remedies, powers, rights, and authorities as if such sum were rent payable to him.

120. The Commissioners may by a notice in writing require the occupier of any house or land to furnish them, within fifteen days, with the name and address of the owner of such house or land, and such name and address, when so received, shall be registered provisionally in the assessment book kept under section one hundred and twenty-eight.

121. If the occupier of any house or land shall refuse or neglect to furnish the information so required of him under the last preceding section, he shall be liable to pay the rates payable by the owner on account of such house or land, and on non-payment thereof the Commissioners may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found in the house or on the land :

Provided that no arrear of rate which has remained due from the owner of any house or land, for more than one year, shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE ASSESSMENT OF HOUSES AND LAND.

122. For the purpose of assessment under this Act, the annual value gross annual rent at which such land or house might reasonably be expected to let from year to year; less, in the case of a house, an allowance of 10 per cent. for the cost of repairs, and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the house in a state to command such gross rent. The annual value of any house not built for letting purposes and not ordinarily let shall be 5 per cent. on the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of building the house, less a reasonable amount to be deducted on account of depreciation, if any, to the estimated value of the land valued with the house as part of the same premises.

When a house is occupied by the owner under such exceptional circumstances as renders a valuation of 5 per cent. of the cost of building, less depreciation, excessive, a lower percentage may be taken.

The value of land so estimated shall not include the value of any machinery thereon.

123. All valuations of houses made by the Commissioners prior to the commencement of this Act shall remain in force during the period for which they were so made, and on the expiration of such period, the annual value at which any house is to be assessed shall be fixed by the Commissioners for a period of six years, and thereafter for successive periods of six years :

Provided that for the purpose of dividing the town into districts under section one hundred and twenty-nine, the Commissioners may retain the valuation of the houses in any part of Calcutta for a further period not exceeding six years, or may, with the same object, make a re-valuation for a less period than six years.

124. Bustee lands with the huts upon them, or lands that are waste or used for agricultural purposes, may be valued annually at the discretion of the Commissioners, and shall be so valued on the application of the owner. When not re-valued, the former valuation shall remain in force from year to year until a re-valuation is made.

125. Any house, the valuation of which may have been cancelled on the ground of irregularity, or which for any other reason may have no annual value legally assigned to it, may be valued at any time under section one hundred and twenty-two for such period as remains unexpired in the district in which it is included under section one hundred and twenty-nine.

126. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-three any substantial alteration and improvement is made to any such house, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued, even though such period has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation.

127. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been beyond the control of the owner or occupier thereof, the Commissioners shall as soon as practicable, on application being made to them in writing by the owner or occupier of such house, cause it to be again valued, even though the current period of valuation has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation :

Provided that if any substantial alteration and improvement shall be made, prior to the expiration of the said period of valuation, to the house which shall have been again valued as aforesaid, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued as under the last preceding section.

128. The annual value fixed by the Commissioners as hereinbefore provided shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners, wherein shall also be written—

- (a) number of premises ;
- (b) description of premises ;
- (c) name of person primarily liable to pay the rate ;
- (d) amount of valuation ;
- (e) amount of rate payable quarterly ;
- (f) if exempted, the ground of exemption.

This information may be contained in as many books as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine which shall together constitute a book to be called the "assessment book."

When the name of the owner or occupier is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the assessment book as the "owner" or "occupier."

Any owner or occupier may at any time apply to the Commissioners to have his name entered as owner or occupier in the assessment book, and the Commissioners shall, unless there is sufficient reason to refuse such application, (which refusal shall be in writing) cause such name to be entered in the assessment book.

Where there are gradations of owners or occupiers, and doubt exists as to who is entitled to be registered as owner or occupier of any premises, the Commissioners shall determine which of the several owners or occupiers is entitled to be registered as such, and their decision shall remain in force for the purposes of this Act till set aside by the order of a competent court.

No owner or occupier whose name is not entered in the assessment book shall be entitled to object that any bill, notice of demand, warrant or other notice of any kind required by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any house or land, has not been made out in his own name :

Provided that any person who has paid the owner's share of the consolidated rate for the last preceding quarter may, if there is no opposition to his application to be registered as owner, but such application is rejected or postponed for want of evidence, claim to have his name provisionally registered as owner, and when his name ing to the owner of any house or land under this Act so long as no other person claims to be registered as owner.

A list shall be published annually, in such manner as the Commissioners may determine, stating the names of all persons who are provisionally registered and the premises in respect of which they are so registered.

Any name provisionally registered as that of an owner of any premises shall after three years, if no objection be taken, be transferred to the assessment book as that of the owner of such premises.

129. For the purpose of valuing houses for a period of six years, the Commissioners shall divide Calcutta into such and so many districts as they may think fit, and proceed to make separate valuations district by district, and shall enter the same in the assessment book.

130. The Commissioners, by a notice in writing, may require the owner or occupier of any house or land to furnish them with returns of the measurements and of the rent or annual value thereof; and the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between the hour of seven in the forenoon and sunset enter on, and inspect, survey, and measure such house or land after giving a notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours.

131. Whoever refuses or fails to furnish any such return for the space of one week from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or knowingly makes a false or incorrect return, and whoever hinders, obstructs, or prevents any Commissioner, or any person appointed by the Commissioners as aforesaid, from entering or inspecting or measuring any such house or land shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 for every such offence.

132. When the valuation of any of the districts into which Calcutta may have been divided by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-nine shall have been completed, the Commissioners shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the statement of valuations of all the houses included in such district may be inspected. Such notice shall be by advertisement in at least two English newspapers, and in two Vernacular newspapers, published in Calcutta, and also by placards posted up in conspicuous places throughout such district.

And the person in whose custody the statement of valuations may be, shall permit any person, being the owner or occupier of any house or land included in the district or the agent of such owner or occupier, to inspect the records and to make extracts therefrom without payment of any fee, and any person, not being such owner or occupier to inspect and make extracts, in like manner, on payment of a fee of one rupee in respect of each entry extracted.

133. The Commissioners shall, in all cases in which any house is for the first time valued, or in Returns may be required for purpose of valuation.

Owner or occupier may apply to have his name entered as such in assessment book.

notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the same, and when the valuation is increased as aforesaid, the said notice shall state the grounds of such increase.

134. Before re-valuing any bustee, or other land under section one hundred and twenty-four, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owner of the land that on or after a date, not less than fifteen days from the receipt of such notice by the owner of the land, such re-valuation will take place, and if the valuation so made exceeds the previous valuation, the Commissioners shall give to the owner a special notice of the amount of the valuation with full details thereof.

135. Any person who is dissatisfied with a valuation made under this Chapter shall in the case of houses, within fifteen days after the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-two, or after receipt of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-three, when such notice is received after the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-two, and in the case of bustee or other land within fifteen days after the receipt of the special notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-four, deliver at the office of the Commissioners a notice in writing stating the grounds of his objection.

136. All such objections shall be entered in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and on receipt of any objection, notice shall be given to the objector of a day and place when his objection will be investigated.

On the day and place notified, the Chairman or Vice-Chairman (if the case is referred to him by the Chairman) shall hear the objection in the presence of the objector if he shall appear, or the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may, for reasonable cause, adjourn the investigation. When the objection has been determined, the order passed shall be recorded in the register of objections, together with the date of such order.

137. Any person dissatisfied with the orders passed on his objection may appeal to the Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction in the place where the house, land or bustee land is situated. Such appeal shall be presented to the Court of Small Causes within thirty days of the decision of the objection under section one hundred and thirty-six, and shall be accompanied with an extract from the register of objections containing the orders objected to. No appeal shall be admitted unless an objection has first been taken under section one hundred and thirty-five.

138. The valuation by the Commissioners when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under the last preceding section when an appeal is made, shall be final and binding.

139. The valuation made by the Commissioners shall be subject to such and the assessment calculated on the said valuation shall, subject to such alterations as aforesaid, be deemed to be the amount payable during the whole period for which the valuation is in force, and this period shall be calculated from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which any such amendment shall be so authenticated; and until such date the old valuation shall continue in force, notwithstanding that the period for which it was made may have expired.

140. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may at any time amend the assessment book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or by inserting any house or land liable to the rate, or by inserting a valuation when the house or land liable to be valued has not been valued, after giving notice to any person interested in the making of the amendment of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, when such amendment is to be made; the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may also strike out the name of any person, or any house or land not liable to the rate or reduce the amount of the valuation without notice.

Provided that no reduction shall be made inconsistent with the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-eight.

If any amendment shall be made in case where notice is required, the same shall be deemed to have been made on the expiration of fifteen days after service of the said notice; and any person interested in such amendment may object by application in writing to the Commissioners, to be left at their office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of sections one hundred and thirty-five, one hundred and thirty-six, one hundred and thirty-seven, and one hundred and thirty-eight shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to such objection.

CHAPTER VI.

OF LEVYING THE RATES.

141. When any rate is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be presented to the person liable to the payment thereof a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period and a description of the property to which the rate is charged.

142. If the bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within seven days from the presentation thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand in the form contained in the Schedule, or to the like effect; and, if he does not, within seven days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, or satisfy the demand to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for non-payment of the same, a sum, with all costs, may be levied by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter, or the defaulter be the occupier of any house to the defaulter or not, under a warrant in the form contained in the Sixth Schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners:

Provided that when the premises in respect of which the default is committed are a place of business, and the moveable property distrained is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been left there for repairs or safe custody in the ordinary course of business, it shall be released.

For every notice of demand under this section which the Commissioners shall cause to be served upon any person, a fee, not exceeding one rupee, shall be payable.

Such fee shall be added to the amount of the rate in respect of which the notice is given, and, if not duly paid, may be levied in the same manner as such rate may be levied.

143. The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress under the last preceding section shall forthwith make an inventory of the moveable property seized under such warrant, and shall at the time give a notice in writing in the form contained in the Seventh Schedule, or to the like effect, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said moveable property will be sold as therein mentioned.

144. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold and the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure.

All distresses under this Chapter shall be reasonable and the amount of property seized shall be proportionate to the arrears due, and all sales of property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure now in force, or hereafter to be in force in the Court of Small Causes with respect to sale after distress.

Fees shall be payable upon warrants issued under this Act according to the rates set forth in the table of fees contained in the Eighth Schedule.

All officers and servants of the Corporation are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

145. The moveable property of any person from whom any rate is due may be distrained, wherever found, may be distrained. the same may be found, for default in payment of the money due from him.

146. If the sum due on account of any rate from the owner of any house or land remains unpaid after notice of demand has been duly served, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier or any of his sub-tenants for the time being of the house or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found on next and following payments of his rent, the amount which may be so paid by, or recovered from, him:

Provided that no arrear of rate so due shall be recovered from the occupier if it has been due for more than one year, or for a period during which the occupier was not in occupation.

147. The purchaser of any house or land for which any sum is due on account of the rate payable by the owner at the time of such purchase shall be liable for the amount due on account of such rates for any period not exceeding one year prior to the purchase.

148. No distress levied under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser on account of any irregularity committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover, in any court of competent jurisdiction, full satisfaction for any special damage sustained by them.

149. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress and sale the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate, the Commissioners may sue, in any court of competent jurisdiction, the person liable to pay the same.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE WATER-SUPPLY.

150. The Commissioners shall provide a supply of water within all parts of Calcutta, and shall for that purpose cause such mains and pipes to be laid and such tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be made and constructed as shall be necessary for the supply of filtered water in the principal public streets, and shall also erect sufficient and convenient stand-pipes or pumps for the gratuitous use of the inhabitants for domestic purposes.

Ships lying at the jetties or in the docks of the Port Commissioners shall be entitled to the gratuitous use of filtered water for domestic purposes while so lying.

151. The Commissioners shall, on demand, be bound to supply every ship leaving the port with a reasonable quantity of filtered water for use on the voyage at such price, not exceeding five rupees for every thousand gallons, as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, determine.

152. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for animals, or for washing carriages, when such animals or carriages are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains, or for watering gardens or roads, or for any ornamental or mechanical purposes.

153. The Commissioners shall, so far as ma afternoon, keep and maintain throughout their pipes and mains a sufficient supply of filtered water under a pressure of not less than ten feet for the domestic use of the rate-payers, and shall every day, for not less than two hours in the forenoon and one hour in the afternoon, maintain a pressure of water in the service pipes and mains sufficient to raise the water in all houses and places in which the same may be introduced within the area at present supplied to a height of not less than thirty feet, and shall test the purity of the water supplied once every week or at such intervals of time as the Commissioners in meeting may direct.

154. The Commissioners may supply water through a meter, for other than domestic purposes, if the person requiring such supply make application to the Commissioners in writing, specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

The Commissioners may thereupon, subject to such charges or rates as may have been fixed by the Commissioners in meeting, lay down, or allow to be laid down, the necessary communication-pipes and works of such dimensions and character as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

No meter shall be necessary in any case in which the applicant agrees to pay such sum per mensem for the use of the water as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

When water is supplied by the Commissioners through a meter, it shall be presumed that the quantity indicated by the meter has been consumed until the contrary is proved.

Any person using water supplied by the Commissioners for other than domestic purposes without the leave of the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

155. The occupier of every house connected with the water-supply shall be entitled to have, free of further charge, three thousand gallons of filtered water for every rupee paid to the Commissioners as water-rate on account of such house, to be supplied from the service pipes of the Commissioners for domestic use, through a ferrule of the size prescribed under the ninth schedule. If the Commissioners have reason to believe that the occupier of any house consumes more filtered water than he is entitled to as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide a water-meter at their own expense, and attach the same to the water-pipes of the said house; and any water which may be used over and above the quantity to which the occupier is entitled as aforesaid shall be paid for by him at the rate of one rupee for every three thousand gallons:

Provided that no charge shall be made by the Commissioners for unfiltered water supplied under the next succeeding section.

156. It shall be at the option of the Commissioners to provide filtered or unfiltered water for all latrines and water-closets; and wherever filtered water

157. All latrines and water-closets now supplied, or hereafter to be supplied, with water filtered or unfiltered, shall be provided with a cistern of such size and description and in such position as the Commissioners shall direct, and all such cisterns shall be put up at the expense of the owner of the house or land so supplied with water.

158. Whenever the Commissioners shall deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they shall allow any person living in a masonry house and paying the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned to lay down communication-pipes from the service pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of bringing into his house or land a supply of water for domestic use in accordance with the scale of ferrules prescribed under the ninth schedule;

Provided that if the house is so situated that the size of the ferrule prescribed for the use of such house under such scale is insufficient to pass the daily supply of water which the occupier of such house is entitled to receive under section one hundred and fifty-five, the Commissioners shall permit the use of a ferrule of such size as shall be sufficient to pass such supply:

Provided also that the Commissioners may at their own expense replace any ferrule, used for the supply of water to any house at the time when this Act comes into force which is of larger size than the occupier of such house under such scale is entitled to use, by a ferrule of the size prescribed under such scale for the use of such house:

Provided also that the Commissioners shall be at liberty to turn off or to cut off the supply of water to any house or land during the time the said house or land is unoccupied.

The communication-pipes leading the water from the service-pipes of the Commissioners into the house of any rate-payer, and the pipes and works within the house connected therewith, shall be of such character, dimensions, and material as the Commissioners shall fix and approve; and shall be made and constructed at the expense of the person requiring the same.

159. The ferrules, communication-pipes and all fittings thereon leading water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into any house or land, and the pipes, works, and fittings inside the house or land, must in all cases be executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Such communication-pipes, works, and fittings may be made by the servants and workmen of the Commissioners upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and the person requiring the supply, or subject to such charges as may be fixed by the Commishours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, enter into or on any house or land supplied with water as aforesaid in order to examine all pipes, works, and fittings connected with the supply of water, and to ascertain if there be any waste or misuse of such water ; and if the Commissioners at any such time be refused admittance into such house or land for the purposes aforesaid, or be prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, they may forthwith turn off or cut off the water from such house or land :

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall authorize an entry into any room appropriated for the senana or residence of women, which by the custom of the country is considered private, unless a notice in writing of not less than four hours be given.

161. In the event of any pipes, works, or fittings connected with the supply of water to any house or land being at any time found on examination by the Commissioners to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off or cut off from the house or land, after giving notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours to the person in occupation thereof, and may recover the expense incurred for cutting off the water from the occupier of such house or land.

Any re-conveyance of land or of a building under clause (c) may comprise such conditions as the Commissioners think fit as to the removal of the existing building, the description of new building to be erected, the period within which such new building shall be completed, and other such matters.

205. When any public street is permanently closed under section two hundred and three the Commissioners may dispose of the site of so much of the roadway and footpath as is no longer required, making due compensation to any person injured by the closing of the road and the sale of the site. And if any dispute shall arise respecting the amount or apportionment of such compensation, it shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, in determining such compensation, the Court shall make allowance for any benefit conferred on the same premises or any adjacent premises belonging to the same owner by the construction or improvement of any other public street, at or about the same time that the public street, on account of which the compensation is paid, is closed.

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners in default according to the frontage of their respective lands, and in such proportion as shall be settled by the Commissioners or, in case of dispute, as shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, after such street shall have been so levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered on the requisition of the Commissioners, or by the Commissioners as aforesaid, at the expense of the owners, such owners shall have a right to require that the street shall be declared a public street, to be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the General Fund.

216. If any street be levelled, paved, metalled,

219. All doors, gates, bars, and ground-floor windows which open upon any public street shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards in a manner likely, in the opinion of the Commissioners, to cause obstruction; and if any such door, gate, bar, or window be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any such public street, the owner of the house or land to which the same is attached shall, within fifteen days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards; and if he neglects so to do, the Commissioners may cause such alteration to be made, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by such owner:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be held to apply to house shutters so constructed as to fold flat to the wall, whether opening to the ground or not.

222. The Commissioners may cause any projection, encroachment, or obstruction erected or placed against, on or over any house in any public street previous to the first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to be removed or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the house against, or in front of which, such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall be, thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun; and if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the right of any person to compensation when the right thereto is disputed and the amount thereof, or touching the amount of such compensation when the right thereto is admitted, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

223. The Commissioners may give permission in writing, on such conditions as they think fit, to the owners or occupiers of houses abutting on any public street to put up verandahs, balconies, sunshades, weather-frames, and the like, to project from any upper story thereof over any public street, and on breach of any such condition the Commissioners may give the owner or occupier notice to comply with such condition within fifteen days, and if he fails to comply, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners other water-works or gas-works laid in any street (public or otherwise), they may, from time to time by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, to cause forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the Commissioners direct.

Such alteration shall not be such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before and the expenses attending such raising, sinking or altering, and full compensation for the damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons.

And if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

228. If the person to whom any such pipes or works as are mentioned in the last preceding section belong, or under whose control they may be, do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered in such manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they may think fit, provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

229. No person shall deposit any building materials or make a hole in any public street without the permission of the Commissioners in writing; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed, until the materials are removed or the hole is filled up and otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted at night, and if he neglect to sufficiently fence or light the same, and any damage or injury arises, he shall be liable to the Commissioners for any expense which they may incur by reason of such neglect.

230. Whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or encloses more of the public street than the Commissioners have permitted him to enclose or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has lapsed or been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

The Commissioners may cause any such hole to be filled up, and may cause any such materials

231. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers or to persons living in the neighbourhood, the Commissioners may, by notice in writing, require the owner of the land to repair, protect, or enclose the same; and if he fails to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed.

232. Whoever, being an owner of land, fails to comply with the requisition mentioned in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART II.—Of Building Regulations regarding Houses.

233. If any building, or anything affixed thereon, be deemed by the Commissioners to be in a ruinous state, or likely to fall, or to be in any way dangerous, they shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident in Calcutta, and shall also cause such notice to be put on some conspicuous part of such building, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, repair, or secure, such building, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require.

If such owner or occupier does not commence to take down, repair, or secure the same within three days after such notice, or fails to complete such work with due diligence, the Commissioners shall cause all or so much of such building, or thing as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

The provisions of section two hundred and seven and two hundred and eight shall apply to houses taken down or repaired under the provisions of this section.

234. If any building, or any part of the same, be taken down under the provisions of the last preceding section, the Commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall, on demand, restore to the owner any surplus arising from such sale.

The Commissioners shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of this Act are given to them* for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

235. Before beginning to build any new house or to convert any hut or any temporary structure into a house, the person intending so to do shall obtain the sanction of the Commissioners to the site on which he proposes to build. With this object he shall submit a plan drawn to the scale of forty feet to the inch, showing the position of the house with reference to—

- (a) some existing public street; or
- (b) some projected public street approved of by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and eight; or
- (c) some existing private street; or
- (d) some proposed private street which it is intended* to construct under section two hundred and thirteen.

Such plan shall also show the position and approximate height of all other masonry houses within forty feet of the proposed site:

Provided that, for special reasons, the Commissioners may sanction any site without reference to its position in relation to any public or private street.

On receipt of such plan, the Commissioners shall, within thirty days, signify in writing their approval of such site, or their disapproval thereof as not being a proper site with reference to—

- (a) the street shown in such plan; or
- (b) any other street or projected street on which it will abut; or
- (c) the position of the adjacent buildings.

If the street shown in the plan is a proposed private street, the Commissioners may at their discretion decline to approve of the site till such private street is commenced or completed.

Provided that where any site is disapproved by reason of its falling wholly or in part within the lines of any projected public street, the owner of such site shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, if the site or the portion thereof that falls within such lines be not acquired by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and four within one year after the date of such disapproval.

Until the approval of the site is signified in writing, the house shall not be constructed.

236. Before beginning to build any new house on a site approved of under the last preceding section, or to rebuild or materially alter the structure of any house, the person intending so to do shall make an application to the Commissioners in a printed form to be prepared by them for this purpose (for which no charge shall be made), setting forth the description of the building, the purposes for which it is intended, its dimensions, such plan of the building as the person intends to specify, and such other details as may be deemed requisite to enable the Commissioners to pass orders on such application.

237. On receipt of such application the Commissioners shall within thirty days, by a written order, either sanction the building of the new house, or for any one or more of the reasons set forth in the next succeeding section disallow it, or call for further information, on all or any of the following details:—

- (a) Plans and sections of every floor of the intended building which shall be drawn to a scale of not less than one inch to every eight feet, and shall show the position, form, and dimensions of the several parts of such building and of every water-closet, privy, urinal, cesspool, well, and other appurtenance, and in the case of a building intended as a dwelling-house for two or more families, or for carrying on any trade or business in which a number of people, exceeding twenty, may be employed, or as a public resort, the means of ingress and egress.
- (b) A description in writing of the materials of which it is intended that the building shall be constructed, of the thickness of the walls and roof, and of the intended mode of drainage, means of water-supply, and means of ventilation, and if the building is to adjoin or abut on a street, the intended means of access from such street.
- (c) The width and level of the street, if any, in front, and of the street, if any, at the rear of such building, the levels of the foundations and lowest floor of such building, and of any yard or ground belonging thereto.
- (d) A plan showing the intended line of drainage of such building, and of the intended size, depth and inclination of such drain, and of the details of the arrangements proposed for the ventilation of the drains.

If such requisition be not complied with, the application made under section two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

The Commissioners may decline to accept any plan, section, or description as sufficient for the purposes of this section, which does not bear the signature of a competent builder or surveyor in token of its having been prepared by such builder or surveyor.

238. Within thirty days after the receipt of the details, required to be given under the last preceding section, the Commissioners shall pass orders in writing either approving of the proposed building or disapproving thereof for any of the following reasons—

- (a) that it will be unsafe; or
- (b) that it encroaches upon or over municipal land; or

(c) that its construction contravenes some specified provision of this Act; or some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the Commissioners disapprove of the building for any of the above reasons it shall not be proceeded with till such modifications have been made as to satisfy the requirements of the Commissioners.

239. Nothing in sections two hundred and thirty-five and two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to preclude any person intending to build a new house from sending in simultaneously the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five and the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six as also at his discretion all or any of the plans and details specified in section two hundred and thirty-seven.

Provided that the period of thirty days after the receipt of the application shall not commence to run till the site has been approved of. If the proposed work be not commenced within one year after the date of approval, it shall not be commenced without a fresh application being submitted under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-six.

240. If any building such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-five be commenced without sending in the ground plan required by that section, or after such ground plan has been sent in, before the site has been approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such house, or so much of it as has been constructed, to be demolished.

241. If any building or alteration such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-six be commenced without the application required by that section being sent to the Commissioners, or before the expiration of the thirty days or of any subsequent period of thirty days prescribed by section two hundred and thirty-seven, or otherwise than in accordance with the information furnished in the application or in the further details and plans subsequently called for, or in contravention of any lawful orders issued by the Commissioners under section two hundred and thirty-eight, the Commissioners may cause such work as has been done to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may think fit, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the requirements of the Act.

242. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by section two hundred and forty and the last preceding section, prosecute any person who shall build a new house without sending in the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five, or who shall build or re-build or materially alter the structure of any house without making the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six, and such person shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20

243. The following provisions shall apply to buildings which it is proposed to construct under section two hundred and thirty-six:—

Provisions applicable to buildings constructed under section two hundred and thirty-six.

- (a). The levels and width of foundation shall be such as the Commissioners consider satisfactory.
- (b). No house shall be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of such house or building being led into some public sewer then existing or projected, or into some tidal river into which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers.
- (c). The plinth of such building shall be at least two feet above the centre of the nearest street.
- (d). The building shall not be erected over any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners without their written consent.
- (e). Every privy shall be so situated and so constructed as not to be a nuisance to the neighbours or dangerous to the health of the inmates.
- (f). Every building shall be provided with adequate ventilation.
- (g). No building shall cover a greater portion of the ground belonging to the owner of it and forming part of the same or adjacent premises, than is consistent with the free circulation of air, supposing the owners of contiguous lands to cover their land with buildings to the same extent.

244. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within thirty days, as required by sections two hundred and thirty-seven and two hundred and thirty-eight, the person making such application may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or rebuild the house.

245. Every person intending to build or take down any house, or to alter or repair the outward part of any house, where any public street will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work shall, before beginning the same, cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the house where such works are being carried on from the street, and shall keep such hoard or fence standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted:

Provided that no person shall put up a hoard or fence without the written permission of the Commissioners, and shall not keep up such hoard or fence for a time longer than that specified in such written permission.

246. Every person who begins to build, or to take down, or alter, or repair any house contrary to the provisions of the last preceding section, or who, without a licence, erects or sets up any hoard, scaffolding, or fence whatsoever, or who, having obtained permission, fails to put up such fence or heard or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted, or, who does not remove the same when the time specified in the permission has elapsed, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART III.—Of Building Regulations regarding Huts and Bustees.

247. Before beginning to build, re-build or add to any hut, the person intending so to do shall make an application to that effect to the Commissioners in a form to be provided by them, (for which no charge shall be made.) Such form shall require a ground plan of the hut drawn to the scale of eight feet to the inch and such other details as the Commissioners may prescribe. On receipt of such application, the Commissioners shall, within fourteen days, express their approval of the proposed work, or their disapproval on any one or more of the following grounds:—

- (a) That the site is ill-chosen with reference to adjacent huts or with reference to any present or proposed roads.
- (b) That the ventilation will be defective.
- (c) That the arrangements for scavenging or drainage are defective.
- (d) That the hut will be within thirty feet of a tank.
- (e) That the hut will be on the site of a tank which has been so recently filled up as to be prejudicial to the health of a person dwelling in it.
- (f) That the plinth is not two feet above the level of the centre of the nearest street.
- (g) That the erection of the proposed hut will infringe some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the proposal is approved the hut may be built, re-built, or added to at any time within six months after the date of sanction. If it is disapproved on any of the grounds above stated, the work shall not be commenced till such modifications have been made in the plan of the proposed hut as the Commissioners may deem necessary.

248. If any hut be built, re-built, or added to without making such application to the Commissioners as is required by the last preceding section, or before the approval of the Commissioners has been obtained under that section, the Commissioners may cause such hut or so much of it as has been constructed to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may prescribe; and the expenses of such demolition or alteration shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the provision of this Act.

249. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by the last preceding section prosecute any person who builds, re-builds, or adds to any hut in contravention of the provisions of section two hundred and forty-seven, and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

250. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within fourteen days as required by section two hundred and forty-seven, the person making such application may notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained proceed to build or rebuild the house.

251. The Commissioners may define the external limits of any bustee, and may from time to time modify such limits; and for the purposes of this Act, land comprised within such limits shall be deemed to be a bustee:

Provided that every bustee shall consist of one or more complete plots of bustee land, separately numbered as such in the assessment book, and no plot bearing only one number shall be divided so as to fall within the limits of separate bustees. The existence of one or more houses with the land attached thereto, within the limits defined as above, shall be no bar to the bustee lands within such limits being deemed to be a bustee: Provided also that the Commissioners shall have no power under this Part of exercising any control over such houses and land attached, except by acquiring the whole or any portion of them by purchase or in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

252. The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners of a bustee, calling on them to prepare a joint plan thereof to the scale of forty feet to the inch showing the manner in which such bustee should be laid out with the huts standing in regular lines and with a free passage in front of and behind each line, of such width as may be necessary for ventilation and for scavenging. The plan shall also show the proposed drains of the bustee, the water-supply, bathing arrangements (if any) and the privy accommodation to be provided for the use of the tenants, the roads which are to be maintained for their benefit, the land, if any, which is to be kept as common land, the tanks which are to be filled up or conserved, and any other proposed improvements.

Such plan, when prepared as above, shall be considered by the Commissioners, and such modifications shall be made therein as the Commissioners shall require. After any plan has been finally approved of by the Commissioners, it shall be taken as the standard plan of the bustee. If any land within the limits of a bustee is not bustee land, the standard plan shall be so prepared as clearly to distinguish it from the bustee land.

When a call has been made on the owners of the bustee to prepare a joint plan under this section, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to within the bustee till a standard plan has been prepared.

253. If the owners of a bustee cannot agree among themselves in the preparation of a joint plan, or if they for any reason prefer to have a joint plan prepared for them by the Commissioners, or if joint plan within the space of sixty days, the Commissioners shall, within a further period of sixty days, themselves prepare a plan to the scale and in the manner prescribed in the last preceding section for which they may charge the owners at such rate not exceeding Rs. 8 per bigah as the Commissioners in meeting may fix. The cost of preparing such plan may be recovered as a rate under this Act.

254. When a plan has been prepared by the Commissioners under the last preceding section, they shall fix a day for the hearing of objections on the part of the owners; and may at their discretion modify the plan in accordance with any objections made. When the objections have been disallowed, or when the plan has been modified in conformity with any objections raised, it shall be approved of by the Commissioners, and shall thereafter be taken as the standard plan of the bustee.

255. When a standard plan has been prepared for any bustee under sections two hundred and fifty-two or two hundred and fifty-four, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to in such bustee, unless the hut or the portion to be added occupies a site, or portion of a site marked as the site for a hut in the standard plan. The Commissioners may, at any time by paying compensation to the owner of any hut not in conformity with the standard plan, require him to take down his hut and re-build it in conformity with such plan. Such compensation shall, in the event of dispute, be determined in the manner provided in this Act for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners of any bustee, calling upon them to construct the roads, privies, drains, and other details shown in the standard plan of any bustee, so far as may be practicable in the existing arrangement of the huts, and if any tank is shown as to be filled up or improved, may call upon the owner to fill up or improve such tank. Till such notice is complied with, the Commissioners may refuse to sanction the building or re-building of any hut in the bustee, or any addition to any existing hut.

256. When a bustee has been brought into conformity with a standard plan which has been prepared for it, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

257. When it appears to the Commissioners in meeting that any bustee is, by reason of the manner in which the huts are crowded together, or for any other reason, in such an unhealthy condition that the procedure provided by sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six will be too dilatory for improving such bustee, they may cause it to be inspected by two medical officers who shall make a report in writing on the sanitary condition of the said bustee.

Such report shall be accompanied by a plan which shall be approved of by the medical offiforthwith, in consequence of the unhealthy condition of the bustee, and which can await the procedure prescribed in sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six. The former changes shall be shown in a Schedule attached to the report to be called Schedule A; and this Schedule shall clearly indicate the huts which should wholly or in part be removed, the roads and drains which should be constructed, the tanks or low lands which should be filled up, and any other works necessary to remove or abate the unhealthy condition of the bustee. If for the purpose of making such roads or effecting any other improvement, it is necessary to purchase or acquire any land within the bustee which is not bustee land, the schedule shall specify the land which should be purchased or acquired.

258. On receipt of the report of the medical officers, the Commissioners in meeting may cause notice to be served upon the owners or occupiers of the hut, or at the option of the Commissioners, the owner of the land on which such huts are built, requiring them to carry out and execute within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Commissioners for such purpose, all or any of the works specified in the aforesaid Schedule A annexed to the report, or any portion thereof respectively.

The Commissioners in meeting shall also approve of the standard plan prepared by the medical officers with such modifications as they may deem proper.

259. If, after the service of the notice referred to in the last preceding section, such owners or occupiers, or the owners of the land, shall refuse or neglect to carry out and execute the said works within the time appointed, the Commissioners may cause all or any of the said works, or any portion thereof respectively, to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred, including such reasonable compensation as the Commissioners think fit to pay to the owners or occupiers of huts destroyed or removed, shall be paid by the owners of the land:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may order the expenses so incurred to be recovered by instalments from the said owners, of the land or, if it should appear to them that any such owner is unable by reason of poverty to pay the same, may order the same or any portion thereof to be paid out of the General Fund.

260. If any of the said huts be pulled down, the Commissioners shall cause the materials of each hut to be given to the owner of the hut; or if the owner be unknown, or the title disputed, the materials shall be sold and the proceeds shall be held in deposit by the Commissioners until the person interested therein shall obtain an order from a competent court for the payment of the same.

A Court of Small Causes shall be deemed a competent court for the purpose.

261. The Commissioners may, at any time, after the receipt of the Chapter XIII, Part II, any land other than bustee land shown in that report as land which should be acquired.

262. After the works specified in Schedule

When an unhealthy bustee to be deemed remodelled bustee.

A attached to the report filed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, or so much of such works as are approved by the Commissioners in meeting, have been completed, the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-five shall apply to such bustee until it is brought into complete conformity with the standard plan approved in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-eight, after which the bustee shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

263. No standard plan, prepared under sections two hundred and fifty-two, two hundred and fifty-three, two hundred and fifty-seven, or two hundred and sixty-eight shall, without the consent of the owners, show more than one-fifth of the area of the bustee as roads or more than one-half as open lands not to be built upon, whether such open land be common ground, roads, or spaces behind a line of huts; but no tank that is not filled up shall be taken into account in calculating the above proportion. The proposed standard plan shall also, as far as possible, provide for one or more huts being completely contained in each separate plot of bustee land within the bustee and for a due proportion of roadway and open ground in each plot; and if a greater portion of any one plot is taken for roads or open ground than the proportion allowed by this section, the compensation which should be paid to the owner of this plot and the persons who should pay such compensation by reason of their benefiting thereby shall be specified; if no other owner can be equitably called upon to pay such compensation, it shall be paid by the Commissioners. The compensation thus fixed shall not be payable till the plot belonging to the owner entitled to it has been brought into complete conformity with the standard plan.

264. Any owner of bustee land included within the limits of a bustee may at any time give notice to the Commissioners that he intends to change the character of the whole or of any portion of the land belonging to him, so that it will cease to be bustee land. If his notice refers only to a part of his land, a separate number shall be forthwith assigned in the assessment book to the part to which the notice applies. From the date of such notice no application shall be received for building, re-building, or adding to any hut in the land to which the notice applies, and the owner shall be bound to remove all existing huts within six months after giving such notice. When all the huts have been removed, the land shall cease to be liable to the incidents of bustee land, and, according to its situation, shall either be altogether excluded from the limits of the bustee, or shall be shown in the standard plan of the bustee as land within the said limits which is not bustee land.

Effect of notice of intention to change character of bustee land.

265. The roads shown in the standard plan of a bustee which are not already public streets shall, and the owners concerned otherwise agree, remain private streets; and the portion which falls on the land of each owner shall belong to such owner. Any portion which falls on land acquired or purchased by the Commissioners under section two hundred and sixty-one shall remain the property of the Commissioners.

Roads in standard plan not public streets.

Every such private street shall at all times be kept open to the conservancy carts of the Commissioners for the purpose of scavenging in the bustee, and shall also be kept open for the use of all the tenants of the bustee, but no such use, whether by the conservancy carts or by the tenants, shall be held by any lapse of time to confer a right of way on the public, so as to bring such street within the definition of a "public street."

266. If any portion of the land which it is sought to remove from the incidents of bustee land is shown in the standard plan of the bustee as a road or part of a road, the notice shall be held not to apply to such road without the express consent of the Commissioners, but such road shall continue part of a private street open to the use of conservancy carts and of the tenants of the bustee.

Roads in a bustee not affected by change of character of bustee land.

267. When a standard plan has been prepared for a bustee, the several owners of the bustee land shall be respectively deemed to be the occupiers of the roads, common ground, and of such drains of the bustee as serve more than one hut, so far as constructed in accordance with such standard plan, and the owner of each hut shall be deemed to be the occupier of the land occupied by his hut, of that portion of the open space behind his hut which appertains to it, and of any drain which is for the sole use of his hut.

Owners of a bustee, when standard plan is prepared, deemed occupants of the open spaces.

268. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections two hundred and fifty-seven to two hundred and sixty-two, the Commissioners in meeting may, upon receipt of the report prescribed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, pass a resolution to the effect that any bustee is an unhealthy area, and that, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the acquisition of the bustee, or any part thereof, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, is necessary for the purpose of making the requisite improvements thereon, and shall proceed to make a standard plan for the improvement of such land, and shall forward such plan, accompanied by such estimates as shall be necessary for a due understanding of the same, together with a copy of such resolution, for the consideration and sanction of the Local Government.

Power to purchase, improve, and re-sell or lease unhealthy areas.

On receipt of such sanction, the Commissioners in meeting may acquire such land or any part thereof in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

When the sanction of the Local Government has been accorded to any standard plan for the improvement of any land acquired by the Commissioners as above provided, the Commissioners in meeting may sell or let any part of the acquired land to any person for the purpose and under the condition that he will, as respects the land so purchased by, or leased to, him, carry

The Commissioners may, instead of selling or letting the land acquired by them as aforesaid, themselves bring the bustee into conformity with such standard plan.

The Commissioners shall be bound to sell or lease such land in the manner aforesaid, or themselves to carry out the improvement sanctioned under this section within the term of four years from the date of their acquiring such land, unless the Local Government shall specially extend such term.

When a bustee has been improved under this section, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

269. The Commissioners in meeting may sanction the employment of a special establishment for the cleansing of bustees, and when such establishment has been sanctioned, they may impose a rate to defray the cost of such establishment, on the owners of such bustees:

Provided that, without the consent of the owners, no such rate shall be levied upon any remodelled bustee.

270. If any bustee for which no such establishment as is referred to in the last preceding section is maintained, appears to the Commissioners to be in a filthy condition, the Commissioners may serve notices upon the occupiers as defined in section two hundred and sixty-seven, requiring them within three days to cleanse the same, and if the occupiers do not comply with the terms of such notices to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cleanse the whole or any portion of the bustee which requires cleansing, and may recover the cost incurred by them from the occupiers of such portions of the bustee as they have cleansed in such manner as a rate may be recovered.

CHAPTER XI.

OF DRAINAGE WORKS, DRAINS AND PRIVIES.

271. The Commissioners may carry out such a complete system or systems of sewerage and drainage as they may think fit, subject to the approval of the Local Government, and such alterations as may from time to time be ordered by it.

272. All public sewers and drains, and all sewers, drains, tunnels, and culverts in, alongside, or under any public street, whether made at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all works, materials, and things appertaining thereto, shall vest in, and belong to, the Commissioners.

273. The Commissioners shall have power to construct within Calcutta, and when necessary for the purposes of outfall or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, such sewers as they may think necessary for keeping the town properly cleansed and drained, and may carry such sewers through, across or under any road, street or place, and after reasonable notice in writing into, through or under any premises or lands whatsochange, or close up or destroy all sewers vested in them, provided no nuisance is created by such operations; and if any person is thereby deprived of the lawful use of any drain or sewer, the Commissioners shall provide another as effectual for his use within one hundred feet from some part of his premises. The Commissioners shall cause their sewers to be so constructed, kept and cleansed as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health, and for the purpose of cleansing, flushing and emptying them may construct and place either above or under ground, such reservoirs, sluices, engines or other works as may be necessary, and may cause such sewers to communicate with, and be emptied into, such places as may be fit and necessary within Calcutta, and if necessary for the purpose of outfall, or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, and may cause the sewage and refuse therefrom and from the town to be collected for sale, or for the improvement of land, or for incineration, or for any purpose whatsoever, but not so as to create a nuisance.

If a sewer is carried into, through or under any lands not belonging to the Corporation, the Commissioners shall make compensation to the owner thereof for any damage sustained by him by reason of such sewer being so carried into, through or under his land. In case of dispute, the amount of compensation payable by the Commissioners shall be determined in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

274. When the contents of any sewer or drain, or any other flow of filth or refuse, are discharged into any river or stream in the bed or channel of which the quantity of water at any season of the year is so much diminished, by natural or artificial causes, as to be insufficient to keep such channel clean or clear, the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government, may make such alteration in the bed of such river or stream as may prevent such sewer and drain-water from spreading over the surface of such bed, or from accumulating and stagnating in parts thereof to the injury of health, or the annoyance of the surrounding population.

275. If any person, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, makes or alters any drain leading into any of the sewers or drains vested in the Commissioners, or makes such drain, or carries out such alterations, with materials not approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such branch drain to be demolished, altered, re-made, or otherwise dealt with as they shall think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person making or altering such branch drain.

Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers, be at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners by sufficient surface drains or pipes communicating with some sewer, surface drain, tidal river, or other place as aforesaid, the Commissioners may, if the owner neglects to do so within fifteen days after notice, construct or lay through or from such house or land, suitable drains of such materials, of such size and with such fall, as they shall think necessary for the complete draining of such house or land; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

For the purpose of efficiently draining any house or land under this section, the Commissioners may require any court-yard, alley, or passage between two or more houses, to be paved with such materials and in such manner as may be approved of by them, and may require such paving to be kept in proper repair. They may also require the level of any such court-yard, alley or passage to be raised if necessary, for the efficient drainage thereof.

278. The Commissioners themselves may construct and lay down such portions of the drains mentioned in the last preceding section and sections two hundred and eighty-two and two hundred and eighty-three, as may be carried through or under any public drain, aqueduct, or street, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

279. Whenever it is provided in this Chapter that steps shall or may be taken for the effectual drainage of any premises, it shall be competent to the Commissioners to require that there shall be one drain for sewage and polluted water, and another and an entirely distinct drain for rain-water or unpolluted subsoil water or for both, each emptying into separate municipal drains or other suitable places.

280. It shall not be lawful for any person to make any underground drains in connection with the public sewers unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may, from time to time, lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of the license.

Any person holding such license, who shall infringe or break any such rule or regulation, shall be liable to have his license cancelled, and he or any person making any underground drain in connection with the public sewers without a license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

281. The Commissioners may cause the work of laying underground drains to be supervised while in progress, and from time to time during their execution may order such reasonable alterations therein, additions thereto, and abandonment of part or parts thereof, as may to the Commissioners appear, on the fuller knowledge afforded by the opening of the ground, to be necessary and satisfactory.

282. If it appear to the Commissioners that a group or block of houses may be drained more economically or advantageously in combination than separately, and a sewer of sufficient size already exists, or is about to be constructed, within one hundred feet of any part of such group or block of houses, the Commissioners may cause such group or block of houses to be drained by a combined operation; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners of such houses, or, in the case of bustee land, by the owners of the land in such proportions as shall to the Commissioners seem fit.

Not less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owners of all the land or houses to be drained of the nature of the proposed work and an estimate of the expenses about to be incurred in respect thereof and the proportion payable by each owner.

283. Whenever a drain belonging to one or more persons has been laid in any street or passage common to more than one house, and it is deemed desirable to drain any other premises into such drain, the Commissioners may require the owners of such drain to allow a connection therewith to be made on such terms as may seem to them equitable, and the owner or owners of the drain shall be entitled to refuse to allow the connection to be made until the terms prescribed have been accepted and any order for payment made by the Commissioners has been complied with.

284. All underground drains in streets (public or otherwise) shall be provided by the Commissioners or by the persons to whom they severally belong with proper traps or other coverings and means of ventilation, so as to prevent stench.

If the owner of any private sewer or underground drain shall, for ten days after notice given to him by the Commissioners, neglect or delay to provide proper traps or coverings and means of ventilation as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith provide and apply the same; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

285. The Commissioners may erect on, or fix to, any house or wall such properly jointed pipes as they may deem necessary for the proper ventilation of the sewers belonging to them, and such pipes shall be carried to a height of not less than six feet above the highest part of the highest adjacent house, and erected so as not to occasion any nuisance or inconvenience to any house in the neighbourhood.

286. All branch drains, as well within as without the house or land to which they belong, and all privies, cess-pools, stables and cow-houses in Calcutta, shall be under the survey and control of the Commissioners as regards their site, material, dimensions and construction, and shall be altered, supplied with water, connected with a sewer, paved, repaired, kept in proper order, of the owner of the house or land to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the owner of any house or land to which any such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house belongs, neglect, during eight days after notice in writing, to execute the work in the manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause the work to be executed in respect of such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

287. If any private drain is obstructed, the occupier of the premises in which such drain is situate shall, within six hours after receiving notice to do so from the Commissioners, cause the obstruction to be removed, and if he make default, the Commissioners may cause the necessary work to be done and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recoverable from such occupier.

288. If any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house be constructed contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or if any person, without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any branch drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up, or not to be made, or constructs or rebuilds any stable or cow-house which has been ordered by them to be demolished or not to be built, the Commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house as they think fit;

Commissioners may alter any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house made contrary to their orders.

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person by whom such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or otherwise dealt with.

289. Whoever constructs any drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house after the commencement of this Act contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or, whoever without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them not to be made or to be demolished or to be stopped up, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

Penalty for persons making or altering drain, contrary to the orders of the Commissioners.

290. The Commissioners may inspect any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house, and for that purpose, at any time between sunrise and sunset, after one hour's notice in writing to the occupier of the house or land to which such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house is attached, may enter upon such house or land with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where they may think fit, doing as little damage as may be:

but if the branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house be found to be in proper order and condition, and not to have been constructed in violation of the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be, and the expenses of opening and closing the ground shall be paid by the Commissioners.

291. Whoever throws or puts, or permits his servants to throw or put, any rubbish, or, until suitable sewers shall be provided, permits any offensive matter or sewage to flow, or be put into any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners, or into any drain communicating therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence.

292. No person shall, without the permission of the Commissioners in writing, construct or keep any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle for sewage or offensive matter within fifty feet of any public tank, or a tank used by the inhabitants of any locality. Any person upon whose land any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle so situated shall be now existing or hereafter constructed, shall remove the same within eight days of the receipt of a written notice from the Commissioners.

293. Any person failing to comply with the notice mentioned in the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 8 for every day that the latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle remains within the limits aforesaid.

PART II.—Inspection and sanitary regulation of premises.

317. The Commissioners may inspect any building or other premises for the purpose of ascertaining the sanitary condition thereof.

318. If it shall appear to the Commissioners necessary for sanitary reasons so to do, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any building so inspected, to cause the same or some portion thereof to be lime-washed or otherwise cleansed, either externally or internally, or both externally and internally, within a time to be specified in such notice.

319. If, for any reason, any building intended for or used as a dwelling shall appear to the Commissioners to be unfit for human habitation, they may apply to a Magistrate to prohibit the further use of such building for such purpose; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, make a prohibition as aforesaid or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

When any such prohibition has been made, no owner or occupier of such building shall use or suffer the same to be used for human habitation until the Commissioners certify in writing that the causes rendering it unfit for human habitation have been removed to their satisfaction, or the Magistrate, by a written order, withdraws the prohibition aforesaid.

320. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that any building used as a dwelling is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, they may apply to a Magistrate to prevent such overcrowding; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, require the owner of the building, within a reasonable time not exceeding six weeks, to be prescribed in the said order, to abate the overcrowding thereof, by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants, or other inmates of the said building, or may pass such other order as he

The said information shall be communicated in such form and with such details as the Commissioners may from time to time require.

The Commissioners in meeting may, with the sanction of the Local Government, impose a similar obligation with regard to any other dangerous disease.

322. The Commissioners may, at any time, after giving such notice of their intention as shall, under the circumstances, appear to them to be reasonable, enter and inspect any place in which any dangerous disease is reputed or suspected to exist, and take such measures as they shall think fit to prevent the spread of the said disease beyond such place.

323. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that the water in any well, tank, or other place is likely, if used for drinking, to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by public notice, prohibit the removal or use of the said water for the purpose of drinking.

No person shall remove or use for the purpose of drinking, any water in respect of which any such public notice has been issued.

324. When any hospital or place for the reception of persons suffering from any dangerous, epidemic, endemic, or infectious disease has been provided, the Commissioners may, on a certificate countersigned by the Health Officer, and with the consent of the Superintendent of such hospital or place, direct the removal thereto of any male person suffering from any such dangerous disease, who is, in the opinion of such Health Officer, without proper lodging or accommodation.

325. If, upon the certificate of the Health Officer, the Commissioners are of opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of a building, or of a part of a building, or of any article therein likely to retain infection, would tend to prevent or check the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of such building, within a reasonable time to be prescribed in the said cause the building, or part of the building, or article, to be cleansed or disinfected, and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the owner or occupier :

326. If the Commissioners are of opinion that the destruction of any hut is necessary to prevent the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, after giving the owner or occupier thereof reasonable notice, take measures for the destruction of such hut or shed and the materials of which it is constructed.

The Commissioners may pay compensation to any person sustaining substantial loss by the destruction of any hut, but no person shall be entitled as of right to claim compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him by reason of the destruction of any hut by the Commissioners under the powers conferred upon them by this section.

331. No person who is suffering from small-pox shall enter a public conveyance without previously notifying to the owner, driver, or person in charge of such conveyance that he is so suffering.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to public conveyances for the time being in force, no owner or driver or person in charge of a public conveyance shall be bound to carry any person suffering as aforesaid in such conveyance, unless payment or tender of sufficient compensation for the loss and expenses he must incur in disinfecting such conveyance is first of all made to him.

332. No person shall let a building, or any part of a building, in which he knows, or has reason to know, that a person has been suffering from any of the diseases specified in section three hundred and twenty-one without first having such building or part thereof and every article therein likely to retain infection disinfected to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

333. Any person committing a breach of any of the provisions of this Part shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

334. In the event of Calcutta being at any time visited or threatened with an outbreak of any dangerous, epidemic or zootic disease, the Commissioners in meeting, if they think that the ordinary precautions are insufficient to check the spread of such disease, may, with the sanction of the Local Government, take such special measures as they shall think necessary to prevent, check, or mitigate any such outbreak, and the expenses of any such measures shall be paid out of the General Fund. Such measures and any regulations passed to give effect thereto shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and any person wilfully neglecting or refusing to carry out, or obstructing the execution of any regulation made under this section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

CUSTOM HOUSE REGULATIONS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT—CUSTOMS.

Darjeeling, the 24th September 1888.

RESOLUTION.

By a Resolution dated 27th March the Lieutenant-Governor appointed a Committee to consider and report upon certain points connected with existing Custom House Regulations, with the view of definitely settling questions which have for some years come up periodically for discussion between the representatives of the mercantile community and the Government. The principal matters referred to the Committee were those connected with—(1) Holidays, (2) Overtime charges, (3) General routine of Custom House business.

2. The Committee have now submitted their report. It represents the unanimous conclusions of the members, and the Lieutenant-Governor is glad that, by accepting its recommendations, he will be able to ratify a final settlement of the questions at issue, by which the reasonable requirements of the Commercial body and the servants of Government will be satisfied. His Honour is accordingly pleased to signify his approval of all the proposals contained in the report which is appended to this Resolution. The Board of Revenue will be requested to carry them into immediate effect. Their attention will be specially directed to the suggestion that the arrangements connected with the opening of the Custom House for one hour on those days in the Doorga Pooja holidays on which it has hitherto been closed, should not involve the attendance of Hindoo clerks.

The memorials of the officers of the Preventive Service, on which the Committee have reported, will be separately disposed of.

The Lieutenant-Governor tenders his thanks to the Hon'ble Mr. Steel and Mr. Wylie for their services on the Committee, and for the advice and

We, the Members of the Committee appointed under Government orders of the 27th March 1888 to advise upon certain questions connected with the administration of the Custom House and the Preventive Service, have the honour to submit the following report.

It has hitherto been the usage that the Custom House should not be opened on any gazetted holiday for any purpose, free of charge, except on certain days in the long holidays of the Doorga Poojas. This practice appears to us not to be suited to the requirements of the trade of Calcutta. We recommend that for the Custom House, as distinguished from the Preventive Department, Sundays, New Year's Day, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and Christmas Day, should in future be held to be absolutely close holidays; but that on the week days for which the office is closed in the Doorga Poojas, and on all ordinary gazetted holidays, other than the days mentioned above, the Custom House should be opened free of charge for one hour, viz. from 11 A.M. to 12 noon, all work applied for up to 12 o'clock being carried through, provided that notice is given to the Assistant Collector before closing hours on the day previous, or if this be a holiday, 24 hours in advance, that it is required to have the office so opened. On such opening, vessels would be allowed to enter and clear on the import and export sides, and provisional bills-of-entry for free goods as well as shipping bills for free goods issued, but the treasury would, as in Bombay, remain closed. It is understood that arrangements can be made to carry out this in the Doorga Pooja holidays without obliging Hindoo clerks to attend. The above change will further not affect the opening of the Custom House as heretofore on such advertised days as may be fixed on in the Doorga Pooja holidays for the receipt of duty and complete transaction of Custom House business.

Hitherto, when the Custom House has been opened out of regular hours, it has been the practice to charge a fee of Rs. 32 for inward entry and clearance, and Rs. 32 for outward entry and clearance, i.e., Rs. 16 for each operation. We now recommend that the fee be reduced to Rs. 16 per hour for all work required on the import side, and Rs. 16 per hour for all work required on the export side.

As regards the transshipment of goods, we recommend that in future dutiable transshipment goods which have once paid the transshipment fee should not be required to pay it over again when these are shut out and sent subsequently to another exporting vessel.

We also recommend that the Government having formerly admitted in respect of the jetties at Calcutta the principle of payment by Government of the fees to wharf officers for work done out of regulation hours, this concession should now be allowed in respect of such work when required from the wharf officers at the Petroleum Wharf of Budge-Budge. Hitherto the fee of Re. 1 per hour per shed has been taken from the importers requiring the work.

As regards the work, more especially connected with the Preventive Department, we recommend the following changes in practice:—

That in respect of work on boardship there should be no absolutely close holidays as formerly, but that every ship requiring to work on the 1st January, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and Christmas Day, should pay a fee of Rs. 100 for the day, besides the ordinary fees for the number of preventive officers applied for. The Superintendent of the Preventive Service having represented the hardship to him of having to work on these days, we recommend that he should be authorised to treat them as close holidays in respect of his own work.

That in future, instead of an officer being sent to each of the ships requiring to take in or discharge free cargo only on ordinary holidays, every divisional officer should remain on duty when any such ship has applied to work in his division, as though it were a working day, a single holiday fee of Rs. 5 being charged proportionately to the ships under his supervision which require to work in the manner above described.

- In respect of salt vessels, we recommend—

That in future the practice as to unloading salt into cargo-boats should be made to conform to the Government rule, and that any boat that applies be allowed to receive salt up to 4½ P.M., the practice of allowing an interval of half an hour for lunch remaining unaltered.

- That when a ship that has salt retained on board, but is not working salt, requires to have chipping or other necessary work done below, she should not in future have to pay for the second preventive officer to superintend this work, but that this officer should be supplied by Government.

That when a vessel discharging salt requires to take in at the same time free export cargo or ballast, this should be allowed without a third officer to look after the export cargo, unless the Superintendent of the Preventive Service on some special ground considers a third officer necessary for the protection of the revenue.

That the Board of Revenue should be moved to make arrangements for granting the endorsements on salt rowannahs and issuing the chalans required after the salt has been taken delivery of into boats on all ordinary holidays, including the Doorga Pooja.

- Lastly, we suggest the advisability of a manual of the various Custom House Rules in connection with the work of the Preventive Service being prepared by the Superintendent for the use of those who may require it.

In respect of the memorials which have been submitted by certain members of the Preventive Service, we are of opinion that the complaints set forth in them are not real grievances, and we have therefore no recommendations to make.

The Commercial Members of the Committee desire to record their acknowledgment of the readiness with which Mr. Scobell Armstrong has met the wishes of the mercantile community in the course of this enquiry.

We have had before us a note submitted by the Collector of Customs in reply to the criticisms contained in the speech made by the late President of the Chamber of Commerce and published on the 1st March last, and we would suggest that the note be forwarded to the Chamber of Commerce, as desired by the Collector.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-
TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 21st OF SEPTEMBER 1888.

At the close of the previous week a cyclonic storm which had formed probably in the Gulf of Siam was advancing in a north-westerly direction, and on Friday morning, the 14th, the storm centre was crossing Pegu to the west of Rangoon, or probably near Bassein. The storm was one of considerable intensity, and very low pressure was reported at Diamond Island and Bassein on this day, together with a gale of wind to the east and south of the storm area. During the 24 hours from 8 A.M. on Friday, the 14th, to 8 A.M. on the 15th, the storm continued its very rapid north-westerly advance, and on the latter date the storm centre was nearly midway between the Arakan and Orissa coasts, or about in latitude 19° N. and longitude 91° E. The storm on this day was evidently rather severe, as strong winds were blowing in its rear, and the cyclonic circulation accompanying the storm affected the wind directions over the whole province. During this day and the following night the rapidity of the advance of the storm appears to have increased, and it struck the Orissa coast close to False Point, and slightly to the south of it at about 3 A.M. on the 16th. The velocity of advance of the storm was so great that probably as it neared the land it was travelling at about 20 miles an hour. The storm as it reached the land was a decidedly intense one, and at False Point a barometric pressure of about 28.8 inches was reported, while winds are said to have been of hurricane force. It was therefore evident that the storm was quite sufficiently intense to have raised a storm-wave at its centre.

Directly the storm left the South Burma coast, travelling in a westerly direction, the ports round the head of the Bay and along the west coast were warned of the existence and probable line of advance of the storm, and No. 1 storm signal was hoisted in the river Hooghly and in the port of Calcutta. On the morning of the 15th, when the storm had reached the centre of the Bay, No. 2 signal was hoisted at the stations in the Hooghly, denoting that the storm would probably pass between False Point and Sagar Island, and the Orissa ports and those on the Madras coast from Coconada northwards were advised of the further advance of the storm, the usual warning signals being hoisted on the Orissa coast. Again during the evening of the 15th, as the storm advanced rapidly towards the land, the danger signals were ordered to be hoisted at the stations on the Orissa coast.

At 8 A.M. of the 16th, the centre of the storm was to the west of Cuttack, and following in its rear a severe south-westerly and south-easterly gale set in across the Orissa coast and in the north-west angle of the Bay, and some excessively high wind velocities were recorded during the early part of the 16th, Pooree reporting an hourly wind velocity of 64 miles, while at False Point the anemometer was blown away; but at about 3 P.M. of this day, as the stormy weather was moderating, the storm signals were ordered to be lowered. In the Hooghly, therefore, the storm signals were hoisted for about 54 hours continuously. With the advance of the storm inland very heavy rain set in over Orissa, and moderate rain generally over the remainder of the province. Thus on the 16th Khurda reported 6.53 inches, False Point 4.46 inches, and Gop on the 15th, 5.40 inches of rain.

The storm then advanced almost due westwards, and on the 17th the centre was a little to the east of Nagpur, and the storm itself occupied the greater part of the Central Provinces. On the 18th the storm centre had advanced to about fifty miles north-west of Nagpur, and on the 19th it had advanced into Bundelkund, South-East Rajputana, and the eastern districts of Central India, and the centre was midway between Sagar and Jhansi. On the 20th the storm had apparently advanced northwards into the western districts of the North-West Provinces and the South-East of the Punjab, and it then continued to pass northwards, advancing across the Simla and Mussoorie Hills, where it broke up apparently on the evening of the 20th or the morning of the 21st. This storm had therefore a life history of certainly nine days, and the length of its path was probably at least about 2,100 miles, but as no trace of its existence before nearing Tavoy can be obtained, it may be that its path was even larger than this. In certain respects the storm is one of the most remarkable of those on record in Indian meteorology, as there is apparently no instance of any previous storm having originated in Siam or the Gulf of Siam, and having crossed the whole of the Bay of Bengal, and then having travelled through a considerable part of Northern India.

As previously stated, the storm brought up heavy rain to the districts through which it passed, and following in its rear a rather strong advance of monsoon winds swept over the whole of Northern India, giving general rain in Bengal for several days in the week.

Pressure.—The pressure variations during the earlier part of the week were entirely dependent on the passage of the cyclonic storm, but with its disappearance inland pressure rose in Bengal with great rapidity, and the mean pressure for the week has been rather largely above the normal. The usual excess in the mean pressure has been about 0.07 inch, but at the stations in Orissa the average for the week has been either normal or slightly below it. In Assam an excess pressure of about 0.05 inch is recorded.

Temperature.—The mean temperature for the province for the week has been 0.5° in defect of the normal. In East and North Bengal indeed slight excess pressures are recorded, while the largest defects are in North Behar and Chutia Nagpur, where they amount to from one to two degrees. In Assam an excess temperature of 1.3° has been recorded.

Rainfall.—Has been heaviest in Orissa and the south-western districts generally and least in Behar. In Orissa the very heavy general fall of 4.90 inches is recorded, which is no less than 2.25 inches in excess of the normal amount. In South-West Bengal an average fall of 2.15 inches is reported, or about two-thirds of an inch in excess of the normal; in East and North Bengal the falls have averaged about two inches, or slightly less than the usual amounts; while over the remainder of the province the falls have ranged from about an inch to an inch and a quarter, and have also been slightly less than the normal, but the defects in no case are very large.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 21st of September 1888:

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h. 10h. 16h. and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.
